SERVE AND PRAY
Tomorrow is not promised us, So let us take today
And make the very most of it
And serve as well as pray.
Let's speak aloud the kindly thought,
And do the kindly deed,
And try to see and understand
The other person's need,

So let us make the most of it

Spaulding Lauds Douglass At University of Rochester Meet

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—"Frederick Douglass was the man he was because of his drives, commitment, integrity, courage, wisdom, interest in his fellowman, and the responses he made to the challenges he met," Asa T. Spaulding, president of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Co., told a University of Rochester audience last night (Mar. 16).

Spaulding, who rose from office boy to president of the multi-million-dollar insurance company, gave the fifth lecture in the University's three month Frederick Douglass Sesquicentennial series.

In his talk prepared for delivery here, Spaulding said, "It has been man's response to challenge that has fixed his place in history and advanced our civilization. It has taken him from savagery to civilization; from ignorance to knowledge; from a cave to a palace; from poverty to wealth; from disease to health; and from slavery to freedom."

Spaulding noted that Douglass' life and works "are constant challenges to all of us to use our individual talents at all times as best befits us in the continuing struggle for equality of opportunity and freedom and justice for all peoples."
