Reidsville Firm Among Seven Listed as Bias

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has filed complaints with the U. S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, alleging that seven major industries and two labor unions are guilty of racial discrimination against Negroes.

Herbert Hill, NAACP director for labor program, filed the complaints here recently with EEOC Commissioner Samuel Jackson, under Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act which prohibits discrimination in employment on the basis of race or color, including but not limited to promotional or job training opportunities.

The complaints specifically charged that more than 50 plaintiffs had been denied their rights under Title VII by the following corporations:

Bethlehem Steel Corp., Sparrows Point, Maryland; Burlington Industries, Inc., Reidsville; Davidson Transfer and Storage Co., Baltimore, Maryland; General Instrument Corp., Darlington, S. C.; Republic Steel Corp., Gadsden, Ala.; Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., Gadsden, Ala. and I. D. Precision Corp., Gadsden, Ala.

The unions hit by charges of racial bias included Local 2176, United Steelworkers of America, AFL-CIO, Gadsden, Ala., and Local 190, Cement Masons Union, Everett, Washington.

The NAACP, which is the nation's oldest and largest civil rights organization, had previously filed some 1600 complaints alleging racial discrimination, since July 2, 1965, when Title VII of the Civil Rights Act went into effect.

The welcome address was extended by L. E. Spencer, Rev. B. A. Mack, pastor, gave a short sermon on "The Christian Qualifications." A 20 year service plaque was presented to the widow of the late John M. Allen by the superintendent of the Sunday School of Kesler Temple, Regal M. Harris. Shown in this picture is Mrs. Allen receiving the plaque surrounded with the Allen family and superintendents of other church schools.
