Be A Softie

LUMINOUS OR LEATHERY?
 When a woman's skin is bared to harsh sunlight, or sand, wind and weather, it actually can become thicker and tougher, warn Pacquin skin care specialists.

Exposure Problem
 They suggest applying a lotion for extra-dry skin to counteract moisture loss and preserve youthful softness after hours of outdoor exposure.
 Especially effective for lubricating hands, elbows, legs and even feet, which contain few natural oils, Pacquin lotion for extra dry skin is priced from about 39¢ at local cosmetic counters.

What to do About Gardener's Nails

Gardening chores can be destructive to hands and nails unless you take precautions. Skin care specialists at Pacquin suggest these tips for tender, loving hand care:

Hand-in-Glove
 Wear gloves whenever possible to protect skin and nails from dirt, rocks and sharp gardening tools. You'll find that gloves will slip on and off with ease if you apply a protective coating of hand cream first.

Stain Removal
 If you must work barehanded, apply some hand cream under each nail before you begin. Then rinse cream and grime away with water and nail brush when the chore is completed.
 To remove stubborn stains from nail tips, bleach them easily back to whiteness with Mani Magic, a new tubed manicure aid that also removes rough cuticle without cutting, while you watch.

Be Prepared
 Pretty hands will be a habit if you keep hand care needs near garden tools, flower sink or the porch. A variety of Pacquin hand creams, for normal, extra-dry or chapped skin come in jars or handy tubes. They are priced from about 39¢ at all local drug and cosmetic stores.

Businesses Get Pledge Of Backing
Food Chain Will Use Products, Services Of Negro Firms

CHICAGO — A five-point agreement for more than 500 new jobs and economic development in the Negro community has been signed by ministers of Operation Breadbasket, a program of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and top officials of Jewel Companies, Inc., a major grocery chain.
 It was the third, largest and most far-reaching victory negotiated in Chicago between Operation Breadbasket and major food chains during the last half year.
DR. MARTIN Luther King Jr., SCLC president, joined the Chicago ministers and Donald S. Perkins, president of Jewel, in signing the agreement.
 As a result of negotiations, the program assures not only new and upgraded positions for Negro employees, but also a hiring and training center to serve the Negro community and features to stimulate Negro businesses — including contractors, food firms, banks, sanitary and other services.
 Jewel, Chicago's largest retail food chain, agreed with Operation Breadbasket ministers to do these things:
 • Open 512 new and better-paying jobs for Negroes, and an additional 150 part-time jobs for Negro youths. The full-time jobs will amount to more than $3 million in new annual income for Negro families. At the same time, the company is establishing a recruitment, hiring and training center for the new and future Negro jobholders on S. State Street.
 • Guarantee shelf space for Negro suppliers and Negro products in Jewel stores, and set up a marketing advisory service for Negro businesses.
 • Assure new and expanding Jewel accounts in two Negro banks (Seaway National Bank and Independence National of Chicago, thus boosting investment funds needed for economic development of Negro neighborhoods.
 • Provide Negro building contractors the opportunity to work on new Jewel stores to be built in the Chicago area.
 • Utilize Negro scavenger services in garbage collection and Negro firms specializing in pest and insect control.
 Operation Breadbasket has organized an independent alliance of scavenger services to gain accounts in and around the ghetto which previously have gone to white firms.
 The agreement with Jewel brings the total number of jobs opened by SCLC's Chicago Breadbasket program to more than 1,500. Income from these jobs is expected to soar over $10 million each year for Negro families. The pact with Jewel, and earlier settlements with National Tea Company and High-Low Foods Company in Chicago will help the Negro community to obtain millions more by increasing earning powers of Negro owned and operated businesses, according to the Rev. Jesse Jackson, breadbasket coordinator.
