Chapman-Dunn Wedding Held In Gastonia

GASTONIA—Marriage vows between Miss Phyllis Eugenia Dunn and Charles Henry Chapman were exchanged Saturday, June 24 at 5 p.m., at St. Paul Baptist Church. Dr. C. M. Young, Jr. pastor of Third St. Presbyterian heard the exchange of vows during the impressive double ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Furman E. Davis, organist, and William B. Lindsay, vocal soloist.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene L. Dunn, is a graduate of Highland High School, Gastonia, Howard University, Washington, D.C., and earned her master's degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She is a member of Kappa Delta Phi honor sorority and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. She is guidance counselor of E. E. Smith High School of Fayetteville.

He has recently returned from tour of duty with the U.S. Air Force in Vietnam, and is stationed at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base, Goldsboro.

The empire bodice featured a scoop neckline, and a panel of re-embroidered lace extended down the front of the A-line skirt. A detachable train edged in lace scallops was caught to the waistline.

Her veil of imported silk illusion was caught to a pillbox accented with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid and showered with ribbons.

Mrs. George A. Gregory, of Gastonia, honor attendant wore a floor length cage crepe dress of coral with custard trim featuring a floating back panel. Her veil of silk illusion was attached to a pillbox hat with a bow at the back. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Hattie Hardin, Miss Peggy Moore, both of Gastonia, Mrs. Fannie Jenkins, of Fayetteville, and Miss Barbara Shoats, of Washington, D. C. They were attired in floor-length cage crepe dresses custard with coral trim, styled similar to that of the honor attendant.

Elizabeth Faye Brooks, Gastonia and Trevonia Brown, Winston-Salem, were flower girls. They were dressed like the bridesmaids and carried nosegays. Jonathan Williams was ringbearer and carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

BRIDGE CLUB SPECIAL — (Strawberry Bavarian Mold)

The girls will be glad the last rubber has been played when you serve them Strawberry Bavarian Mold in heart, diamond, club, and spade shapes. Frozen whipped topping and strawberry flavor gelatin combine so easily to make this delightful bridge club dessert treat.

STRAWBERRY BAVARIAN MOLD

1 package (3 oz.) strawberry flavor gelatin
1/2 cup sugar
Dash of salt
1 cup boiling water
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 cups (1-pt. container) frozen whipped topping, thawed
1 cup chopped fresh strawberries (about 1 pt.)
Dissolve gelatin, sugar, and salt in boiling water. Add lemon juice. Chill until slightly thickened. Fold whipped topping and strawberries into slightly thickened gelatin. Pour into individual molds or a 1 1/2 quart mold. Chill until firm. Unmold; garnish with additional strawberries, if desired. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

After the last rubber is played, all eyes usually turn toward the hostess of the day. "What is she going to serve?"

Poet's Corner

WHITE ROCK SQUARE
There's a Church in White Rock Square
And everybody enjoys going there.

Oh Father! time has called her hand
Urban Renewal won't let her stand.

All around her wall outside,
The beautiful Ivy is running wild.

Oh White Rock! Oh White Rock!
Oh White Rock Square
Our memories will ever linger there.

By Mrs. Louise Moore
910 Lawson Street
Durham, N. C.

is the question of the moment.

That question often poses a problem for the hostess, because ladies pride themselves in being able to serve something "different" at these bridge sessions.

For something different yet simple to prepare, select to serve Strawberry Bavarian Molds. Birds Eye Cool Whip

Non-Dairy Whipped Topping and Jell-O Strawberry Gelatin combine to make this delightfully pink and pretty, cool and fluffy treat. Frozen whipped topping is already whipped when you purchase it; just thaw and add to the slightly thickened gelatin. Mold Strawberry Bavarian in heart-, diamond-, club-, and spade-shaped molds for a real special dessert for the bridge club.

A TRIBUTE TO THE CLERGY

Because our contacts with the clergymen of our community are frequent and varied, we must admit that we have sometimes been guilty of taking their selfless devotion for granted. May we then at this time express our appreciation for the many gracious services they render without complaint and often with little or no reward.
