Pledges of cooperation have come from state presidents and other key officers across the nation, many of whom have appointed aides to work on their renewal campaign committees.

Among those who have responded are Mrs. Sarah M. Green of Tennessee who has appointed Mrs. B. H. Netherland; and Mrs. Juanita Jackson Mitchell, Maryland, whose appointees are Walter Black and John W. Ringgold.

selves at any time without the advice or will of the pastor; according to Hiscox page 115 note 8.

The pastor of a church (Baptist Church) has the oversight and superintendence of all the interests of the church, and all departments of its work, both spiritual and temporal. (See Hiscox page 97 paragraph 2).

Any deacon or any other member other than the pastor of the church who calls or attempts to call a meeting of the church is out of order and the meeting is not legal; and that member or members should be called in question by the church and pastor. No one has the right to call a meeting of the church except the pastor; all call meetings must be given at least one week's public notice, and the purpose of such meeting must be stated at the time of said notice, and the pastor shall preside in all meetings of the church according to Churchbook by Gaines S. Dobbins, A.M., Th.D., D.D., L.L.D., former Dean, School of Religious Education, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky. (See Dobbins Churchbook page 13, article 2.)

Trustees likewise to the deacons have no power at any time to act in any way until granted by the church through a vote by a majority of the members in a regular church meeting. A trustee board is just a standing committee to do what the church empowers it to do and nothing else. (See Dobbins Churchbook page 198, Article 2.)

Stockholders of CCF to Hear J. E. Givens

J. E. Givens, Assistant General Manager of Southern States Cooperative in Richmond, Virginia, will address the 37th Annual Stockholders Meeting of Central Carolina Farmers.

The meeting will be held at the National Guard Armory in Durham on Thursday, October 19, beginning at 10:30 a.m. In making today's announcement, CCF's C. W. Tilson was high in his praise of Givens, saying that, "Ed Givens is an outstanding co-operator. He has a wide and most successful experience working with farmers, and I am sure he has some very worthwhile ideas to share with our stockholders."

ble that arises or starts in the Baptist churches starts because of unqualified deacons who step beyond their bounds or authority. Deacons have no authoritative or dictatorial control over the church or its affairs; the power is submitted to the body and by them all matters are decided. (See Hiscox Directory Page 145, Article 1.)

Deacons never were managers or dictators; they are servants and appointed to serve tables, Acts 6:1-6; as well as what Dobbins said about it. (See page 198, Paragraph 1.)

Any deacon or deacons who who think they have the authority to call a church meeting over the pastor do not know their job; and, therefore, should be moved from the board of deacons immediately before they create further trouble and divide the saints; no deacon or trustee can legally call a meeting over the pastor at any time; or at any other time until the church meets in regular session and votes to grant a committee such power to call a meeting when there is no pastor. All call meetings must be given at least one week's public notice as fore stated.

What we need in the church of today is more people who have been born of The Holy Spirit. I think it is a shame that a deacon or deacons whose qualification calls for being full of the Holy Ghost sets out to work against the pastor on his own without authority or legal ground and have the nerve to run same in public newspaper as I have seen in time, is most un-Christian and damaging to the church and such act should be protested by all
