

ATTENTION HELP WANTED

North Carolina Blue Cross and Blue Shield, Inc., now has that better job opportunity which you will want to consider. Tremendous growth during the past year has created openings for claims examiners, claims payment clerks, typists, and many other general office workers. You must be a high school graduate or better. Experience is not required, but for certain positions, a knowledge of medical terms or health insurance would be helpful.

The Corporation provides excellent working conditions, convenient parking areas, seven paid holidays per year and liberal vacation and sick leave plans. In addition, all employee group insurance and retirement programs are paid for in full by the Corporation.

Even though North Carolina Blue Cross and Blue Shield is a large organization, the individual value of each employee is recognized. Salary, responsibility and promotions are based on individual merit.

So that we may give you prompt and individual attention, call Mrs. Sandra Vogue in the Personnel Department at 688-1341 to arrange an appointment for a personal interview.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

Saint Augustine's College Board Accepts Plans for Enlargement

RALEIGH—Dr. Prezell Robinson, president of Saint Augustine's College, has announced that the Board of Trustees in their February meeting, approved the 1968-69 budget of $2,393,475, the largest in the history of the college.

The board also authorized contractual agreements for the construction of the Student Union Building. President Robinson said that work will begin immediately on the actual construction of this building, which will cost over $900,000. The Student Union will seat 450 students at one time in the dining hall and will accommodate up to 60 persons in a private dining area. It will have student offices, lounge areas, play areas, book store, post office, grill and audio visual rooms. It is anticipated that this completely air conditioned building will be ready for occupancy by November 1968.

The board also accepted the master plan and model as recommended by the President and the Building Committee. In addition to the construction of the Student Union Building in 1968, these plans envision a new classroom building in 1968, a natatorium in 1969, infirmary 1969, a new president's home, 1971, fine arts building, 1971, commerce building, 1972, and a new library in 1973.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS—Morgan freshman and Miss Claude Harrison president of the Durham chapter of the North Carolina College Alumni Association chats with the holders of full four-year scholarships given by the chapter. The students are Miss Ethel Willie McDonald, right, sophomore. Both are of Durham. The scholarships held by the two students cover tuition and fees for the four years and provide a book allowance in addition.

MISS PENN

Miss Annie Bell Penn Named First 'Miss Barber-Scotia' Coll.

CONCORD—Miss Annie Bell Penn, the charming and personable daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse G. Penn of Ridgeway, Virginia, was recently crowned as the first Miss Barber-Scotia. Miss Penn was crowned at Scotia's first celebration of Homecoming.

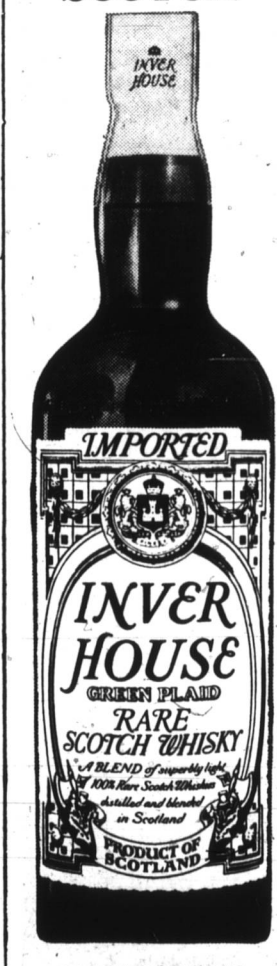

Although this is the first time being an official representative of Scotia, Miss Penn is no new comer to the task. This is her third experience of having been crowned queen. She was Miss Richard H. Clark School, Martinsville, Va., in 1959 (elementary), Miss George Washington Carver High School, Fieldale, Va. in 1964 (high school) and now Miss Barber-Scotia in 1968.

Not only has she claimed these three honors, but she has also excelled in other areas, she has been an honor student throughout her educational career and active in extra-curricular activities. While in high school she was a member of the National Honor Society, the Dramatics Club, French Club, Glee Club and the Student Service Organization. Since coming to Scotia she has served as treasurer of her freshman class, both as secretary as well as assistant secretary of the Student Council, student representative on the Religious Life Committee and the Institutional Self-Study Committee, treasurer of the local chapter of the Alpha Kappa Mu National Honor Society, member of the Usher Board, and immediate past basileus of the Delta Psi Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. She was recently elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

Miss Penn is a twenty-one year old senior majoring in elementary education with a concentration in general science. Her future plans include teaching for a while and continuing her education.

King to speak in Wilmington

WILMINGTON, N.C.—Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. may speak in Wilmington on Feb. 29 as part of a voter registration drive, it was learned last Wednesday.

Dr. Hubert Eaton, a Wilmington physician, obtained permission to use the Williston High School gymnasium for the speech if King can fit it into his schedule.

Eaton said the speech would be part of a voter registration drive and that he, the local chapter of the NAACP and "other interested citizens" would sponsor the program.

King is reported compiling a schedule of trips through the country this spring and summer.
