SO LET THE WIND BLOW!—(Hot Cider Punch) — Nothing will warm family or friends as delightfully as Hot Cider Punch. A winning combination of spices, apple cider, and instant breakfast drink.

So Let The Wind Blow

What could be more invigorating than a tramp through the snow on a cold winter day? And by the same token, what could chill the bones more than the blustery winter wind? Now is the perfect time of year to serve your family of friends spicy hot drinks after the snowball fight, sledding, or just while sitting around the TV set.

One of the very best cold weather drinks is Hot Cider

Punch, a combination of cider, spices, and Tang Instant Breakfast drink. The blend of flavors, apple cider, and orange-flavored instant breakfast drink is indeed a delightful taste treat. Served steaming hot with a cinnamon stick stirrer and a platter of doughnuts, Hot Cider Punch will be a favorite of both family and friends . . . so let the wind blow!

HOT CIDER PUNCH

4 cups water
4 cups apple cider
2/3 cup orange-flavored instant breakfast drink
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/8 teaspoon nutmeg
1/8 teaspoon ground cloves
Combine all ingredients and blend well. Heat just to boiling. Serve in mugs with cinnamon sticks as stirrers, if desired. Makes about 2 quarts or 8 servings.

"Freedom to Live and Learn" Theme of East End Assembly

The 4B3 class of the East End Elementary School presented an assembly program Thursday, February 22, in the school gymnasium. The theme was "Freedom To Live and Learn." Mrs. Eva M. Pratt is the teacher of the class.

The program, presented in the form of a radio skit, "The Big Broadcast"—Station WEES, featured pupils delivering excerpts from the lives of various Americans who have played outstanding roles in the founding, growth, history and development of our American nation. Among those discussed were Christopher Columbus, George Washington, Sir Walter Raleigh, Abraham Lincoln, Paul L. Dunbar, Frederick Douglass, Dunbar, Frederick Douglas, Thomas Jefferson, Booker T. Washington, F. D. Roosevelt, Eleanor Roosevelt, Mary McLeod Bethune, John F. Kennedy and others.

The pupils decided to use the radio method of presenting their assembly program after doing reports and discussions on February birthdays. The observance and interest in Negro History Week motivated them to add other excerpts to their knowledge. Their speeches were written according to their own desires and wishes. The tape recorder was used to tape their speeches and to study their presentations.

Following the class presentation, the pupils gave away money for hot lunches to pupils in the audience who answered questions about the program. A large number of parents witnessed the program. Remarks and greetings were extended by Tom Cranford, president of the Sertoma Club, which was observing "Freedom Week." Remarks were also given by the principal, R. L. Yockey.
