WARM THE PUNCH BOWL FOR A CHANGE!—(Mulled Cranberry Punch)—For a great change of pace idea in the drink department, serve warm and spicy Mulled Cranberry Punch at your next at-home gathering. Cranberry juice and Kool-Aid Instant Soft Drink Mix provide a delicious fruit-flavored base for this very adult tasting punch. A heaping bowl of buttered popcorn will keep guests happy and the passing arm busy, too

Warm the Punch Bowl For A Change!

There are still a number of cool, nippy nights ahead of us. Nights like these are just perfect for entertaining in the warmth of the home. A roaring fire in the fireplace, congenial friends, and a hot spicy drink are all that is needed for an evening of pleasure.

There's just something about a bowl of punch that says special, and this one is extra special, since it's deliciously spiced and served hot.

Mulled Cranberry Punch is an adult tasting punch with plenty of zip. Cranberry juice and Kool-Aid Instant Soft Drink Mix provide the wonderful fruit flavor base for this winter's eve beverage.

Entertaining at home need not be elaborate to be nice. Who really enjoys a harried hostess, one who has to spend most of the time in and out of the kitchen preparing for the guests.

When your turn for at-home entertainment comes around, serve delightfully simple refreshments such as Mulled Cranberry Punch or Mulled Orange Punch and hot buttered popcorn. You'll be surprised at the takers you'll get for the crunchy popcorn and spicy warm drink made with instant soft drink mix. You'll wonder, whoever said Kool-Aid was for kids!

MULLED CRANBERRY PUNCH

1 envelope strawberry or orange instant soft drink mix
1 cup sugar
6 cups hot water
1 cups (1-pt. bottle) cranberry juice cocktail
1 stick cinnamon
5 whole cloves
Dissolve soft drink mix and sugar in hot water. Add cranberry juice and spices. Cover and let stand about 10 minutes. Remove spices. Garnish with orange slices studded with whole cloves, if desired. Serve warm. Makes 2 quarts or 3 servings, 8 ounces each.

Q. I'm giving a sweet sixteen luncheon party for my best friend, Marge. I want to enjoy the luncheon — I don't think hostesses should be kitchen-knobs during their own parties. Any suggestions for organizing?

A. You're quite right — no one enjoys a party when the hostess is huffing and puffing between kitchen and table. So be the hostess-with-the-mostest. Prepare foods that require little or no work the day of the party. This way you can greet guests at the door instead of putting frantic last-minute touches on your food. A relish tray, for instance, and cold hors-d'oeuvres makes more sense than fancy hot canapés. Have fun with the luncheon. Try informal, gaily colored paper plates with matching or contrasting Kleenex dinner napkins — in avocado green, Persian blue, or antique gold. And ask a couple of the girls to pitch in and help — they'll be flattered that you asked.

Q. Is there any help for a Skinny Minnie? If Twiggy's fashionable, I'm even more so! The worst part is my stocklike legs. What can I do?

A. Stop worrying! Remember the old saying, "Fat people are jolly." Well it's true. Fat people aren't burning calories through nervousness or worry. If you can't eat at mealtime or if you're stuffed after one bite, try eating more often. Have a snack every few hours. Prescription for those legs: Exercise! Stand straight, weight distributed evenly over both feet. Raise yourself on the balls of your feet, then back down. Repeat this 50 times each day. Good for muscle tone!

Q. My hands are so red and calloused I'm ashamed to let them show. I encase them in gloves, or sit on them, or hold them behind my back. Mom says I must do my share of the housework and this includes doing dishes. Speed advice — please!

A. Your hands will be creamy smooth for dreamy dances if you remember to use hand lotion whenever you do dishes, before bed, and first thing in the morning. Thin-skinned hands receive more wear and tear than any other part of our bodies — because they're washed more often. To make life easier for hands, use Hand-gard disposable gloves while you're doing the dishes or giving nylons their nightly washing. An extra dollop of lotion before you put on the gloves makes for smoothness too!

MRS. ALBERT L. STANBACK

Stanback-Sinkler Wedding Held At Ellis Chapel Church, Shelby

Miss Selena Grace Sinkler and Albert Leon Stanback were married recently in New Ellis Chapel Baptist Church, Shelby.

The Rev. A. L. Smith officiated. Ray Harper was organist and Miss Elizabeth Peeler was vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal, empire gown of peau de sole with the skirt applied with lace motifs. She wore a formal-length mantilla of illusion edged with Chantilly lace, and carried a cascade of white carnations, lace and satin ribbons centered with a white orchid.

Miss Ann Jeanette Hamrick of Shelby was maid of honor. Misses Iva Bird and Ada Mitchell, Mrs. Sonja Kennedy, all of Shelby, Misses Sylvia Cooper and Loretta Warner, both of Hillsborough, and Mrs. Ernestine Durante of Durham were bridesmaids. Pamela Lucille Stanback of Hillsborough was a junior bridesmaid. James R. Warner of Hillsborough was best man. Ushers were Charles R. Stanback Jr., Howard Stanback, Reginald Durante, Roger Davis, Anderson Council and Jay Frank Hanley of Durham. Dennis Sinkler was a junior usher.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents were hosts at a reception at Holly Oak Center.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manning S. Sinkler of Shelby, graduated from Cleveland High School in 1965 and made her debut that year in the debutante ball. She is a junior at North Carolina College in Durham.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. C. C. Stanback of Hillsborough and the late A. L. Stanback, graduated from Central High School and North Carolina College. He is now a third-year law student in the NCC School of Law.

The couple will reside at 104 Lawson St., Durham.
