Council expressed its support the campaign and to individuals of the forthcoming Poor People's Campaign by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference as "a necessary dramatiza-tion of their understanding of the crisis in the nation." The goals of the SCLC in the campaign "are consistent with our understanding of this crisis," the Council said. It recommended that unrestricted financial support be extended to the Poor People's Campaign to enable participants to get to Washington, D. C.; that a consultation be held with the denomination's Presbytery of

Washington City in order to urge that presbytery and its churches "to lend whatever as-In the same meeting, the sistance may be appropriate" to
