Soul Queen Stars In TV Special

NEW YORK—Aretha Franklin, the current queen of soul music and America's top-selling female vocalist, will star in "The Singers: Two Profiles," Saturday, May 11, from 9:30 to 10:30 p.m. (EDT) on the ABC Television Network.

The color special will follow Aretha's career from her start as a singer of gospel songs in her father's Detroit church through her rise to stardom.

THE PROGRAM also will feature singer Gloria Loring, a relative newcomer, and will show her efforts to reach the top in the singing business.

The special will illustrate what Aretha's got that makes her No. 1 to millions of fans. As Aretha herself puts it: "I sing to people about what matters, I sing to people who accept it like it is. I express problems: There are tears when it's sad and smiles when it's happy."

IT WAS A JOYOUS OCCASION at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Stewart here last week when the family, relatives and friends paid tribute to the 83-year-old minister with gifts, visits, telegrams and letters of praise. Present for this occasion were two of his minister sons, the Rev. C. A. Stewart of New York shown at the left and Rev. D. N. Stewart of Tampa, Florida, presenting two of the many gifts received by their father.

BIBLE QUOTE

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.
