Noted Leader Unable to Make It With Group

Bayard Rustin, at a press conference this afternoon, made the following statement: Gentlemen:

Thank you for coming. In my press conference yesterday morning, I reported to you that I had suspended my activities in connection with the June 19th Mobilization to Support the Poor People's Campaign.

I made clear that I could not resume these activities until Rev. Ralph Abernathy and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference had satisfactorily clarified the status of the 14-point agreement which was the basis of my assuming the responsibility of National Coordinator of the Mobilization.

I further stated that serious and conclusive discussions toward such a clarification had

Raleigh Host to 81st Old North State Medical Society Meeting

ROCKY MOUNT — Dr. R. W. McDowell of Raleigh, the overall convention manager for the 81st Annual Meeting of the Old North State Medical Society, announced this week that all plans have been finalized for the sessions scheduled which opened at the Sir Walter Hotel in Raleigh on Tuesday, June 11.

Approximately 300 Medical Dental and Pharmaceutical men and Auxiliaries are expected for the sessions.

The opening Business Sessions for all three of the units are slated for Tuesday night, at 8:00 p.m. with Dr. J. P. Green of Henderson, president of the medical unit presiding.

Items of great importance to face the convention are concerned with the comprehensive medical care for all citizens, more representation on boards and committees having to do with medical care in North Carolina, discussion of welfare policies in North Carolina, talent recruitment of medical and paramedical personnel in the state and the admission policies of the medical schools operating in North Carolina as they relate to Negro students. Also meeting were scheduled with representatives of the Palmetto Medical Society (South Carolina) and the Old Dominion Medical Society (Virginia) on the feasibility of joint meetings.

The social side of the convention got underway Tuesday at 10:30 p.m. with a dance and reception in the hotel's Virginia Dare Ballroom. It was preceded by a golf tournament which was begun Tuesday afternoon at the Meadowbrook Country Club and a card party
