DELTA SIGMA THETA AWARDS SCHOLARSHIP TO MISS LOTTIE LAWSON

The alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority has awarded its highest scholarship for a period of four years to Miss Lottie Lawson. She is a graduate of Person County High School, Roxboro.

During her high school career, Miss Lawson was very active in the school, church, and community. She was a member of the National Honor Society and for three years was president of the local Chapter; she served as president of the Library Club, the Literary Club and Debaters Club. She represented the local chapter of the National Honor Society at the 1967 State Convention at Nagshead and has held numerous positions in her homeroom organization.

In the church, she was active in choir activities and served as a faithful and dutiful president of the Youth Organization.

As salutatorian of her class of 1968, Lottie plans to attend North Carolina College. She is most worthy of this financial assistance and the members of Delta wish her the best of success.

Actor Reports Getting Role in New Movie

Actor Glenn Battle of Woodside, a frequent performer in productions at the Manhattan Playhouse in East Palo Alto and the Menlo Players Guild, said recently he has been given a prominent role in the new Woody Allen film, "Take the Money and Run for Your Life," currently being filmed in the San Francisco area.

BATTLE

The movie, which stars Allen and actress Janet Margolin, is scheduled to be released for national showing sometime this fall. Allen also is directing the film.

Battle has been working the past three weeks in filming of the production, a cops-and-robber farce. Although he doesn't have many lines, Battle said he is prominently featured in scenes involving the principals.

Battle attended Hillside High School in Durham, and went on to North Carolina College.

CAROLINA TIMES SUSPENDS AUG. 31 ISSUE FOR VACATION

For the first time in nearly a half century The Carolina Times will suspend publication for one issue Saturday, August 31, to allow its staff to take a vacation.

Many of our employees of several years tenure have worked without a yearly vacation. Our publisher has been unable to take any time off for practically forty-five years. This is inhumane. We thank you our advertisers and subscribers for your indulgence.
