

COMPLETES COLLEGE WORK
—Miss Fannie B. Wimberly, a twenty-one year old coed from Lakeworth, Florida, has completed her college work at St. Augustine's College in three years, by attending the regular summer school sessions.

Miss Wimberly was graduated from Carver High School, in her hometown, in 1965. She says that both of her parents are deceased, so she lives with her grandmother, Mrs. Isabel Wimberly at Lakeworth. Majoring in social welfare, Miss Wimberly plans to enter graduate school in the fall and study in the area of psychiatric social work.

Senior Citizens Fete Five at July-August Birthday Party

Honored at the July-August Birthday Party of the Senior Citizens at St. Titus' were Charles Harris — July, Miss Iola Allen and Mesdames Julia Harris, Mary Lowe, and Bertha Shaw — August. Though Mrs. Shaw was unable to attend, she contributed, like the other honorees, to the refreshments, and was sent her group gift and her remembrances from individual members.

After an opening hymn, prayer, and "Happy Birthday to You" led by Mrs. Bessie Doby with Charles Harris at the piano, other formalities were waived except for correspondence — thank-yous from former birthday honorees and a thank-you from the Vicar on behalf of St. Titus' for a contribution to the Building Fund as a memorial to Miss Constance Young, a late member of Senior Citizens.

An air of festivity prevailed throughout the hour. The usual special table decorations added to the festive spirit and to the enjoyment of the usual sumptuous refreshments.

Following refreshments, Mrs. "Chat" Rivera distributed gifts and greetings. Each honoree went away laden with a gift from the club and many expressions of love from other members. Charles Harris was especially happy with his club gift — a cake made with raw (unrefined) sugar, the only kind he thinks one should eat. (See Mr. Harris for reasons). Also he had shared such a cake with the group. They liked it.

In spite of the weather, 90 degrees plus, with intense humidity, the following members were present: Misses Iola Allen and Lillian Burton; Messrs. Joe Arnold and Charles Harris, and Mesdames Alice Brame, Geneva Burke, Bessie Doby, Julia Harris, Mary Lowe, Mary Newby, Willie Mae Richmond, Charity Rivera, and Addie Williams. It should be noted that several members are out of town, and several are indisposed. Miss Carol Tyler, doing graduate work in nursing at Duke, was an invited guest who shared the happy hour with the Senior Citizens.

Personally Yours

answers questions about Junior Miss etiquette, grooming and interests.

Q. My little sister and I share a room and she refuses to put anything away; I'm embarrassed to have my friends over because of the mess. Please suggest a solution.

A. Make a sloppiness stopper — cleverly disguised as a decorator touch. Find a large, deep and sturdy box for your sister and a small one for yourself. Cover each with a matching pattern of Marvalon adhesive covering. It's fun. Present the new box to your sister and show her yours. Make a pact with her giving each of you the right to put the other's possessions in the box if they're cluttering the room. Set a good example by never leaving anything of yours out of place. Her things will be out of your way, and she may start putting them away herself.

Q. Wow! It's hard to get up and get with it in the summer, though I had no trouble getting up at 7:30 when school was in session. (Well, most of the time). Any suggestions?

A. It's great to sleep late in summer but it's also great to feel alive and really enjoy the vacation. Try doing light exercises such as running in place to get your circulation going, as soon as you wake. Next, the "pseudo sauna" — first, your regular shower, then a rinse with the iciest of water sprays. For the finale, a cola or ice-tea drink after breakfast. Think you'll be awake? It's a pretty safe bet!

Q. This may sound ridiculous, but right before a date I perspire much too much. It's not only embarrassing, but my dresses are becoming stained. Anti-perspirants just don't work under these conditions. What can I do?

A. There's a panic button that helps! First, pin in dress shields, to prevent stains on your dresses. Some situations (waiting for your date, dancing) present an even greater problem. What to do now? Temporary Kleenex tissue shields! Before your date arrives — or in the ladies' room at the dance — tuck a Kleenex tissue over the edge of a sleeveless dress or inside one with sleeves. It'll absorb excess perspiration before it hits the shield or the dress. After a minute, remove the tissues.

Yes, We All Talk

By Marcus H. Boulware
Preventive Dentistry

A Dentist: I am a disciple of preventive dentistry, and preach it gently to my patient while in the chair. It seems that I have failed. What's wrong?

Answer: Your timing was wrong. The chair was not the proper place for this kind of sermon when you realize that many patients have waited a long time for service. They are not in the mood, even though you offer the argument that there is a shortage of dentists. Why not arrange to speak before groups, show films and slides. End the meet with cookies and coffee and tea. This will provide an opportunity for informal chats.

GASTONIA — The annual Broome-Costner family reunion was held at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Dwight Costner a recent Saturday. A wide circle of relatives and friends were present.
