

Obscenity Case Limit Proposed

WASHINGTON — Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., acting on a major issue in the controversy over the nomination of Chief Justice, moved Monday to limit federal court jurisdiction over obscenity cases.

In a proposed amendment to the gun control bill, Dirksen would prohibit any federal court from reviewing, reversing or setting aside a jury ruling whether matter was obscene in a criminal action under any U.S. obscenity law.

He proposed a similar restriction on federal courts in the case of a court decision under state or local obscenity laws for prosecution of persons charged with possession or sale of pornography.

"For a great many years during the prosecution of obscenity cases, the defense has almost invariably been related to the 1st Amendment protection of freedom of speech," Dirksen said in a statement.

"This proposed amendment merely affirms that there is some limit to freedom of speech and the 1st Amendment protection."

Several conservative Southern senators oppose the Dirksen nomination on the ground that he has voted with a Supreme Court majority to overturn local anti-obscenity laws and free pornographers convicted under them.

Dirksen supports Fortas' confirmation.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said it was Congress' responsibility to enact tougher anti-obscenity laws, not to condemn the Supreme Court or Justice Fortas for rulings under existing law.

Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., supported the Dirksen amendment.

Bias Tied To Fortas Opponents

NEW YORK — The executive council of the AFL-CIO charged Monday that racial and religious prejudice figures in the campaign to block President Johnson's appointment of Abe Fortas as chief justice of the United States.

"We had hoped that America had put that sort of bigotry behind it forever," said a statement released during a recess in the council's closed two-day session here.

George Meany, president of the 14.1-million-member organization, told a news conference it was not valid to argue that Johnson should not appoint Fortas while in "lame duck" status.

If that were true, Meany said, "there are lame duck senators and they shouldn't be voting on this or any other matter."

Meany also said he would be "surprised" if the AFL-CIO's board did not endorse Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey for president when it meets on Wednesday.

He said Republican Richard M. Nixon's labor record is "bad, very bad." Organized labor will try to "educate" voters against both Nixon and third-party candidate George C. Wallace, Meany said.

"Whatever damage Wallace will do, he'll do more to the Republicans than the Democrats," Meany predicted.

The executive council took note of the recent alliance of the United Auto Workers and Teamsters unions into the Alliance for Labor Action, and charged that the two independent unions were trying to set up a rival organization to the AFL-CIO.

"Both of these organizations have engaged in raids against the membership of AFL-CIO affiliates," the council said in a statement. It declared that joining or supporting the alliance would be grounds for suspension or expulsion from the AFL-CIO.

The 16-million-member Teamsters union was expelled from the AFL-CIO in 1957. The 1.6-million-member UAW disaffiliated on July 1. They have stressed that their alliance is not a merger, but an effort to organize the unorganized and push social programs.

'Execution' Suspected In Slayings

CLEVELAND, Ohio — Homicide detectives said Monday the shooting deaths of three men and one woman found slain earlier in an east side park might be a case of "just plain execution."

Detectives said they first suspected robbery as a motive but had ruled this out when $17 in cash was found in the pockets of one of the victims.

Victims were Joseph Zeland, 54, of South Euclid, owner of Tom's Place, a bar and Euclid Avenue; Raymond Hamer, 28, a bartender, Ronald Mahoney, 25,
