

EAGLES CLAW WINSTON-SALEM RAMS 32-12

North Carolina College Turns Three Fumbles Into Touchdowns

WINSTON-SALEM — North Carolina College turned three recovered fumbles and a blocked punt into touchdowns as the Eagles defeated the Winston-Salem State College Rams, 32-12, here Saturday afternoon in a CIAA contest played in rain-soaked Bowman Gray Stadium.

The Eagles capitalized on two Winston-Salem fumbles for a pair of quick touchdowns in the first period only to see the Rams come back to tie the score, 12-12, with two six pointers in the initial quarter.

The Durham eleven stormed back to put the game out of reach with one touchdown in the third stanza and two more tallies in the final period.

A fired-up defense for the Eagles limited the Twin City charges to—31 yards total offense and no first downs in the second half after the two teams battled to a 12-12 tie at the break. A total of 18 fumbles, 10 by NCC, plagued the two teams throughout the afternoon but the Eagles were able to turn their three recovered fumbles into scores. NCC lost two fumbles.

NCC's Charles Bellinger fell on a Winston-Salem fumble on the second play of the game on the Ram's 40. It took the Bull City forces seven plays to cash in on the miscue as Herman Mathews passed 20 yards to Julian Martin for the score. A pass for the conversion fell incomplete.

Following the ensuing kickoff, Winston-Salem coughed up the ball on the first play as the alert Russell Price was there to fall on the ball at the home stander's 23. Mathews romped into the end zone from 11 yards out to give the Eagles a 12-0 advantage with 10:18 left in the period.

The not-to-be-denied Rams got on the score board four minutes later when Larry Bratcher broke through to block a punt and Ronald Brandon fell on the ball in the end zone for the TD.

Melvin McNair passed 11 yards to Brent Cromwell for a Ram six-pointer.

The third stanza turned out to be a defensive punting struggle before Joseph Harrell recovered a Winston-Salem fumble at the Ram's five. Thurman Jones plunged over from the one.

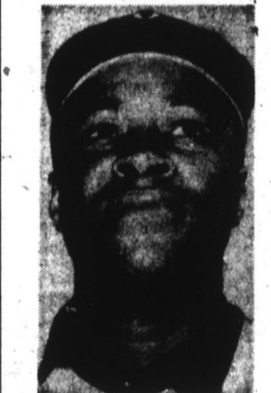

The Eagles put together their longest scoring drive of the day early in the last quarter, going 57 yards in seven plays. Jones climaxed the drive with a five-yard run.

George Smith blocked a punt at the Ram's nine with time running out. Roger Foust bulled over from the one with 52 seconds remaining in the contest.

Jones was the workhorse for the Eagles, picking up 61 yards

TO COACH EASTERN ALL-STARS—George Quiet, acting head football coach at North Carolina College, will be one of the assistant coaches for the East staff in the second annual Sudan Temple All-Star football game. The game, matching college seniors in North Carolina, will be played November 30 in Raleigh. Bill Dooley of the University of North Carolina and Hanley Painter, head coach at Lenoir Rhyne, are the other coaches for the East.

RETIRING — Elston Howard, one of baseball's all-time great catchers, said yesterday he is retiring as a player. Howard, who was plagued this past season by an arthritic condition, played in only 71 games for Boston.

in 19 carries. Ollis Carson was another bright spot for the Eagles, returning six punts for 130 yards.

NCC now stands 2-1 in conference play and over-all while the Rams, who went down to their third straight defeat, are 0-3 in the CIAA and 1-3 overall. The Eagles will celebrate homecoming when they play host to Maryland State College Saturday.

Score by quarters:
N. C. C. 12 0 8 12—32
Win-Sal. 12 0 0 0—12

The Carolina Times

THE TRUTH UNBRIEDED

DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA

OUR WORLD OF SPORTS

A&T Aggies Swamp Norfolk State Team 61-14

GREENSBORO — Rampaging A&T used a brilliant performance by quarterback Stan Jacobs and All-American candidate Willie Pearson to trounce Norfolk State, 61-14 in a Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) football game here Saturday night.

It was the third straight win for the Aggies and by far their finest showing of the young season.

The favored Spartans never had a chance as Jacobs, a deadly passer, kept the air filled with his tosses most of the evening. When the smoke had cleared, Jacobs had completed 13 of 23 passes for 284 yards and four touchdowns, all to Pearson.

More than 10,000 fans watched as the quick Aggies struck for one touchdown in the first period, three in the second period, four in the third quarter and one in the final period.

The other A&T points came on two short plunges by fullback Dick Armstrong, a 50-yard runback after interception by Freshman tackle Ralph Coleman, a 40-yard pass from reserve quarterback Charles Middleton to end Daryle Cherry, and a 12-yard run by Willie Pearson's brother, Lorenzo.

Freshman Eric Cox's seven placements completed the scoring for A&T. Norfolk State's two scores came in the third and fourth quarters respectively.

At 13:45 of the third period, the Spartans' spunky quarterback Ike Fullard tossed a 59-yard strike to flanker Rae Jarvis and Kenny Edmonds converted to cut the A&T lead to 28-7.

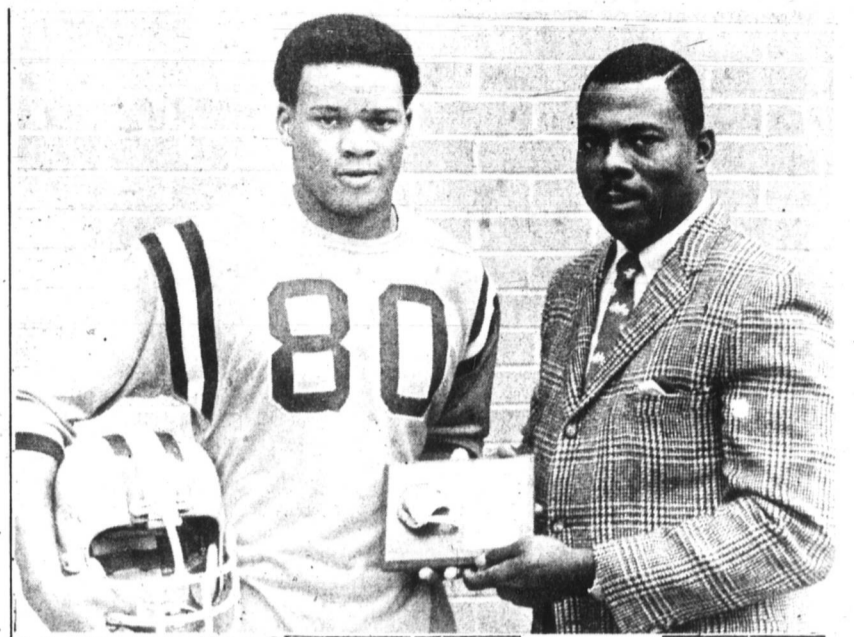

Midway the final period, fullback Pettus Farrar plunged across the goal line from the one yard line, but by then the Spartans were trailing, 55-14. Jacobs, a sophomore transfer student, has already shattered several A&T records. His methodical destruction of Norfolk State was really accomplished in the first half when he piled up 131 yards in passing.

It was the finest performance of Pearson's career. The 195-pound senior from Winston-Salem, caught six passes in the game for 133 yards.

Jacobs spent nearly the entire last quarter on the bench, but Middleton and a third passer, Jerome Turner kept the ball rolling.

In all, the Aggies gained 340 yards passing to 164 for Norfolk State. A&T also led

J. C. SMITH MVP—Johnson C. Smith University sophomore defensive end Larry Jones receives the Coca-Cola Player of the Week Award from Coke representative Ceaser Wallace for his outstanding defensive play against A&T State University. Jones, a Durham native and '67 graduate of Merrick-Moore High School, is considered one of the Bulls' leading pro prospects of the future. The Aggies' stout defense kept the clamps on Norfolk State's fullback Larry James, holding him to 25 yards on the ground.

Exciting Football!
HOMECOMING
★ ★ ★ ★ ★
A. & T. STATE
UNIVERSITY "AGGIES" vs.
MORGAN STATE
"BEARS"
SAT., NOV. 2nd
KICKOFF 1:30 P. M.
GREENSBORO
MEMORIAL STADIUM
Big Spectacular Pre-Game Parade, colorful half-time show featuring the famous A. & T. Marching Band plus prancing, gorgeous majorettes.
General Admission $3.00
Reserved Seats $3.50 & $4.00
Children $1.00
Advance Tickets On Sale In A. & T. Bookstore Located In Memorial Union

PHONE 582-9295
New Method Dry Cleaners
Laundry and
CASH & CARRY OFFICES
Corner Hargett and Holloway Streets
Chapel Hill St. at Duke University Road
Quick As A Whirl—Roxboro Rd. at Arundell Dr.
Uphr. in Cor. Grand and Englewood Aves.

Ancient Age
STRAIGHT KENTUCKY BOURBON

$2.95 PINT
$4.60 4/5 QT.
STRAIGHT KENTUCKY BOURBON WHISKY - 86 PROOF - 8 YEARS OLD ANCIENT AGE DIST. CO., FRANKFORT, KY.

3 NCC Players Nominated For Eastman Squad

Three North Carolina College football players have been nominated as potential members of the Eastman Kodak's College Division All-American football squad.

Quarterback Herman Mathews and split end Julian Martin are listed as possible offensive selections while Douglas Wilkerson heads the list for the defensive unit.

The final selection of the twenty-two man squad will be made for Kodak by a special committee of the American Football Coaches' Association in late November.

Mathews is a 5-9, 175-pound junior from Tampa, Florida and Martin is a 6-1, 195-pound junior from New Bern North Carolina. Wilkerson, also a junior, is a 6-4, 240-pounder from Fayetteville, North Carolina.

Mathews and Martin comprise the Eagles' M and M combination. As sophomores last year, Mathews completed 58 of 117 passes for 1,169 yards and nine touchdowns while Martin caught 30 passes for 737 yards and four TDs.

Wilkerson and Martin were named to the All-CIAA first team last year as sophomores. Both are prime candidates to repeat this honor this season.

VOTE FOR
Fred D. McNeill Jr.
-FOR-
County Board of Education
Durham County, November 5

- Former Classroom Teacher and Football Coach
- Holder B.S., M.S., and Principal's Certificate, North Carolina College Supplemental Training Wisconsin State, and North Carolina State University
- Former Associate Director N. C. Teachers Association and Treasurer of Its Credit Union
- Program Associate Learning Institute of N. C.

YOUR SUPPORT TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5 WILL BE GREATLY APPRECIATED

BOB SCOTT
IS THE MAN TO LEAD
NORTH CAROLINA FORWARD

HE WANTS YOUR VOTE
VOTE BOB SCOTT FOR GOVERNOR
Durham County Committee For Bob Scott