Mrs. Margaret Goodwin Cited by White Rock

The White Rock Baptist Church and its Senior Choir honored Mrs. Margaret K. Goodwin during the Morning Service, Sunday, October 27. Mrs. Goodwin was presented a corsage, which was pinned on her by her mother, Mrs. M. L. Kennedy. A beautifully engraved watch was presented to her by L. B. Frasier, President of the Senior Choir. John H. Gattis read a Citation characterizing her as a Christian singer for more than 30 years in the Durham community; dignifying various programs—civic and religious, delighting the betrothed, cheering the infirm and inspiring worshippers.

Mrs. Goodwin has served as Assistant Chorister of the White Rock Baptist Church's Senior Choir for more than 13 years. This was a deserving salute to one with great tolerance, exceptional talent, a philanthropic spirit and a doer for good.

Miss Betsy Ann Webb and Edward T. McLean Speak Wedding Vows in Recent Local Event

A recent wedding of interest to Durham citizens was that of Miss Betsy Ann Webb, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bunny Webb of Durham who became the bride of Edward T. McLean also of this city. McLean is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grady McLean of Durham. Nuptial vows were spoken before an altar of white Christ-the-isms and Candelabra. Music was furnished by Mrs. Alice Stewart, organist and Preston Weaver, Tenor. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Fred L. Jones of New York City. The bride wore a gown of white empire A-line silk Taffetta. Her head dress consisted of a Carnation veil with sused pearls. She carried a bouquet of flowers topped with orchids.

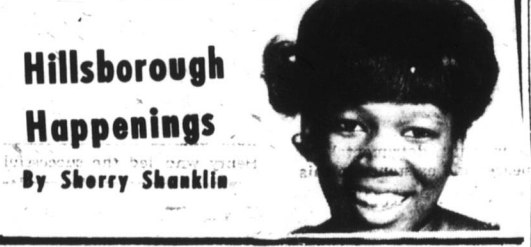

The bride's attendants wore empire gowns of beautiful autumn colors and head dresses to match. They carried bouquets of stium flowers to match. Floral bearer was little Miss Glenda McAllister of Durham, ring bearer was Master Raymond McAllister of Durham. Maid of honor was Miss Gizette Webb, sister of the bride and matron of honor was Mrs. Laura Cockerham. Others attendants were Miss Helen Shaw, Miss Mamie Etcherson and Miss Georgia Jennings.

Serving McLean as best man was Burnice Hayes of Durham. Ushers were Pershiv Ruffin Troy Cockerham and George Holloway.

The officiating minister was the Rev. A. L. Thompson, pastor of the First Calvary Baptist Church.

Reception followed immediately afterwards at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grady McLean, 2908 Fayetteville Street. Some of the out-of-town guest present were: Mrs. Helen K. Drake and Mrs. Thelma D. Lee, sisters of the bride, Fred L. Jones, brother, LeRoy Drake, William D. Lee, brother-in-laws, Donald Brown, cousin and Mrs. Vandora Jenkins also of New York City.

Hillsborough Happenings

By SHERRY SHANKLIN

Orange High School has been "up in the air" this week while picture-taking session went on for the yearbook. All clubs and committee members were being photographed to take their places in the 68-69 Reflections.

An assembly was held on Friday, October 25. The purpose of the assembly was to explain the requirements of each club and committee in order to recruit new members. A two-minute speech was given by each student.

The Orange Panthers took a bad beating from the Northern Knights in a battle that ended up 39-0. The Panthers are now 1-7 for the season. Keep on fighting, Panthers, you can do it too!

The Mount Bright Baptist Church and Choir journeyed to Durham, to render services at Mt. Olive A.M.E. Church. After the service, they continued their journey to Leasburg to render services at St. James A.M.E. Church.

While reading William Shakespeare's Hamlet, there were a few lines that had great meaning to all of us. The lines read: "To thine own self be true."

By the time a man has been in a pantry five minutes he has uttered sixteen complaints about the way the house is managed.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness, messages of sympathy, many cards, telegrams, prayers and beautiful floral designs received during the death of my beloved husband and father Ulysses Parker, who passed on October 21.

CONFIDENTIAL RELATIONSHIP

At the Scarborough and Hargett Funeral Home one of the things we value most, both personally and professionally, is the trust so many families in our community have reposed in us through the years. So many aspects of the relationship between funeral director and client are of a highly confidential nature that unimpeachable personal integrity and professional ethics are necessary to sustain the bond between them. The confidence of those we serve is the only proof available that we at the Scarborough and Hargett Funeral Home have met these demands.

Homecoming Nominees Announced at Hillside

By DARLENE KNIGHT

Monday morning at Hillside High School, the 1968 Homecoming nominees were announced. This year's beauties are Beverly McLaughlin, Constance Prince, Valeria Hayes, Brenda McClain, Deborah Woods, Sadie McNeil, Eve Beamon, Carol Thorpe, Marjorie Harrington, Wanda Haskins, and Gwendolyn Smith. The queen will not be announced until Friday night during half time activities. This year, as every year, she and her court will parade on the field for the public escorted by members of the football team.

Each girl named was surprised to hear her name called, and having the modesty of young ladies they are sure of their defeat. Brenda McClain expressed her feelings in this way. "I am deeply honored and excited about being a Miss Homecoming nominee. It flatters me that the football boys feel that I am capable of this honorable position." Carol Thorpe commented that she was very honored and happy about "being something special to the football boys." Beverly McLaughlin expressed the feeling of every girl. "Although I may not win, I am happy and honored to have gotten this far in being Hillside's Miss Homecoming 1968.

Best wishes and good luck to all the girls. It is hoped that each girl will achieve recognition as Miss Homecoming or become the spirit of Miss Homecoming if not its embodiment.
