

NCC, A&T BOTH VICTORS IN WEEKEND GAMES

Arch Rivals May Battle for CIAA Crown Thanksgiving Day

NORTH CAROLINA COLLEGE A&T STATE UNIVERSITY

North Carolina College scored at least once in every quarter as the Eagles turned back Johnson C. Smith University, 34-6 here Saturday afternoon in a CIAA contest played before a sparse crowd during a continuous drizzle.

Ollis Carson and Julian Martin each scored two touchdowns to lead NCC to its fifth win of the season against one setback. The win kept the Eagles' chances alive for the CIAA title.

Defensively, NCC limited the Golden Bulls to 25 yards on the ground and 56 yards through the airways. J. C. Smith scored its lone touchdown in the fourth quarter when quarterback William Littlejohn sneaked over from the three.

Carson tallied his first six pointer in the first quarter when he scored from 19 yards out climaxing an 83-yard drive. Roy Anderson's 45-yard run on the first play from scrimmage was the big play in the drive.

An attempted pass for the conversion was incomplete and the Eagles led 6-0 after the first quarter of play. A 19-yard run by Anderson and a 17-yard gallop by Thurman Jones set the stage for a 10-yard pass from Herman Mathews to Martin to give NCC a 12-0 halftime margin.

Moses Bryant returned the second half kickoff 51 yards to the Bulls' 33. On the first play, Mathews found Martin in the endzone for the score. Mathews passed to Gilbert Smith for the two point conversion to give the Eagles a TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—A&T's scrappy young football team played the role of giant killer for the second straight Saturday this time by upsetting previously unbeaten Florida A&M, 9-6 by 5,000 rain-drenched fans.

Led by All-CIAA flanker Willie Pearson, quarterback Stan Jacobs and fullback Tommy Blue, the Aggies pushed across a touchdown midway the second period and iced the victory with a 26-yard field goal midway the third quarter by Blue.

Blue's 26-yard field goal, with 7:46 left in the third quarter put the game out of reach for Florida A&M.

The Rattlers scored with 2:28 left in the game when defensive back Tommy Wallace returned an A&T kickoff 76 yards to paydirt.

Again the Aggies victory was due to a brilliant performance by quarterback Stan Jacobs and A&T's stout defensive line.

Jacobs, a sophomore completed only four of 17 passes, but enough for 115 yards. The Rattlers gained only 12 yards in the air. A&T's defensive unit, led by five freshmen, caused the Rattlers to fumble 10 times in the game. Five of the bobbles were recovered by A&T.

Leading the defensive effort for A&T were ends Don Thomas, Billy Gaines, Ben Blacknell and Doug Hentz, and tackles Lester Moore, Ralph Coleman and Dempsey Bryant.

The Aggies outgained the Rattlers 126 yards to six in passing, but trailed 227 yards to 52 in rushing yardage. Florida A&M's big offensive gun was halfback Hubert Ginn, who gained 114 yards.

CARSON MAKES GRAB—Ollis Carson (22) for North Carolina Colleges catches a pass for a good gain against Johnson C. Smith University last week. Pursuing to make the tackle for Smith are David Burch (84) and John Parker (28). The Eagles won the game, 34-6.

Job Corps' First Award of Achievement Goes To Olympic Boxing Champion George Foreman

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Olympic boxing champion and former Job Corps member George Foreman received the first Job Corps Award of Achievement from Job Corps Director William P. Kelly.

The award was for Foreman's outstanding performance in winning the gold medal in heavyweight boxing in the 1968 Olympic games which "brought honor to himself, his family, the United States of America, and Job Corps."

The Job Corps intends to present the award annually on the anniversary of Foreman's victory in Mexico City to the member or former member of Job Corps who has made the greatest accomplishment, in responsible citizenship, in any field of activity, during the previous year. he has been employed at the Parks center as a physical education instructor. Since joining the Olympic boxing squad this past August he has been on leave of absence from Parks.

At Parks where he first put on boxing gloves, Foreman was coached by "Doc" Broadus-Center physical education staff member and former boxer. Foreman compiled a 16-4 amateur record before the Olympic games. In March, 1968, he won the National AAU heavyweight title on Toledo, Ohio. This victory and a rematch with the AAU runner-up, Otis Evans, earned him the Olympic heavyweight berth. In the Olympics he won four fights, three by knockout. He fought at 6'3 1/2" and 218 pounds.

Mrs. Nancy Foreman, mother of the former Job Corpsman was present at the ceremony.

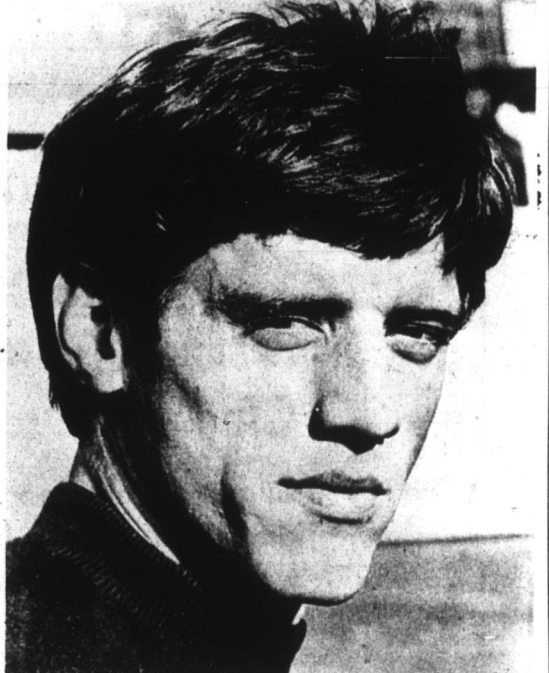

George Foreman was born in Marshall, Texas, January 10, 1949. He is the 5th of 7 children of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Foreman. He attended school in Houston, Texas, dropping out after the 9th grade.

After a period of joblessness his family and friends persuaded him to join Job Corps. He was at a Job Corps Center in Oregon from August 1965 to February 1966, when he was transferred to Parks Job Corps Center at Pleasanton, California. There he was encouraged to join the boxing team, was elected president of his dormitory, and was trained in drafting. He completed his Job Corps training in May, 1967. Since September 1967 shire, will conduct sessions in El Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, and Panama.

Elizabeth City Vikings Drub Fayetteville State

FAYETTEVILLE — Elizabeth City State College's Vikings spoiled Fayetteville State College's homecoming here today by taking a 22-0 Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association victory before a throng of 4,000.

It was the Vikings' sixth win of the season against a lone loss. The Broncos now stand 208 for the year.

Coach Tom Caldwell's charges got their scores in the first, second and final stanza. Eugene Armstead, the CIAA's leading scorer, was held scoreless.

Tackle John Brown got the visitor's first score by tackling FSC quarterback Danny McMillan in the end zone for a safety. Moments later the Vikings march 48-yards via the air lanes and the ground to garner their first touchdown. Halfback Grady Semoms went the last six yards over tackle to score. The attempt for the extra point failed.

With quarterback Johnny Welton at the throttle, the Vikings drove 52-yards for a score in the second quarter. Passes to Torian Williams, Eugene Armstead and the running of Semoms moved the ball to the FSC 15. At this point, fullback John Brown took the oval for the final distance to score. Walton hit Semoms for the two-pointer.

Fayetteville employed a 32-yard march in the closing minutes of the first half and moved the ball to the visitors 38. Four pass attempts failed to find the mark and the Vikings went to rest at halftime with a 16-0 margin.

Fayetteville's defense and offense got together as the outset of the second half. The offense consistently moved the pigskin but couldn't find the necessary energy to put it across the marker.

Elizabeth City got its final score on a 22-yard pass to Torian Williams from All CIAA quarterback Johnny Walton. Totten kicked the extra point.

The Broncos had their opportunities in the final stanza on two recovered fumbles but on each occasion the stout Vikings defense held them at bay.

In garnering the win, the Vikings racked up 375 yards on total offense and fifteen first downs. Quarterback Johnny Walton connected on 12 of 18 pass attempts.

Fayetteville State is idle next week, and the Vikings are at home against Delaware State College for homecoming.

Colonials End Howard Univ.'s Winning Streak

WASHINGTON, D. C. — George Washington University snapped a three-year Howard Jinx by blanking the Bison 3-0 in a match held at Catholic University Wednesday.

In the four years that G. W. has been playing soccer, this was the first time that they had ever beaten Howard, or even scored on the Bison.

For almost two periods it appeared that Howard would keep its streak intact. With just 3:50 left in the half, Mario Cruz, outside left for George Washington, sneaked a little dribbler past Cyrus Buchanan, and the Colonial's long drought was over.

The Bison battled back, but in their haste to score the Booster's shots were either wide to each side, or sailed over the goal.

Midway the third quarter Cruz, taking advantage of a Bison defensive lapse, booted in his second score of the game.

Looking to avoid a shutout, the Bison tried to generate an attack. The forward wall led by All-American Tyrone Walker, Roland Baptiste, and Carlton Fraser, exerted strong pressure on the Colonial defense, but were unable to score.

Near the end of the third period, Walker took a pass from Carlton Martin at midfield and electrified and crowd the fakes and footwork as he slipped past the Colonial defenders and drove for the goal. All alone, and with no one but the goalie to get by, Walker had an excellent chance for a score.

However, one of the Colonials grabbed Walker by the jersey and yanked him back, causing him to lose possession of the ball. Despite cries of outrage from the Howard bench, no penalty was called.

In the fourth quarter, Robert Arnell lined a shot at the Howard goal; Buchanan made a twisting diving effort, and appeared to have made an incredible save, only to see the ball trickle past his fingers and into the goal for the Cardinals final score.

The loss to George Washington marks the first losing season that Howard has had in 17 years. The Bison, now 2-6-2 meet Millersville College Saturday at 2:00 p.m. at 16th and Kennedy Streets.
