

Mutual Pullout Proposed

WASHINGTON — Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford indicated Tuesday the Johnson administration is anxious to reach a mutual troop withdrawal agreement with North Vietnam before the Nixon administration takes power.

The defense chief said he would like to see substantive peace talks start this week, with measures to lower the level of combat in Vietnam high on the agenda.

"I would still like to see, in the next 40 days, the start of the return of American troops from South Vietnam," Clifford said, "and I think that there is an opportunity to agree with Hanoi upon the mutual withdrawal of troops in that period."

The Johnson administration will end on Jan. 20.

Meanwhile, U.S. and North Vietnamese envoys met Tuesday in Paris, but failed to move out of their deadlock over how to start the peace conference on Vietnam.

This was reported by a U.S. delegation source following a private two-hour session between U.S. negotiator Cyrus R. Vance and his North Vietnamese opposite, Col. Ha Van Lau.

North Vietnam proposed Tuesday the four delegations at the Vietnam peace talks sit at separate tables and draw lots to settle the speaking order.
