The First Baptist Church of Yanceyville was the setting, November 28 at 4 o'clock for the wedding of Miss Sarah Ann Johnson and Chester Wiggins.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Johnson of Yanceyville and Mrs. Juanita Wiggins and the late Chester Wiggins of Raleigh.

Rev. J. C. Brown officiated at the double ring ceremony, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

A program of wedding music was rendered by Martin Bank, organist of Philadelphia and soloist, Carolyn Williams of Portsmouth, Virginia.

The bride was attired in an Empire A-line gown of de satin with high-necked lace yoke and long pointed sleeves enhanced with a set-in lace panel from shoulder to wrist. The front skirt and detachable wattleau train was applied with chantilly lace motifs. Her bouffant veil of silk illusion was held by a forward headpiece of lace petals pearl edged with double back bow and pearl star and crystal, trim and she carried a cascade of white roses.

piece and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Bridesmaids, whose gowns were royal blue velvet and white crepe and were styled like that of the honor attendant, were the brides' cousins, Sallie Totten and Carolyn Long of Yanceyville, her former college classmates, Janice Jackson of Detroit, Michigan, Brenda Penny of Portsmouth, Virginia and Sharon Lucas of Robbins, North Carolina.

Mac Arthur Penny of Raleigh served as the groom's best man. Ushers were Charles and Webster Johnson, brothers of the bride, Kenneth Johnson, Cephus Lea, and Thomas Wegins.

A reception was given by the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony at their home.

Mrs. Louise Jones is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wiley in Mt. Holly, N. J. This weekend accompanied by Mrs. Theora Williamson and daughters Carol and Gracetta.

Mr. and Mrs. Granderson Watkins were honored on their 50th wedding anniversary Nov. 10, 1968 by their children at their home at Route 1, Reidsville, approximately 100 guests called between the hours of 2:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m.
