

Hillsborough Happenings

By Sherry Shanklin

"It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas" all over the Hillsborough community. Door decorations adorn various homes and lights string over windows and shrubbery. The only factor missing is snow, and who's looking for it.

The annual Christmas play will be held on December 22 at 7:00 p.m. at Mt. Bright Baptist Church. The setting will be in Bethlehem a long while ago. The Junior Choir will render music for the program. The speech and drama classes at Orange High School sponsored a Christmas play entitled "Christmas Time in TV Land." Skits dealing with TV soap operas were acted out. A laugh-in added much humor to the jovial audience.

George Crabtree, student council social chairman, announced that the annual Christmas party would be held in the lobby for 30 minutes. A combo will provide music while students enjoy themselves.

The Emma Borough Missionary Circle will hold its annual Christmas party on December 26. The party will be held in the parsonage.

A recognition service was held on Sunday for Rev. A. L. McCullers, Sunday, December 15. Rev. B. A. Mack, pastor of Morehead Avenue Baptist Church in Durham, was the guest speaker. Gifts were presented by R. O. Simpson.

The Orange Panthers once again romped to victory over the Northern Knights of Durham. The Panthers fought off the strong shooting of sophomore Gregg Jones to win the game 58-50. Calvin Wade, leading rebounder for Orange, played a strong game for the Panthers. Roosevelt Chavious, top scorer for Eastern 3-A division, popped in 17 points for the night's high. Johnny Crump, a 6-2 junior, brought down the ball in a great night's effort.

Cornelius Cathcart, a Durham Morning Herald all conference winner, has been presented a number of awards for his football performance during the football season. Catchcart and Jimmy Taylor were chosen co-captains for the 1969-70 season. Catchcart also received "The Stangle Award" as best defensive player for the season.

Is Christmas becoming too commercial? This is a question we must ask ourselves. Does the price of items seem more important than the gift? Have we forgotten the true meaning of the season? Let us stop and realize the non-material things that we possess already. Let us think of others this Christmas and be grateful for what we have. Merry Christmas and a most Joyful New Year!

District Three Of Pine Grove Concludes Year

The District Three of Pine Grove Baptist Church ends its activities for the year by sending fruit baskets to sick and shut-ins. The last meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Nina Amey, 2116 Charles Street. The meeting was presided over by the president, Wortham Pratt. The business session was brief after which Christmas gifts were exchanged. The meeting was closed with prayer by Deacon Thomas Moore.

Mrs. Amey, the hostess, decorated dining room where visited everyone to a beautifully table was laden with delicious food. Gifts were left by the members for Mrs. Elvira Taylor and her brother Rufus Glover, who have been ill for several months.

MRS. AUTREY

Durhamite Named Stewardess With Delta Air Lines

Miss Patricia Anne Autry, of Roanoke, Ala. has "won her wings" and is now a stewardess with Delta Air Lines. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Autry, 912 Seymour Dr., Roanoke, she completed the four-week training course at Delta's Stewardess School at the Atlanta Airport and is now proudly wearing the chic uniform and cap of the nation's fifth largest airline. From her base station of Chicago, she will fly to many of the 60 cities served by Delta in 22 states, the District of Columbia, and the Caribbean.

Miss Autry graduated from Harrison High School at West Point, Ga. and from Tuskegee Institute.

Miss Autry is a native of Durham.

Yanceyville Church Group Gives Dinner

The Philathea Class of the Yanceyville First Baptist Church held their annual Christmas dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Johnson, December 13, at 7:30 p.m. The guest list included: the pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Brown, Mrs. Julia Lea, Mrs. Esther Smith, Mrs. Agnes Wayett, Mrs. Minnie Graves, Mrs. Blanche Hunt and Mrs. Theora Williamson.

Turkey with all the trimmings was served to the guests. President of the class is Mrs. Elizabeth Lea.

misconceptions which the booklet helps to clear up is that a person has to be "permanently" disabled to qualify for social security payments. This, of course, is not so. Payments may be made to a person who is "temporarily" disabled if he is not expected to recover from disability for a year or more from the time it forced him to quit work.

Wedding

Jean Hunt of Brooklyn, N. Y., cousin of the bride; Miss Janet L. Peace and Miss Emogene Spencer, both of Henderson; Miss Carolyn Peace of Norfolk, Va.; and Miss Geraldine Jones of Portsmouth, Va., the bride's cousin.

Waddy Perry of Camden, N. J., godchild of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid. She wore a formal gold A-line velvet dress that was a replica of the bridesmaid's attire and carried a similar petite bouquet.

Gaither Echard of Lenor was best man for his brother. Groomsmen were Alfred Echard, of Lenor, the groom's brother, James Scarboro of Henderson; Vesharn Scales of Durham; Dexter Stephens of Burlington; and James Hudson of Durham. Junior groomsmen were Reginald Hunt of Henderson, the bride's cousin.

Mrs. Esther B. Roscoe served as consultant to the bride for the marriage. Following a reception given by the parents in the fellowship hall of the church, the couple left on a wedding trip to un-announced points.
