

Feminine Scene

MR. AND MRS. HUBERT NICHOLS

Miss Linda Carol Graham is Bride of Hubert Nichols in August 3 Wedding Ceremony

Miss Linda Carol Graham, daughter of Mrs. Julia Graham, became the bride of Hubert Nichols at 5:00 p.m. on August 3, at The Jesus House of Prayer. The Rev. Robert Jones performed the ceremony. Organist was Willie G. Allen. The bride wore an empire waist gown on lace bodice with long sleeves and nylon over a Taffeta Skirt and a Semi-Cathedral Train. She carried white roses on a Bible. Miss Myrtle Jean Graham was the matron of honor for her sister. She wore a pink A-line gown with a scooped neck. The headpiece was pink with a bow and she carried pink roses on a white fan. Bridesmaids were Miss Laura Jackson, the bride's cousin, and Miss Demetrius Middleton. They wore blue gowns with matching headpieces and carried blue roses. Roy Stevenson, of New York was the best man. Ushers were Larry Willis, Harvey Prince, and David Blackley. A reception was held at the church and the shower was held at 51-B Ridgeway Ave. The couple plans to live in Brooklyn, New York. The bride will return home to finish her studies at Hillside High School.

Guy-Weston Marriage Vows Solemnized in Washington

The marriage vows of Miss Andrea O'Neal Guy and Martin Vaughn-Bevin Weston were solemnized Saturday, August 16, at 6:00 p.m. in a double-ring ceremony at Trinity Episcopal Church, Washington, D. C. The Reverend Kenneth Aldridge of Camden, New Jersey, officiated.

Miss Guy is the daughter of Mrs. Boone Guy of Takoma Park, Maryland and Mr. Weston is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Ruben F. Weston of Xenia, Ohio, formerly of North Carolina Central University of Durham. Miss Guy was given in marriage by her uncle, Attorney Gaylord Boone and her sister, Vernice Guy was maid of honor.

Richard Wesley served as best man and Frank Guy as usher. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Gertrude Ross and Mrs. Marilyn Andrews of St. Albans, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. James Stroman of Orangeburg, South Carolina; Mrs. John Witherspoon of Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bullock, Mrs. Sharon Turner, John Turner and Willie Weston of Philadelphia, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Willie Grier of Springfield, Mass. and Mr. and Mrs. Porter Pettie of Richmond, Va.

A highlight of the pre-nuptial festivities was the rehearsal dinner given by Dr. and Mrs. Rubin F. Weston at the Polonaise Room in Wheaton, Md.

Miss Guy attends Temple University and Mr. Weston, a former Hillside High School student and graduate of Temple University, is a correspondent of Nesweek Magazine, New York City.

After a brief honeymoon, the couple will be at home in Garden City, New York.

Miss Constane Elaine Jackson Bride of Karl W. Carter, Jr.

Miss Constane Elaine Jackson, a 1968 graduate of Duke University and daughter of Mrs. Maynard Holbrook Jackson of 1427 Cecil St. and the late Rev. Jackson was married Monday in a 6:30 p.m. ceremony to Karl Wayne Carter, Jr., a student at Howard University Law School.

The bridegroom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. K. W. Carter of Los Angeles, Calif.

The ceremony, which took place at the bride's home, was performed by the Rev. Dr. J. Neal Hughley. Mrs. Ignacio Rivas of Santa Monica, Calif., the bride's sister, was soloist.

The bride is a graduate assistant in French at Howard University. For her wedding she wore a gown of Alencon lace draped over a silk crepe skirt, a satin headband with short veil, and carried white roses and purple orchids.

She was given in marriage by her brother, M. H. Jackson, Jr. of Atlanta, Ga.

Attending her sister was Mrs. Claude Tyrone Bradley of Detroit, Mich., who wore a mauve moire taffeta gown and carried yellow roses and a purple orchid.

The bridegroom, who is a graduate of Tennessee A & I State University, was attended by William Cheatham of Washington. A reception was held at Blair House. The couple will live in Washington.

Local Births

The following births were reported to the Durham County Health Department during the week of August 4 through 9:

Melvin and Dannee Speight, girl; Herman and Mary McMillan, girl; Arthur and Lula Taber, girl; Jerome and Louise Powell, girl; James and Carolyn Johnson, girl; Purcell and Vonda Sult, girl; James and Hazel Smith, girl; Jimmy and Patricia Lawton, boy; Ronald and Sandra Brunson, girl; Robert and Mary Ann McNeill, boy; Bobby and Beatrice Hamm, boy; James and Norma Garrett, girl; Azro and Shirley Lennon, boy.

Biafra Aid

STOCKHOLM Foreign Ministry officials from Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Finland and Iceland met here Friday to discuss what the Nordic countries can do to get Red Cross relief flights to Biafra going again. The flights were suspended two months ago after a Swedish Red Cross aircraft was shot down.

Durham Social Notes of Interest

By MRS. SYMNER DAYE

BROOKLYN VISITORS

Mrs. Desimo P. Sanders and her daughters, Karen and Donna, and her son, Latty, Jr. of Brooklyn, New York are home visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isiah Parker of Bahama.

VISITING IN NORWALK

Mrs. Mae Pettiford of South Lowell Road, Bahama is visiting her sister, Mrs. Minnie Reynolds and son, Ford Walker of Norwalk, Conn. Mrs. Pettiford is accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Conelia Riley of Durham.

HOME FROM OHIO

Mrs. Christine Gunter of 1031 Cornell Street has returned home from visiting her son and family, Mr. and Carl Gunter in Ohio. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gunter on their new arrival. It's a boy!

VACATION AT BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brown of Cedarwood Drive and children, Donna and Oliver, Jr. spent a week's vacation at Wrightsville Beach.

VISIT AUNT IN CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Irving and family, former residents of Durham, who are now residing in Indiana, were here visiting her aunt, Mrs. Mary Holman, 4415 Ward Road.

HOUSEGUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Goldsmith Parker, 1009 Rosedale Avenue had as their houseguests her sister, Mrs. Bertie People and her brother, Mack Burton of Erie, Pennsylvania.

SPEND WEEKEND AT ATLANTIC BEACH

Rev. and Mrs. McCoy Bullock, Mr. and Burnice Turrentine and Mr. and Mrs. Dawdie Beard of this city spent the weekend at Atlantic Beach.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations and best wishes to the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Rainey.

SPEND WEEK-END AT BEACH IN SO. CAROLINA

The following people spent the weekend at Atlantic Beach, South Carolina: McKeiver Page, Mrs. Rosa Richardson, Mrs. Emma Devine, William Butler, Jr., Wilbert Richardson, Cherry Richardson, Ellen Page, Curtis Richardson, Clark Richardson, Felicia Devine, Sandra Bailey, Fernandez Devine, Thomas Devine and Reginald Devine.

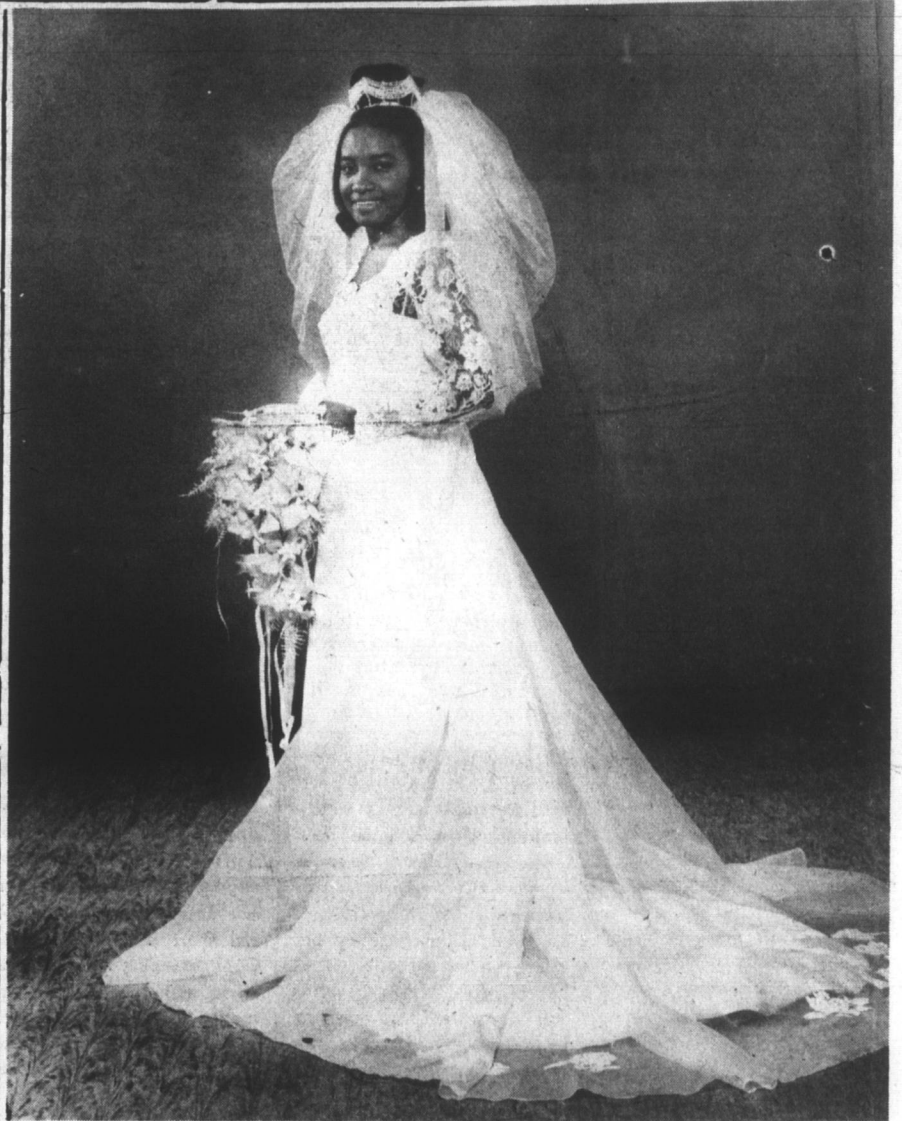

SICK AND SHUT-INS

Sick and shut-ins are John Cooley Parker, Lincoln Hospital; Mrs. Thelma Sutt, Lincoln Hospital; Waymon Harris, Jr., Duke Hospital; Edd Lyon, Lincoln Hospital; J. T. Taborn, Watts Hospital; Mack Daye, Duke Hospital; Milton Huggins, Watts Hospital; Mrs. Viola Smith, Rougemont and Kermit Turrentine, South Lowell Rd., Bahama who is much improved.

Memorial Services Held For Mrs. Nannie P. Taylor

St. Matthews Baptist Church of Virginia Va. held a Memorial service for the late Mrs. Nannie P. Taylor of Creedmoor and Durham. At this service 42 Baptist Hymns were donated to the church by the children in honor of their mother. Attending the service were Mr. and Mrs. Cruseo Gear, Mr. and Mrs. Wortham Pratt, Mrs. Maranda Holliday of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Peace, Yonkers, N. Y.; Mrs. Bertha Moore, Mrs. Zula M. Floyd, Miss Victoria Taylor and Victor Taylor, of Dansville Va. and Creedmoor.

A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.—Mark 6:4

MRS. SADIE MARIE KING

Miss Sadie Marie Clark and Leonard King Repeat Vows in Double Ring Ceremony

Miss Sadie Marie Clark, daughter of Mrs. Sarah E. Clark and the Reverend Shady Clark of Greenville, and Leonard King, son of the Reverend and Mrs. Henry King of Durham, were united in Holy Matrimony, Saturday August 2. The double ring ceremony was held at the Salem Baptist Church of Brooklyn, N. Y. Bishop James Forbed officiated.

The Alter was arranged in a V-shape decorated with green palms and centered with two baskets of white gladioli which were intermingled with yellow and lavender Chrysanthemums. Aisle pews were decorated with white satin ribbon and white lilies of the valley.

Professor Delmar Burt, Jr., Organist, set the mood with a prelude of Nuptial music. After which the ceremony began with the singing of "Bless This House" by the Eastern District United Holiness Choir.

Another Organ selection was played followed by "Because" sung by John Barrett Clark of Greenville, brother of the bride; which was followed by the singing of the Lord's Prayer by Mrs. Nadine C. Houston of Charlotte. Vows were taken and were immediately followed by prayer of blessings by Rev. Thomas J. Boyd, pastor of the church.

Given in marriage by her adopted godfather, Reverend John Elliot, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza designed with a bodice of white lace accented with white baby pearls and crystals. Her neckline was of low scallop design and her sleeves were wrist length cuffed with eight lace buttons. Her undetachable train was of Cathedral length inlaid with roses of white-lace apricaques. She wore a shoulder length veil head piece attached to a crown of white baby pearls and crystals, and carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums centered with a double lavender orchid.

Maid of honor, Anna R. Forbes of Hollis, carried a cascade bouquet of lavender poms centered with yellow chrysanthemums centered with a double lavender orchid.

Everlena Clark of Greenville, sister of the bride, Sara Mouning of Bridepost Conn., Mary T. Walker of Bronx, N. Y. and Joan Poe and Elinda Jones of Brookings were bridesmaids.

Both maid of honor and bridesmaid wore lavender gowns designed in a ballerina bow trim. The bridesmaids carried a bouquet of yellow poms. Susan Crafton, flower girl wore a yellow gown designed with pleated baby-doll sleeves and a bow as headpiece.

Bestman was Henry King, Jr., brother of the groom. Shady Clark, Jr., brother of the bride was head usher. Other ushers were: Fred King of Mt. Holly, N. J., Calvin Latimer of Durham, both of brothers of the groom. Isham Lee of Bedford Hills, N. Y., Calvin Latimer of Brooklyn, N. Y., and James Rochell and Samuel Roseborough of Bronx, N. Y., Phillip Elliot served as ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a pink lace dress with matching hat. Her shoes were of bone color and she also wore a white orchid. The mother of the groom wore identical attire in blue with a double white orchid.

A reception held in the church dining room immediately followed the ceremony. Mrs. Louise Brooks and Mrs. Bernell of Becknell Bronx, N. Y., served as chairmen and co-chairman respectively. Hostesses were Barbara Brackett Zelone Bosborough, Kathleen Seale, Ernestine Reaves and Mary Graham. Hosts were David Reaves and Roudolph Jackson.

The bride is a graduate of the C. M. Eppes High School in Greenville, and attended the Johnson C. Smith University of Charlotte. She was a 1962 abroad student to the Beirut. (Continued on page 5A)

Hillsborough Ceremony Unites Couple Saturday at Mt. Bright

HILLSBOROUGH — Miss Millicent Ann Crisp and Charles William Rainey III were married here Saturday at 4 p.m. in Mt. Bright Baptist Church.

The Rev. William Richardson officiated. Mrs. Jeannie Price was organist. Mrs. Loretta LeGrand of Greensboro and Christine Faucette were soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Elouise Crisp of Efland and the late Octavious H. Crisp. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rainey, Jr.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law Fred Allen Bradshaw. She wore a gown of organza and satin accented by a scalloped neckline, puff sleeves A-line skirt and chapel train trimmed with lace sequins and seed pearls. The veil was illusion attached to a crown of lace and seed pearls. She carried white roses, stephanotis and orchids.

Mrs. Fred Bradshaw of Burlington, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a green empire A-line gown. The bodice featured a round neck-line and short sleeves edge in white lace.

Attendants were Miss Sylvia Crisp, sister of the bride, Mrs. Robert Wilson, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Julius McAdoo of Burlington, Mrs., Therion Robinson of Rockingham, Miss Pauline McDuffie of Laurinburg, Miss Edna McCormick of Durham and Miss Margaret Goode of Gastonia. They wore pink A-line dresses and carried bouquets of white carnations, pink roses and orchid pompons.

Miss Caprieta Robinson of Rockingham and Miss Marnee Cooper of Southern Pines were flower girls. Ringbearer was Myron Wilson, nephew of the bridegroom.

Douglas McBroom was best man. Ushers were Robert D. Wilson, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Dwight Johnson and Garylin Howell of Philadelphia, Pa., cousin of the bridegroom, Ricky Warson of Efland, cousin of the bride, Thomas Grady of Newport News, Va., Roosevelt Warner Jr., Donald Jones and Richard Whitted.

A reception was held at the home of the bride.

The bride is a graduate of Winston-Salem State College and will teach at Efland Elementary School this fall. The bridegroom attended A&T College and is employed by the Alcoholic Beverage Control of Orange County. The couple will live in Hillsborough.

MRS. MARSHA LYNN HOUSTON STANBACK

Nuptial Ceremony is Performed for Miss Marsha Lynn Houston and Howard Jan Stanback, Sat.

GREENSBORO — Miss Marsha Lynn Houston of Greensboro and Howard Jan Stanback were married at 2:30 p.m., Saturday, August 9 in St. James Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Julius T. Douglas, pastor, conducted the service. Afterward the bride's mother Mrs. Lillian Tyson Houston of Greensboro received the guest in the Fellowship Hall. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stanback.

After a trip to New York City, the couple will live in the Plaza Apartments in Winston Salem. They will reside in Cleveland, Ohio when the groom begins graduate study at Case Western Reserve University in September.

The bride is a magna cum laude graduate of Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia where she was a Career Scholar in English, a member of the Barkley Forum forensic society, the Emory Players, and the Black Student Alliance. She was elected to the Delta Sigma Rho-Tau Kappa Alpha and Alpha Psi Omega honorary societies, served as president of the Women's Honor Organization, and was listed in 1968-69 collegiate Who's Who. In June

(Continued on page 5A)