Mrs. Margaret Pringle, the former Miss Margaret Ray of Flint, Michigan spent three weeks vacation with Mrs. McKeithan, 1007 Moreland Ave.

PRAYER SERVICE

The One Hour of Prayer Service held at Greater St. Paul Church Sunday morning April 5, was inspiring. The pastor, Rev. Bigelow delivered the message taken from II Corinthians 8:9. Text "The Heirs of a Poor Man." Rev. Bigelow stated that we are poor when we run out of the spiritual things and that love and justice go hand in hand and if we would have to write a check in love, it would come back insufficient funds.

REGULAR SERVICE

Regular church service was held at Red Mountain Baptist Church of Rougemont April 5 at 11 o'clock a.m. with the pastor Rev. Floyd T. Eaton delivering the Easter message and Miss F. Eaton was the pianist with the Junior Choir rendering music. The pastor's text was taken from Matthews 28-6, "He is Not Here;" For He is Risen as He said." Come see the place where the Lord Lay. Text "The Great Invitation." Tokens were presented to the widowers supported by Odie Pettiford, and Mrs. Zora L. Jones, lighted candles was displayed on the pulpit, a symbol that "Jesus is the light of the world." Easter lilies were also in the pulpit. One vase of the lilies were given in the memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. Mach Johnson by their daughter Mrs. Emma Bullock and the other vase of lilies were given by the Usher Board in memory of all deceased members of the church.

TODAY'S SCENE AT HILLSIDE

By PHILLIP JONES

After getting back to school from the Easter holidays, there was not much happening at Hillside.

There were tryouts for the "Yearbook Variety Show" which was held Friday. It was a great success.

The radio show, "Hillside In The News," on WSRC has been cancelled because of a lack of faculty support. No teacher volunteered for the job of supervision and those that were asked refused. Is this the Hornet spirit. It was a very good show and informative broadcast while it lasted, thanks to James Bass.

I would like to say "Get well!" to Mrs. C. P. Smith who is hospitalized at Duke. Hillside loves you and misses you. The "Bar Association" has inducted some new members into their group. They are: Deborah F., Audrey K., Sara S., Vanda D., and Sharon C., Robert Jones was allowed into the group on good behavior.

The "Best Sellers" at the Hornet's nest are "The Life and Words of Martin Luther King, Jr." by Ira Peck; "The Spook Who Sat By The Door" by Sam Greenlee; "This Child's Gonna Live," by Sarah Wright; and "Die Nigger, Die" by H. Rap Brown.

The top discs at Hillside are "You Need Love Like I Do, Don't You," by Gladys Knight, and The Pips; "If I Could Turn Back The Hands Of Time," by Tyrone Davis; "War," by The Temptations; "The Bells," by The Originals; and "ABC," by The Jackson Five which has been No. 1 for a long time. For those who are interested: The Pimps and The Entertainers Band have changed their name to The Modulations and The Modulations Band. Remember that!

PHILLIP JONES

The student teachers are back at Hillside for 6 weeks, especially a cute one in the French class. Parlez-vous?

My love to "Honeybunch" and too bad to "Deadeye." Heh! You ain't gonna worry me! Stay cool, James and Joyce, 'til next week for Karen. Bye now!

Ebermezer Floral Club Meets Sunday

The Floral Club of Ebenezer Baptist Church met in the Conference Room of the Church Sunday, April 5 at 4:30 p.m. After the devotions, led by Mrs. Dorothy Williams, led by Nonnie Hamilton presided over the meeting.

Plans for a program by the Knightingales to be held May 5, were made. Mrs. Elizabeth Suggs was welcomed as a new member by the president and the entire club.

Others present were: Mesdames Celeste Dalrymple, Lillie McIntyre, Dorothy Vanhook, Jessie O'Neal, Addie Barbee, Helen Jones, Rose McClain, Alice Davis, Martha Stanley, Louise Dalrymple, Lovella Kelly, Marina Fisher, Effie Chavis, Flora Puryear, Rev. P. R. Jones, Lee Brown and Julius Davis, Sr.

Mrs. Hattie Lane served as hostess, assisted by Mrs. Alice Davis. Mrs. Suggs thanked the hostess.

HOMECOMING DAY AT EBENEZER BAPTIST
