

The reason many persons do not succeed is because they do not figure how much they can do, but how little.
—Edward W. Bok

Remember!
A VOTELESS PEOPLE IS A
HOPELESS PEOPLE
Register and Vote

The Carolina Times

THE TRUTH UNBRIDLED

VOLUME 49 — No. 21

DURHAM, N. C., SATURDAY, MAY 23, 1970

PRICE: 20 Cents

CME Church To Study Union Plan For 9 Denominations

JAMES FARMER TO DELIVER NCCU FINALS ADDRESS

RETIRING PERSONNEL of the Durham City Schools who were honored at the thirteenth annual banquet of the Durham Association of Classroom Teachers Thursday, May 14, at North Carolina Central University. Front row, reading left to right: Mesdames Eddie H. Fogle, Virgie J. Davis, Manie T. Geer, Ethel B. Jones, Ethel M. Morrison and Marian W. Williams. Back row: Rev. Johnny Barnes who is leaving the

Norman Amaker Quits Black Panthers Staff Director Post

Feels Affiliation May Jeopardize Commission Work

NEW YORK — Norman C. Amaker, Staff Director of the Commission of Inquiry into the Black Panthers and Law Enforcement, has today submitted his resignation. The full text of his letter of resignation is as follows: "Events at the Legal Defense Fund during the last several months have required me to reevaluate my position as Staff Director of the Commission of Inquiry into the Black Panthers and Law Enforcement.

The Legal Defense Fund's handling of the contempt charges against Bobby Seale and the amicus briefs filed by the Fund in behalf of the Panthers 21 has the potential of raising questions concerning the credibility of the Commission's findings so long as I remain as Director. I have been a staff attorney for LDF for nearly ten years and I would not want this fact to jeopardize the work of the Commission. I, therefore, feel obliged to tender my resignation as Staff

(See QUIT page 8A)

National Council Of Negro Women Launches Plan Against Drug Abuse

Nixon Sets May 24-30 As Week For Needed Program

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The National Council of Negro Women has urged the nearly 4 million members and girls it reaches to map plans and mount programs on May 24, to prevent drug abuse.

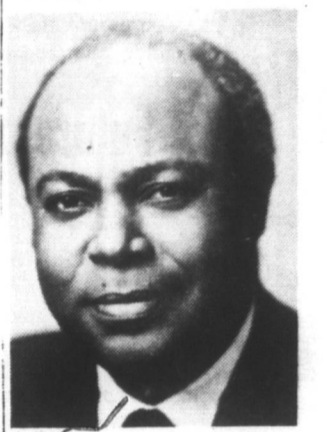

Miss Dorothy I. Height, NCNW's National President, urged 50 local Sections of NCNW to mobilize their local luncheons to "take a hard look at the drug abuse situation and develop plans to combat it."

Other NCNW units which could not be reached in time to develop activities for May 24 were asked to mount programs as early as possible thereafter.

May 24-30 is Drug Abuse Prevention Week, recently designated by President Nixon. Miss Height in a letter to NCNW units across the country, said: "It is my hope that the activity you undertake on

(See WOMEN page 8A)

Former CORE Head Speaker Class of 1970

FARMER

James Farmer, assistant secretary for administration of the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, will be North Carolina Central University's commencement speaker at 10 a.m. Sunday, May 31.

Farmer, one of the founders of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), was in the first group of Freedom Riders arrested in Jackson, Mississippi, in 1961. Later arrests came in Plaquemine, La., where he was one of 233 persons charged with "disturbing the peace and obstructing the sidewalks" after a demonstration countered with tear gas and electric

(See FARMER page 8A)

Dr. Roy D. Hudson Named New President Of Hampton Institute

WAS FORMER GRADUATE DEAN OF BROWN UNIV. PROVIDENCE, R. I.

HAMPTON INST., Hampton, Va. — Dr. Arthur Howe, Jr., Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Hampton Institute, announced today that Dr. Roy D. Hudson, former Associate Dean of the Graduate School who recently became the U. S. Ambassador to Sweden.

In the interim between Dr. Holland's departure for Sweden on April 8, 1970, and Dr. Roy D. Hudson's pending arrival on campus, August 1, 1970, Dr. G. Robert Cotton, H. I. Alumnus and Member of the Board of Trustees, has been, and will continue as, Acting President of Hampton Institute.

Dr. Hudson, a neuropharmacologist, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hudson of Chattanooga, Tennessee. He has served as Assistant Professor of Pharmacology on the faculty of the University of Michigan Medical School (1961-1966), Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Associate Professor of Pharmacology at the Brown University School of Medicine (1966 to the present).

After finishing his tour of duty in the U. S. Air Force from 1948 to 1952, Dr. Hudson returned to his undergraduate studies at Livingstone College in Salisbury. He was graduated in 1955 with a bachelor of science degree, summa cum laude and was the

(See HUDSON page 8A)

DR. HUDSON of Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island, has been appointed President of Hampton Institute. In accepting the appointment Dr. Hudson becomes the tenth president of the 102-year-old Virginia institution of higher learning, succeeding Dr. Jerome H. Holland,

Teachers Ass'n Honors Retiring School Persons

The Durham Association of Classroom Teachers held a banquet honoring retiring personnel of the Durham City School Thursday, May 14, 1970, at the North Carolina Central University Cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. This was the thirteenth annual banquet that the association was sponsored. The honorees were Mrs. Marion W. Alston, Mrs. Mary S. Curtis, Mrs. Virgie J. Davis, Mrs. Eddy H. Fogle, Mrs. Manie T. Geer, Mrs. Ethel B. Jones, Mrs. Ethel M. Morrison, Edward L. Phillips, Miss Ethel G. Reade, James M. Schooler and Mrs. Marion W. Williams.

The banquet was attended by over 200 persons who feasted on steak and all the trimmings. Frank G. Burnett was simply great as toastmaster. John H. Gattis was at the organ playing tunes from all ages. He received a standing ovation

(See TEACHERS 8A)

Dedication of Grey Culbreth School Held in Chapel Hill

CHAPEL HILL — Dedication ceremony of the Grey Culbreth School erected at a cost of over $1 million was held here Tuesday, May 19 in its auditorium at 1:30 p.m.

Presiding over the program was Mrs. Rose Scroggs, vice chairman of the Chapel Hill School Board. Music was furnished by the school band, under the direction of Philip Gordon.

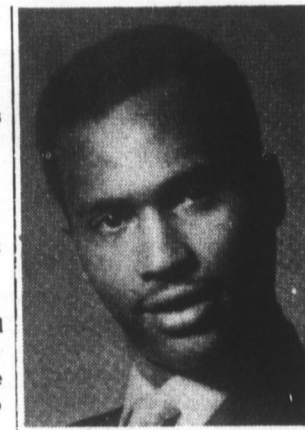

Following the invocation by the Rev. H. L. Watson, pastor of the University Methodist Church, words of welcome were made by Dr. Roy Lindhal, chairman of the School Board. Recognition of platform guests was by Mrs. Scroggs.

After the rendition of a second number by the school band, W. W. Edmonds, principal, gave expression of appreciation to the school board officials, faculty members, and others who had worked to make the new school building possible.

The dedicatory address was delivered by Dr. A. Craig Phillips, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, following introductory remarks by Dr. Wilmer S. Cody, superintendent, Chapel Hill city schools. Also remarks were given by the honoree, Grey Culbreth.

Special presentation of a large size photograph of the honoree was made by Nathan Tyndall. Acceptance on behalf of the students was by Miss Cassandra Perry, student representative.

Benediction was by Rev. J. F. Epps, pastor, St. Paul A.M.E. Church.

FUNERALIZED — Last rites were held Friday, May 15 at St. Mark A. M. E. Zion Church for Larry Lenford Frazier who was accidentally shot on Sunday, May 10.

The deceased was the son of Miss Ernestine Frazier, was born Nov. 24, 1945 in Durham County.

At a very early age he attended Sunday School at Saint Mark A. M. E. Zion Church.

He leaves to mourn his mother: Ernestine Frazier; his father, Julius Davis; his grandmother, Dorsey Frazier; seven sisters, a stepfather; six brothers; two aunts; two uncles, and a host of relatives and friends.

Funeral Services Held Wednesday Miss Hattie Jenkins

Funeral service for Miss Hattie Jenkins, retired teacher of the Durham City Schools, were held at St. Joseph's A.M.E. Church here, Wednesday, May 20 at 4:00 p.m. The Rev. Phillip R. Cousin, Pastor, officiated.

Miss Jenkins succumbed early Sunday morning at Hillhaven Convalescent Center, following a lengthy illness.

She was born and reared in Durham where she attended a private school, after which she

(See JENKINS page 8A)

Wilkins and Nixon Confer At White House

NEW YORK — In a busy three-day period, May 13-15, Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, conferred with President Nixon in the White House, was honored by the Gary, Ind., NAACP Branch at its seventh annual life membership dinner, received the American Liberties Medallion from the American Jewish Committee, and attended the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reuther.

At the request of the President, Wilkins visited him on the morning of May 13 for a discussion of current issues.

(See CONFER page 8A)

IN NAVAL HOSPITAL — Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall, 61, was admitted to Bethesda Naval Hospital Friday for treatment of an "acute upper respiratory" infection.

A court spokesman said that barring complications, Navy doctors expect Marshall to be out of the hospital in about a week. The court met Monday after a two-week recess.

GREY CULBRETH
Honoree

Supt. Chapel Hill Schools, Dr. William S. Cody

Principal Speaker, Dr. A. Craig Phillips

Presiding, Mrs. Ross Scrogg, V. P. School Board

W. W. EDMONDS
Principal