Congress. W. L. Clay to Deliver Lincoln Address

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. — William L. Clay, (Democrat), Missouri congressman from the First District, St. Louis, currently serving his first term in the House of Representatives, will deliver the commencement address at Lincoln University exercises Sunday, May 31. This year marks the 104th anniversary of the founding of the school.

A native of St. Louis, Representative Clay was engaged as a real estate broker and manager for a life insurance company before entering the political arena. He was educated at Saint Louis University, receiving a Bachelor of Science degree in history and political science in 1953.

In 1959-64 he served as alderman for the Twenty-sixth Ward in St. Louis, during which time he authored and published a report entitled "Anatomy of an Economic Murder" in 1963.

Elected to the House November 5, 1968, Representative Clay is already recognized as a leader in paving the way for advanced career opportunities for Negroes in retail sales, public utilities, mechanics, aircraft industry, bakeries, breweries and banks. He is credited with helping to open the field for Negro apprentices, trainees, journeymen and college students in summer programs. He wrote and sponsored the Fair Employment Law and since that time has sponsored a bill to prevent police from releasing arrest records for persons not convicted as charged.

LLOYD HAYNES, STAR OF "ROOM 222" GUESTS WITH ART LINKLETTER

"He's got a smile that lights up like a Christmas Tree . . ." That's how Art Linkletter describes his guest, Lloyd Haynes, star of the "Room 222" series. Lloyd, who guests with Art and Jack Linkletter on their NBC-TV show, "Life With Linkletter" on Monday, May 25, told Art that he patiently waited ten years to be 'discovered.' Then he became an overnight success.

Lloyd, who grew up in South Bend, Indiana, moved to California where he went to LA City College to study to be a design engineer. But he always had the urge to try acting. He found a job as an office boy in a production company, slowly, patiently worked his way up, taking acting lessons on the side.

Today he is an overnight success. His advice to young people? "Find some one thing you like to do to earn a living . . . do it well . . . and you will be sought after. And use school as the stepping stone to learn with the teachers what the outside world is all about."

The one-story addition to the student union building will include an outside terrace enclosed by a garden wall, a barber shop, a six-lane bowling alley, six conference rooms, an enlarged game room, a bedroom suite, a lounge, offices for the student government association, the college newspaper, the college yearbook, a snack bar, vending machines and storage and locker spaces.

The Turner Hall academic complex additions will include classrooms and offices as well as a little theatre and music building featuring an auditorium, dressing rooms, practice rooms, a uniform room, a library and manuscript room, and a workshop and storage room.

The Swing Era

IN HIS BRIEF EIGHT-YEAR CAREER, MILLER ACCOMPLISHED A GREAT DEAL, NOT ONLY AS A BAND LEADER—BUT AS A WRITER, ARRANGER AND TALENTED MUSICIAN WHO COULD FORGET THE GLENN MILLER BAND PLAYING SUNRISE SERENADE, TUXEDO JUNCTION OR THE POPULAR LITTLE BROWN JUG?

OF ALL THE BIG BANDS THAT WERE POPULAR DURING THE SWING ERA (30'S AND 40'S), THE LATE GLENN MILLER IS PERHAPS THE MOST OUTSTANDING IN A FEW SHORT YEARS, HE DEVELOPED A STYLE THAT WAS TO BE RECOGNIZED THROUGHOUT THE NATION. IT WAS APPROPRIATELY KNOWN AS "THE MILLER SOUND."

UP TO NOW, GLENN MILLER'S MUSIC HAS BEEN LOST ON 78'S AND POOR LONG-PLAYING REPRODUCTIONS. BUT TIME-LIFE RECORDS HAS COME UP WITH A NEW SERIES OF ALBUMS FROM THE SWING ERA—INCLUDING GLENN MILLER'S MOST POPULAR HITS—RE-CREATED IN STEREO BY PRESENT DAY MUSICIANS WHO HAVE CAPTURED ALL THE MAGIC OF THOSE YEARS.

FEAR OF DEATH IS IT NECESSARY? Most people live in almost constant fear of death. They do not like to think that man's days are as grass and all his glory as the glory of a fading flower (Psa. 103:15,16). They do not wish to face up to the fact that "it is appointed unto men once to die" (Heb. 9:27).

This is natural, for God's Word declares that death is "the wages of sin" (Rom. 6:23) and "the danger of the 'second death'" (Rev. 20:14). This is why I Cor. 15:56 says that "The sting of death is sin." Yet the Psalmist David was not afraid of death. He said: "Ye, O Lord, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil" (Psa. 118:5).
