Arson investigator Clyde Gregory, said fire also destroyed three businesses and damaged dwelling houses located on each side of the apartment house on Cleveland Street.

Damage was not estimated, but was expected to amount to several thousand dollars.

Gregory said two unidentified men who were sleeping in Garland's Taxidermist shop, one of the adjoining businesses, were "saved from death by the heroic efforts of Police Officers R. B. Holloman and Harold Blalock."

Carolina has helped many individuals. Authors have listed him as one of the wheel-horses that developed educational opportunities for disadvantaged persons.

In addition to his educational contributions in North Carolina, Mr. Chance was one of the early and stalwart fighters for equal rights and opportunity for black Americans in all phases of national life, including voting rights and the elimination of discrimination in interstate travel. For example, in 1948 at the age of 68, he was jailed for his protest of racial discrimination in railway transportation. In

Dr. Coleman, the baccalaureate speaker, is a native of Coden, Ala., and was educated in the Mobile County Public Schools. He is a 1939 graduate of Livingstone College, having also attended Hood Theological Seminary. He is presently working toward the Master of Divinity Degree at the Howard University School of Religion, Washington, D. C.

1952 the U. S. Supreme Court sustained his position and outlawed segregation in interstate travel.

"This scholarship fund will be a fitting living memorial to a man whose entire life was spent in service to his fellow-man," Dr. Lyons stated.

TODAY'S SCENE AT HILLSIDE

By KAREN OLDHAM

As the school year draws swiftly to an end likewise does my teen column.

Hornet's thoughts are centered around exams and senior activities. Seniors will have their first exam on Tuesday, June 2. The calendar of senior events is as follows; May 27 at 11:00 a.m. the Twenty-First Annual Awards Day will be held in the school auditorium. The speaker will be Miss June V. Gilliard, Consultant Division of Social Studies State Department of Public Instruction, Raleigh; June 7, at 5:00 p.m. Senior Inspirational Service will be held in the Hillside Auditorium. The message will be given by Rev. Phillip R. Cousin, pastor of St. Joseph A.M. E. Church; finally June 9 at 8:00 o'clock Commencement Exercises will be held at the Durham County Memorial Stadium. The speaker will be Rev. James A. Forbes, Jr., pastor of the St. John's United Holy Church of America in Richmond, Virginia.

And as June 10, most of the Senior Hornets will have gone their separate ways.
