JUNE MEETING OF SENIOR CITIZENS AT TITUS HELD; SEVERAL FETED

The June 17 meeting of Senior Citizens at St. Titus' was a birthday party for members born in May and June: Joseph Arnold, Mesdames Hallie Barnes, Lillian Buchanan, Geneva Burke, Lola Clark, Effie Cotton, Mamie Dodson, Sadie Postels, Gladys Washington, Julia Wheeler, and Addie Williams. Mr. Arnold and Mrs. Baines (out of town) and Mesdames Buchanan, Burke, and Wheeler (indisposed) were never less remembered.

A "Happy Birthday" table cloth, colorful napkins, and flowers from three Senior Citizens' gardens made a cheerful setting for the beautifully decorated birthday cake, the variety of sandwiches, and the other party goodies brought by the honorees.

The Vicar of St. Titus had a chance to look in for a few minutes. He greeted, welcomed, and congratulated the group, and asked a blessing on the birthday table. Then the party was on. The "Happy Birthday to You", sung to each honoree present, might well have been followed by "Happy Day to You" to all present, for so it was.

The coordinator announced the summer schedule of activities at the Senior Citizens Memorial Center (the High Rise). A number of members of this group-participate there. Then feasting, distribution of gifts and greetings, presided over as usual by Mrs. Rivera; and finally arms crossed, hands joined, and mizpanded the happy occasion.

Present were: Miss Lola Allen, Mesdames Laura Burnette, Lola Clark, Effie Cotton, Mamie Dawson, Bessie Boby, Lena Gates, Flonnie Goodloe, Julia Harris, Wilma Milum, Mary Newby, Hattie Nunn, Della Patterson, Sadie Postels, Charity Rivera, Gladys Washington, Addie Williams; and Mrs. Betty Johnson, visiting.
