GREENSBORO - The A&T football team will be playing up North next fall, but it will be in New York City instead

The announcement of the Switch from Philadelphia's Franklin Field to New York's huge Yankee Stadium was Monday by Albert made Smith, A&T's athletic director.

At an afternoon press conference at the Greensboro and Southern University of Baton Rouge, La. will play in Yankee Stadium on Friday, Sept. 11 at 8 p.m.

The game will be sponsored by the Football Coaches Foundation, of which A&T is a member. The two teams had previously been scheduled to play in Philadelphia on Sept.

"We are very much pleased with this new arrangement," said Smith.

'We are members of this foundation and had been asked in the past to participate in a game. We were able to end our commitment on the other game satisfactorily."

The Football Coaches Foundation is the group which has filled Yankee Stadium the past two years with their promotion of the Morgan State versus Grambling game. A&T has beaten Morgan the past two seasons.

Both A&T and Southern are well-known producers of pro football talent.

Ga. High School Cage Mentor

GREENSBORO - Warren Reynolds, who last week gave A&T three top school basketball players, has joined the Aggies himself as assistant basketball coach.

The announcement was made Tuesday by Albert Smith, athletic director at Reynolds is currently head coach at Ballard-Hudson High School in Macon, Ga. He was instrumental in the singing of All-American James Outlaw, 6-9 Artice Jackson and 6-8 Clarence Hampton to grant-inaids for A&T.

Reynolds will assist varsity coach Cal Irvin and also work with the freshman program. "He is a mighty knowledgable basketball person," said Irvin, "and we are pleased to have him join us."

A native of Dolthan, Ala., Reynolds compiled a 57-14 coaching record in four years at Ballard-Hudson. In four years as an undergraduate at Tuskegee Institute, he starred in basketball, football and Reynolds is married to the former Miss Amy Armstrong of Tuskegee. The Reynolds have two girls and a boy.

Youthful NCCU Squad Faces

versity football coach George Quiett says the 1970 season will be "a David vs. Goliath affair" with his predominantly sophomore team facing an array of small-college giants.

Quiett leaves open the possibility that the outcome will be the same for his youthful "David" team.

The Eagles face Alcorn A&M University of Mississippi on September 26. The Alcorn squad has been acclaimed for the past two years as the top black college football team in the nation.

The charity match in Philadelphia is billed as a battle of giants, but Quiett insists that he does not have the same team that achieved national recognition in 1969. "I have only five seniors and three uniors returning," Quiett said. "This will be the youngest team to represent N. C. Cenwith in my seven years here."

Two of the CIAA teams the Eagles will face - Virginia have new coaches. Quiett predicts an emotional impact on the teams. Three seasons ago, he took over the Eagles, after a 1-7-1 season, and led them to a 6-3 record.

Other teams the Eagles must face are perennially strong Morgan State, Winston-Salem State, rugged Maryland State, Johnson C. Smith University (1969 CIAA champs), and Virginia Union (favored for this year's CIAA championship).
