

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD IN D AREA

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ALLIE G. BURNETTE

Funeral services were held Saturday, September 5, at 2:00 P.M. at Morehead Avenue Baptist Church for Mrs. Allie G. Burnette with the Rev. B. A. Mack officiating.

Mrs. Allie G. Burnette, daughter of the late William and Pearlie Gariss, was born in Murfressboro, North Carolina, February 14, 1899, and departed this life Wednesday, September 2, 1970, following an extended illness.

She became a resident of Durham, North Carolina over 40 years ago, where she has resided until her death. While still a resident of the West End Community, she spent approximately 20 years in the employment of Liggett and Myers Tobacco Company.

She was friendly, loving and kind, despite her handicap. She will be missed for her holly spirit and her optimistic outlook on life.

Prior to her illness, she was a regular church goer, although she could not communicate orally. She always enjoyed carrying on sigh conversations with the late Dr. C. E. Mc-Lester; as long as her health permitted, she often came to hear him preach, which she enjoyed by lip reading. She leaves to mourn their loss: One daughter, Mrs. Janie Britt of the home; one son, Fletcher Burnette of Newark, New Jersey; one sister, Mrs. Johnnie Eley of Norfolk, Virginia; eight grandchildren of New York City, and five great-grandchildren, of Durham, and a host of other relatives and friends.

LARRY ROOSEVELT LONG Last rites were held Sunday August 23, at 2:00 P.M. for Larry Roosevelt Long at Mount Sinai Baptist Church with the Rev. R. T. Alston, minister, delivering the eulogy.

Larry Roosevelt Long, son of Theodore and the late Mozelle Ross Long, was born January 15, 1951 in Durham, North Carolina. He departed this life August 15, 1970 at the age of nineteen.

He was educated in the Durham City Schools, and recently worked with the Youth Corp in the State of New Jersey where he received a certificate as an electrician. Upon returning to Durham he worked as an electrician with a prominent firm of Durham, North Carolina.

At an early age he attended the Sunday School at Emmanuel A.M.E. Church.

His survivors are his father,

PAYTON CHANCE

PARMELE - Final rites were held recently at the Olive Branch Baptist Church here for Harold P. Chance, who succumbed after a long illness in Middletown; N. Y.

Eulogistic rites were given by the Reverend James A. Nimmo, life long friend of the deceased, Pastor 10th Street Baptist Church and Director of City Properties and Civil Defense, Camden, New Jersey. Other participants included William Claidius Chance Jr., Milton A. Armstead, Rev. J. A. Carraway and Rev. L. Person.

For more than 16 years Mr. Chance was a member of the teaching Staff at the Warwick State School, Warwick, New York until his retirement three years ago because of illness. Prior to this position, he served as Principal of Franklin Jr. High School Franklin, Ga.

Borned and reared in Parmele, he received his formal education at the W. C. Chance High School, the Bachelor of Science Degree from Virginia Union University, and further study at New York University.

He was a member of the Dutch Reform Church, Warwick, N. Y., the New York Employment Association, and was a veteran of World War II, having served in the Pacific Theater of Opera-

The son of Mrs. Chance and the late W. C. Chance, he is survived by his widow Mrs. Miriam Pitt Chance, a teacher at Warwick State School, Warwick, New York, two daughters, Anice and Camilla of the home; one sister, Mrs. Anice C. Wilson of Lynchburg, Va., five brothers, William Claudius Jr. and Warren of New York City, Anson of Parmele, Wilbur of Fredericksburg, Va. and Edward of Baltimore, Md., several neices and nephews and a host of other relatives and

Prior to the North Carolina rites, a memorial Service was held at the Second Baptist Church, Middletown, N. Y. with meditation given by the Reverend Simon Bouis and William Claudius Chance Jr.

LAST RITES HELD FOR MRS. BLACKWELL

Mrs. Rebecca Dent Black well, daughter of late Napoleon and Emma Alston Dent. was born in Warrenton, North Carolina. She departed this life Wednesday September 2, 1970. She died suddenly. Funeral services was held Saturday September 5, in the Scarborough Funeral Chapel, Reverend Sister Julia Richmond delivered the message. Burial was in Glennview Memorial Park.

Surviving were two sisters, Mrs. Ella D. Bass of Durham, and Mrs. Mary D. Davis of Washington, D. C., one brother, Mack Mckinley Dent of New York; one foster daughter, Mrs. Rosena Thompson Jackson of Dayton, Ohio; and two grandchildren.

In the computerized data bank of Dun & Bradstreet, which writes reports on businesses, is current credit information on nearly three million firms from Main Street to Wall tilla, Florida; three sisters, Mrs. Fannie Bell Alston, Mrs. Alston, both of Mebane, North and Miss Sandra Gail Long of Hillsborough, North Carolina; a maternal grandmother, Mrs. Mollie Poole of Hillsborough, North Carolina; sixteen aunts; nine uncles, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Sleep on and take your rest, we loved him, but God Mr. Theodore Long of Uma- loved you best.

LAYFAYETTE S. SOUTHERLAND

Layfayette S. Southerland beloved son of Mrs. Eva Southerland and the late William Southerland was born and and Mira. reared in Durham. During his childhood, he was converted and became a member of the White Rock Baptist Church It is here that he maintained his membership until his demise He departed this life on Tuesday, August 25. In 1940 he married Miss Connic Truitt, who remained a devoted wife to him during his extended illness.

Layfayette was an industrious worker always striving to maintain the best for himself and his family. He was patient. kind and quiet. With his unique personality he was able to gain a large number of friends in the Durham and Brooklyn Communities.

He leaves to mourn: a wife, Mrs. Connie T. Southerland; a mother, Mrs. Eva Southerland; son. A. Fuller Robinson, of Montreal, Canada: 3 sisters, Mrs. Gladys Kregg of Willing-New Jersey: Miss Alma Southerland, and Miss Virginia outherland of Durham; two brothers. William D. Southerland and Horace Southerland Durham: and a host of relatives

MRS. MARY E. WILSON

Mrs. Mary E. Wilson, daugher of the late Unus and Alice Hubbard, was born June 7, 1886 in Clinton, N. C., and de parted this life Thursday, Sep tember 3 in New York City She joined the First Baptist Church at the age of 12 and remained a faithful worker there until she moved at the age 21 to New York where she became affiliated with the Sec and Baptist Church. Later, she joined the Convent Avenue Baptist Church where she was an active member until the end of her life. She was active in many church and civic clubs, particularly those pertaining to

Dr. J. M. Hubbard, Durham; nieces and nephews: Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Hubbard, Jr., Los Angeles, California; Mr. and Thomas P. Hubbard, Baltimore, Maryland Robert R. Faison, New York City: and Mrs. Connie Benks, Burlington, N. C.; Mrs. Mary Keith, New York 'ity: other nicces, nephews, latives and friends.

First District S.S. Will Convene At Synama Grove

The First District Sunday School Convention will convene at the Synam Grove Baptist 11:00. At 11:45 Rev. S. P. Big-Church, Creedmoor, Friday, gers will deliver a sermon with through Sunday, September 11 Rev. E. G. Ewing as Alternate. and 13. Rev. S. P. Biggers is Mrs. Martha Evans, Secretary host pastor. McKinley Man- will be in charge of the Junior gum, President will preside at Program at 12:20 followed by the Friday Evening Session Remarks by the President, with the top feature of the McKinley Mangum and adsession being the Oratorical journment at 1:00 p.m.

GURT REEVES JR. EULOGIZED

Gurt Reeves Jr. of the Gaston County School System was eulogized at his Church, St. Stephens AME Zion of Gastonia, Tuesday, September 1 at 4 p.m. by his pastor, the Rev. Levi Evans, Jr. Interment was in the Rose Hill Ceme-Mr. Reeves died unexpectedly at his home, 714 Cameron Avenue at 10:45 Saturday. He was son of Mrs. Mary Howell Reeves of the Gaston County School System and the late Gurt Reeves Sr. who was a barber. He was also survived by his wife, Mrs. Willena McKnight Reeves and three young daughters: Lisa, Delma

A graduate of Winston-Salem State University, he served as principal of Humphrey Elementa. School of Lowell, for eight years after he had served as Band director of John Chavis School of Cherryville. At Lowell he established a recreational program for the children and also was a teacher of Driver Education. For two years, he taught at Belmont Elementary School and endeared himself to his class by many extra class activities including an educational trip in line with the social studies. He was under contract at time of

He was a veteran of World War II and served in the European Theatre after graduation from Highland High School and was honorably discharged after completion of his tours of duty.

In high school he was member of the Highland High School band, the patrol force and was an officer of his class. He was also a Boy Scout of Troop 17. He always won the respect of his teachers and fellowclassmates.

At St. Stephens Church he was an active member and was also a member of the Steward Board. He was a member of the professional organizations connected with his school work, and often represented at conventions ad delegate. Pall bearers at the funeral were his classmates: Robert O Mason, Lawrence Davis, Lloyd Quinn, Thomas Duff, Rev. Minter and Jessie Thompson Honorary Pall Bearers were trustees and also Samuel Sturgis and Mason Rainey Jr.

Flower bearers were Misses Alene Ramseur, Doris Holland. Ruby Chisolm, Deloris Kith cart, Beulah Barris and Joyce Holland and Emma J. Friday. Martins Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

SPECIAL MEETING OF

MINISTERS SET FOR MON. The Durham Interdenom national Ministerial Alliance of Durham and Vicinity will hold a special meeting on Monday, September 14 at 12 noon, She is survived by a brother, at Mt. Vernon Baptist Church on South Roxboro Street. All members are urged to come.

President E. H. Whitley Food and Nutrition News says that it has been estimated that the average American eats three pounds of additives each year.

Banks in the United States process 20 billion checks a Contest using the theme:

"What Are The Youth Seeking For In This Changing Society.' A trophy will be presented to the Church with the largest attendance.

The Sunday's Session will begin with Sunday School at 9:45 followed by devotions at

CARDS OF THANKS

We wish to thank all of our friends and neighbors for the acts of kindness messages of love and understanding, many cards, telegrams, food, cars for transportation and beautiful floral offerings received in our bereavement in our loss of our beloved mother and grandmother, Mrs. Allie G. Burnette who passes September 2, 1970, following an extended illness. Special thanks to the Pastor, Reverend B. A. Mack and members of the Morehead Avenue Baptist Church, and former co-workers of The Liggett and Myers Tobacco Company. She saw in the Sunset an Evening Star, The clear call for Me. She wish not for us to moan, when She put out

WILSON May God bless all of you The family of the late, for sharing with us in our loss.

BLACKWELL We wish to thank all of our friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness messages of love, many cards, telegrams, food cars fro transportation and beautiful floral offerings received during our loss of our beloved one Mrs. Rebecca D. Blackwell.

Mrs. Janie Britt and Family who passed suddenly September 9, 1970. Special thanks to Sister Julia Richmond for delivering the message, and each one for sharing with us in our loss. "May God Bless All of You."

Mrs. Ella D. Bass and family

BABY DEMMINGS We wish to thank all of our friends and neighbors for so many kind deeds of love and understanding, many cards, telegrams, and beautiful floral offerings received in our loss of our infant Baby daughter who departed this life in Duke Hospital August 6, 1970. Had she lived she would have been loved very much by the family, but God saw fit to take please accept our humble minister at First Calvary. thanks at this time. Again we say "thank you."

& Mrs. Frederick Demmings LONG

The family of the late Larry Roosevelt Long, who passed August 15, 1970, wish to transportation, many cards each one that shared with us dress.

sunset an evening star a clear call for me, he wish not for us to moan, when he put out

The Long and Ross Family

SOUTHERLAND

The family of the late Mr. Lafayette Southerland wishes to acknowledge all messages and expressions of Sympathy. They are appreciative of every act of kindness shown during his extended illness and passing. We accept with gratitude all floral tributes and uses of cars. May your lives be enriched with God's beautiful blessings. Miss Alma Southerland

and family

Mrs. Mary E. Hubbard Wilson wishes to thank all of our many friends and neighbors for themmany acts of kindness messages of love and sympathy, many cards telegrams, and beautiful floral offerings received uring her illness and death. Our beloved sister and aunt passed away September 2, 1970.

"May God Bestore Riches Blessings upon you, and each individual who shared with us in our loss."

Dr. J. M. Hubbard and family

FIRST CALVARY SENIOR CHOIR TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

The Senior Choir of First Calvary Baptist Church on Morehead Ave. will celebrate its Fifty-eighth Anniversary, Sunday, September 13, at 6:00 p.m. in the church auditorium Appearing on this musical program will be the following outstanding musical groups from Durham and other cities: The Amey Jubilee Singern, Mt Vernon Male Chorus, Calvary Baptist Singers, Gospel Stars Oxford. The Golden Aires of Chapel Hill and the Mitchell Chapel Male Chorus of Pitts-Dallace Hinton is president of the senior choir, Miss M. L. her home to rest. May God Stephens is the organist and Bless and keep all of you and Rev. A. L. Thompson is the

MONTLHY MEETING OF DURHAM USHERS UNION AT PILGRIM BAPTIST

The monthly program of the Durham Interdenominational Ushers Union will be held at Pilgrim Baptist Church, Corner Cornwallis Road and South Roxboro Street, Sunday, September 13, at 3:15 P.M. with thank all of our friends and Mrs. Hattie B. Thomas, acting neighbors for the many acts as Mistress of Ceremony. The of kindness, messages of love Arts and Crafts Department, and understanding, cars for Sponsors. Theme: "Art, A Thing of Beauty. Music will be by the Pilgrim Baptist Senior and telegrams, beautiful floral Choir. A Report of the State offerings, received in our loss Convention will be given by of our dear son, brother and Mrs. Esther McKincey. Mrs. nephew? Special thanks to Mamie D. Watkins will intro-Rev. A. T. Alston, Members

duce Mrs. B. A. Mack, of the Morehad Ave. Baptist Church of Youth Corp, co-workers and who will deliver the main ad-

"THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIS

The last great book of the Bible | His revelation to the world in per pens with the words: "THE son, but His revelation to and REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST," through Paul the chief of sinners, and from these words it derives saved by grace. its title: "THE REVELATION." In this book St. John deals largely apostle says: " with the return of Christ in glory apostle says: "...it pleased God ...TO REVEAL HIS SON IN ME." What a revelation of grace to a to judge and reign. II Thes. 1:7,8 tells us that one sin-cursed world. God saved Saul, by "THE LORD JESUS SHALL His blaspheming enemy! He tells BE REVEALED FROM HEAVEN...

in flaming fire taking vengeance

1:11,12 he says:

The gospel which was preached of LASTING."

[by] me is not after man, for I neither received it of man, neither pleased God . . TO REVEAL HIS was I taught it, but by THE SON IN ME." By saving the chief REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST." of sinners (as Paul calls himself Surely this is not the same in I Tim. 1:15) God would show it revelation of Jesus Christ." which John wrote. St. Paul refers sinner. "FOR WHOSOEVER SHALL not to "the revelation of Jesus CALL UPON THE NAME OF THE while He delays the judgment, not about it in I Tim. 1:13-16, where he says: "I was a blasphemer, n them that . . . obey not the and a persecutor, and injurious ospel of our Lord Jesus Christ." . . . Howbeit, FOR THIS CAUSE I his is what the book of the Reve- OBTAINED MERCY, THAT IN ME FIRST JESUS CHRIST MIGHT But this phraseology is also SHOW FORTH ALL LONGSUFFER ised in Paul's epistles, for in Gal. ING, FOR A PATTERN TO THEM

WHICH SHOULD HEREAFTER BE "I certify you, brethren, that LIEVE ON HIM TO LIFE EVER-revelation of Jesus Christ" of us that HE is willing to save any Christ" in glory, but to "the reve- LORD SHALL BE SAVED" (Rom. lation of Jesus Christ" in 67-ce 30-13).

WATTS STREET BAPTIST CHURCH DAY CARE CENTER

Providing full day care with half day nursery kindergarten teaching program.

for children ages 3-5

STARTING SEPT. 8

★ Qualified pre-school teachers & aids * State licensed & federally approved.

* Fully equipped facilities.

PHONE 286-2317

Loretta H. Allen, Director

Formerly Day Care Consultant, North Carolina Depa

White Rock Baptist Church

Worshipping at B. N. Duke Auditorium North Carolina Central University Lorenzo A. Lynch, Minister

Sunday, September 13, 1970

9:30 A.M. ..... Church School 10:55 A.M. WORSHIP

> SERMON: "On Twenty Years In The Christ (Ezekiel 3:17-21) ian Ministry"

> Senior Choir Leading The Singing, J. H. Gattis, Director

5:00 P.M. Conference On The Ministry 3400 Fayetteville Street" St. Joseph's Church Gospel Choir Leading The Singing

B. N. Duke Auditorium

North Carolina Central University Campus

that has been ours for many years is one built up through consistent respect for the wishes of those we serve, unfailing dependability in time of need, and sincere compassion. SCARBOROUGH & HARGETT, INC.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS Phones 682-1171 or 682-1172 919 Payetteville St.

Durham, N.C. HOURS AMBULANCE SERVICE

St. Joseph's AME Church

PHILIP R. COUSIN, Minister

FAYETTEVILLE STREET

Sunday, September 13, 1970

DURHAM, N. C.

8:00 A.M. EARLY MORNING WORSHIP

SERMON ..... The Minister

MUSIC ..... Gospel Choix

Fred Mason at the Console Eugene Plummer, Director

9:30 A.M. SUNDAY SCHOOL

Miss Marie Faulk, Superinten 11:00 A.M. MORNING WORSHIP

Fred Mason at the Console

SERMON ..... The Minist

Joseph T. Mitchell Directing