

Durham, N.C. 27706

Words of Wisdom

It is only by forgetting yourself that you draw near to God. —Henry David Thoreau

The Carolina Times

THE TRUTH UNBRIEDED

ATTENTION ALL SUBSCRIBERS

New Rates: For The Carolina Times United States and Canada 1 Year $6.00 United States and Canada 2 Years $11.00 Foreign Countries 1 Year $7.50 Single Copy 20 Cents

VOLUME 49 — No. 40

DURHAM, N. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1970

PRICE: 20 Cents

UNCF Kicks Off 70-71 State N. C. Drive

NAACP Launches Campaign For Membership Renewals

SWEEPSTAKES WINNER—Mrs. Nadine Edwards of Sherrill's Ford, N. C., runs her hands through some of the money she won on a national sweepstakes conducted by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. Mrs. Edwards was surprised at a community picnic Saturday, Oct. 3, with the news that she had won $20,000 in cash and a new Cadillac convertible in the "Win with Winston" Sweepstakes.

NC Woman Wins Cadillac And $20,000 Reynolds Sweepstakes

SHERRILL'S FORD — Do you ever wonder if there are really any winners in those big giveaway contests? Ask anyone in Sherrill's Ford, N. C. This tiny rural community north of Charlotte was turned upside down with excitement Saturday (October 3) when the sponsor of one of those "giveaways" — R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. — presented one of its residents with a new Cadillac convertible and $20,000 in cash. The car and money made up the grand prize in the "Win With Winston" Sweepstakes.

Six N.C. Schools Included In $400,000 Fund Raising Effort

RALEIGH — United Negro College Fund (UNCF) formally opened its 1970-71 fund raising campaign this week. The fund composes of 36 predominantly Negro Institutions of higher education, with 6 of the institutions located in North Carolina officially opened their campaign with a press conference at Shaw University, one of the member schools. Administrators of the six private colleges and universities in North Carolina were present to launch the $400,000. Drive which will be used for operating expenses for member institutions.

Bayard Rustin Honored By Nat'l Jewish Women's Organization

NEW YORK, N. Y. — Bayard Rustin, executive director of the A. Philip Randolph Institute, was honored here this week by a national Jewish women's organization for his initiative in mobilizing Black support for Israel. In a brief ceremony at the headquarters of the institute at 260 Park Avenue South, Mr. Rustin accepted the 1970 "Annual America-Israel Friendship Award," of the Mizrahi Women's Organization of America from Mrs. Milton S. Jacobson, of New York, national president. The award which has been conferred annually since the establishment of Israel in 1948 upon public figures "not of the Jewish faith who have con-

MRS. JACOBSON AND RUSTIN

Massive Year-End Nationwide Enrollment of 450,000 Sought

NEW YORK — Bishop Stephen G. Spottswood, chairman of the Board of Directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, has called upon local units of the Association to mount a massive year-end nationwide campaign to assure enrollment of at least 450,000 NAACP members by December 15. The campaign concentrates on getting persons whose annual memberships have lapsed to rejoin the organization before the end of the year. A two-month fall renewal campaign, Oct. 15 to Dec. 15, seeks a 1970 enrollment approximating that of 1969 despite a 100 per cent increase in the minimum annual member-

INSTALLATION SERVICE — The Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance of Durham and Vicinity held its Installation Services for its officers recently at the Mt. Olive AMEZ Church at 1515 Club Boulevard. The Rev. E. H. Writley was host pastor. Dr. Grady Davis, pastor of Durham's Union Bapt. Church brought the Installation message, titled: "The New Role of the Black Pastor in the New Black Church." The Rev. D. A. Peace gave the Installation charge. Standing from left to right are: The Rev. B. A. Mack, Ass't Historian; Rev. O. L. Conyers, 2nd Vice President; Osofo L. H. MacDonald, 1st Vice President; Dr. Grady Davis, Rev. E. H. Whitley, President; Rev. E. T. Thompson, Secretary; Rev. Mrs. E. J. Sims, Ass't Secretary; Rev. W. R. Robinson, Craplain. Not pictured are Dr. W. H. Robinson, Chaplain; W. H. Fuller, Treasurer; Dr. L. W. Reid, Historian; Rev. Z. S. Thomson, Ass't Chaplain; Rev. J. A. Brown, Critic. The Alliance will meet Monday at 12:00 noon at the Mt. Vernon Baptist Church, 1000 S. Roxboro Street, Dr. E. T. Browne is pastor.

NCCJ Presents Mrs. Spaulding Carolinas Region Citation Award

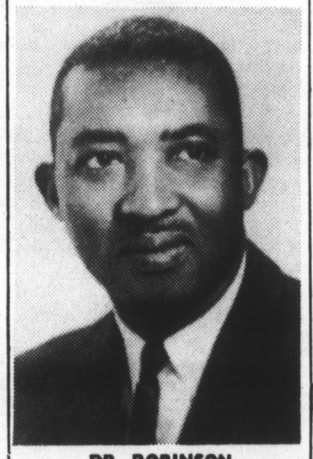

The National Conference of Christians and Jews Tuesday night presented Mrs. Asa T. Spaulding of Durham the 1960 Carolinas Region citation award before some 275 people at the Durham Hotel. In accepting the award, Mrs. Spaulding gave credit to the Women in Action for the Prevention of Violence and Its Causes, Inc., of which she is president. The purpose of the group, she said, "to respect at all times the dignity and personality of all human beings and encourage others to do so." She also gave thanks to the work of the NCCJ, saying that the impact of its various programs "has been tremendous all across our country." In presenting the award, Chamber of Commerce vice president Victor Bryant Jr. said of Mrs. Spaulding, "She has begun a career of real service, not only to her family, but to our community. "She has in the actual service in many organizations exhibited leadership and organization," he said. Of her involvement with the Women in Action, he said, "We can be proud to look back over the past two or three years over the work of this organization, and say that its aims have been accomplished." Brooks Hays, chairman of the North Carolina Good Neighbor Council spoke on the (See MRS. SPAULDING 2A)

MRS. SPAULDING

NCCU Vice President Inaugural Keynoter At Albany State Oct. 9

ALBANY, Ga. — Dr. Leonard H. Ribonson, vice president of academic affairs at North Carolina Central University, will deliver the Inaugural Convocation address here at Albany (Ga.) State College on Friday, October 9, as Dr. Charles L. Hayes is inaugurated as the fifth president of the Southwest Georgia institution. Dr. Charles K. Dunson, Chairman of the College's Inaugural Committee, announced this in releasing the Inaugural Calendar of Events. The appearance of the Julian "Cannonball" Adderley Quintet on Thursday, October 8, will be one of the highlights on Inaugural Week. According to Dunson, the inaugural procession will begin promptly at 2:20 p.m. Friday afternoon (October 9) and the Convocation for the inauguration of Dr. Hayes will start at 3:00 p.m. in Sanford Hall Auditorium. Dr. Ribonson, the inaugural convocation speaker, has been at NCCU since 1967. (See ROBINSON on 2A)

DR. ROBINSON

Charles L. Hayes is inaugurated as the fifth president of the Southwest Georgia institution. Dr. Charles K. Dunson, Chairman of the College's Inaugural Committee, announced this in releasing the Inaugural Calendar of Events. The appearance of the Julian "Cannonball" Adderley Quintet on Thursday, October 8, will be one of the highlights on Inaugural Week. According to Dunson, the inaugural procession will begin promptly at 2:20 p.m. Friday afternoon (October 9) and the Convocation for the inauguration of Dr. Hayes will start at 3:00 p.m. in Sanford Hall Auditorium. Dr. Ribonson, the inaugural convocation speaker, has been at NCCU since 1967. (See ROBINSON on 2A)

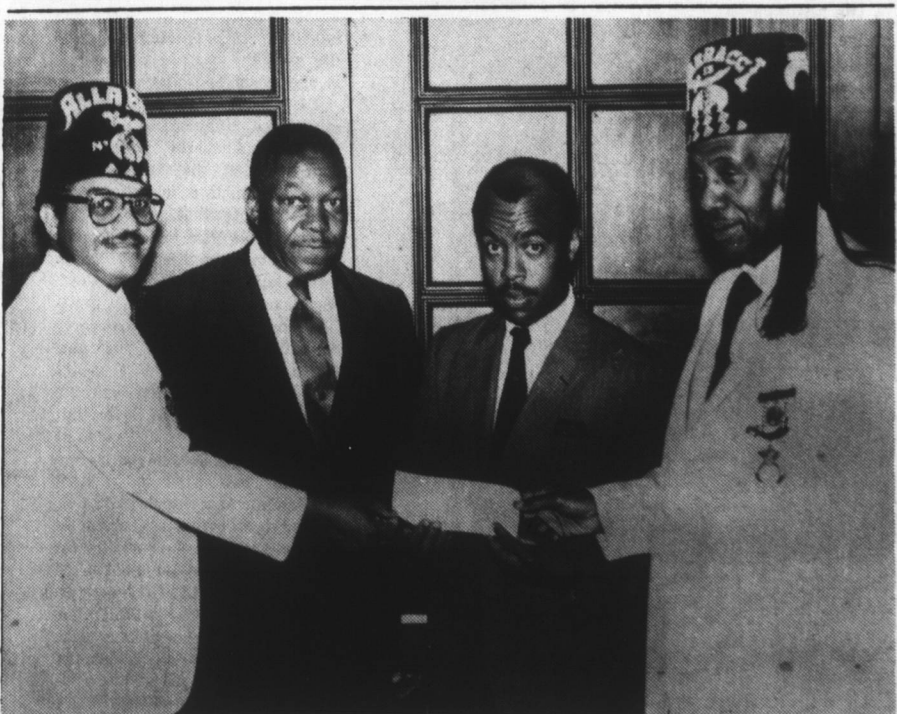

MRS. BULLOCK

Ebenezer Bapt. To Observe 16th Women's Day

The sixteenth annual Women's Day will be observed at the Ebenezer Baptist Church at 2200 South Alston Avenue on Sunday, October 11. The guest speaker for the 11:00 a.m. worship service will be Mrs. C. T. Bullock of Weldon, North Carolina. Mrs. Bullock will emphasize the theme, "Faithfulness With Sincerity In The Life Of The Church Woman" Mrs. Bullock is a graduate of North Carolina Central University and has done graduate study at NCCU and East Carolina University. She is an Occupational Education Teacher in the Weldon Senior High School. She holds a number of leadership positions in local and state church organizations and is active in civic affairs. She is the wife of the Reverend Charles T. Bullock, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Weldon, and the mother of three sons. Mrs. Ella Hayes will be the guest soloist along with the special Women's Choir of the church. The evening program will (See EBENEZER on 2A)

Record Number Foreigners Now Studying in the United States

"Open Doors" 1970, the most comprehensive report on international educational and cultural exchange programs, published annually by the Institute of International Education, reports that 134,959 foreign students and 12,659 foreign scholars studied in the United States in the academic year 1969-70. The foreign student and scholar population represented an 11 per cent increase over last year's total. The number of U. S. students and scholars abroad declined slightly. There were 25,117 U. S. students reported as regularly enrolled in foreign colleges and universities in 1968-69. The figures for U. S. students abroad are one year older than the rest, because of the difficulty of gathering information from all over the globe. The number of U. S. faculty members and scholars abroad also dropped slightly, from 5,639 last year to 5,310 this year, possibly reflecting a general belt-tightening on U. S. campuses. In a forward to "Open (See RECORD on 2A)

SUPPORTS SHRINERS YOUTH PROGRAMS — Representatives of Coca-Cola USA and Coca-Cola Bottlers present a check to Prince Hall Shriners during the group's Boston Convention to support various youth activities of the organization. Paul E. X. Brown, (2nd from left), Atlanta, Georgia, and Ken Hudson, Boston, Mass., made the presentation. The Atlanta based soft-drink company sponsors annually a $1500 educational scholarship and various youth convention activities. Accepting the check for the Shriners were Carl L. Wilson, (left), Dayton, Ohio, Director of the Student Aid Fund and Booker T. Alexander, (right), Detroit, Michigan, Imperial Recorder.