 Medicine Club; President of the Canterbury Club; a member of the Men's Senate; YMCA: Biology Club; Film & Forum; Host and Hostess; a member of Pi Gamma Mu National Honor Social Science Fraternity, and was a nominee for Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. He also served on the Medical Committee and the Committee for Freshmen Orientation.
 After graduation from Florida A&M University, he joined Armour-Dial, Inc. in New York City, as a sales representative, and was cited by the Eastern Region's Manager of Armour, as being an outstanding and aggressive sales representative, as well as being the first in the placement of 18 Armour products on the Island of Manhattan through a wholesale grocery chain -- an accomplishment his predecessors had never achieved. While with Armour, he pursued a Masters Degree in Business Administration at New York University. After leaving Armour, he played with the New York Giants football team before a knee injury ended his career.
 Arthur us a sales analyst in the Marketing/Sales Department for the Xerox Corporation.

 With these accomplishments he is now joining the ranks of Rev. Jesse L. Jackson, Gale Sayers, John D. Rockefeller, and the late John F. Kennedy, to name few of those who have been recipients of this award.
 When asked by the Amsterdam News, the largest Black Newspaper, his response to the selection, he said, "some individuals tend to grasp high honors of this nature and scrutinize the advantages of this situation for selfish reasons. My outlook is different and twofold: I think of the combined efforts of individuals and situations that placed me at this point, and realize that this is just a novel experience in my drive for a goal that will bring about the inevitable for the Black People. With the wisdom of the Old and the Energy of the young, this goal will be reached.
 Those among us who have achieved some degree of success should lend a helping hand to those who haven't had the opportunity.
 As I reminisce the past, stand in the present and contemplate the future, I think the wise ones of yesterday, my peers of today and the little ones of tomorrow will continue to strive toward the inevitable and move on -- Right On!"

 white draft board rejected his claim on the ground that All's Black Muslim beliefs were "political and racial" and thus did not qualify him for the statutory exemption. When the Court of Appeals affirmed the denial, and upheld All's conviction it emphasized the allegedly anti-white, anti-christian, and segregationist philosophy of the Muslims.
 The Supreme Court agreed to consider Ali's appeal in light of its own recent decision that makes it clear that conscientious objector treatment cannot be denied because it is not based upon traditional religious beliefs. Thus, the court will decide whether the Selective Service System must treat Black Muslims who are conscientiously opposed to war on the same basis as registrants who belong to other faiths.
 The decision may have significance for the treatment generally of Black Muslims in the eyes of the law, as well as for the many who have refused military service because of their beliefs.

According to LDF Associate Council, James M. Nabrit, III, a written argument will be filed with the Supreme Court in about 45 days and an oral argument will probably take place in late April or early May of 1971.

 1887, a deed of conveyance from R. B. Fitzgerald and wife to the Trustees in Trust for the African Methodist Episcopal Church, conveying the property on Kent Street known at that time as Chapel Hill Road, Noting there in that it was to be used by the Conference, subject to the rules and regulations of the A.M.E. discipline to expound "God's Holy Word" and with the further provision that if the African Methodist Church failed to use it for the purposes set forth, it would revert to the heirs at law.
 Yarborough and Fitzgerald further stated, that at the time of conveying the deed, they and other members of their family were not even born. And that as active and paying members of Emmanuel A.M.E. Church, have been for many years, along with other loyal members who have given generously of earnings and physical toil to preserve and improve the structure in order that it might be enjoyed by it's members. It is also sad to think that no one in the Conference thought it was necessary to notify the family that the church was to be abandoned and action was taken without consulting any members of the family as to what was transacted. "It is hard to understand," Fitzgerald quoted, as to how a church has stood for some 83 years under the leadership of some forty Pastors and six Bishops and they all understood this clause in the deed, and only now has the church been abandoned to say the Fitzgerald's owned the church. Also we do not condemn members who wish to relocate.
 Let it be known, that we, as the heirs of R. B. and Sarah Fitzgerald, wish that the gift of their grandfather and grandmother hope that the doors of Emmanuel shall always remain open to the members and others who wish to expound God's word in it's Holy Sanctuary, and also it is the wishes of the family, if this property is reverted to them, that it will be used as a worthwhile charity.

 account in a savings and loan association. More and more people came to realize this, and that is another reason why funds are once more flowing into your institution.
 In the recent years of "tight money" many families were obliged to defer plans to buy or build homes in 1971, and especially if present savings trends continue, there should be more mortgage money available for our community needs.

Dr. Likoff Keynoter At Meharry

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Meharry Medical College will host one of America's most distinguished men of medicine January 20. Dr. William Likoff, acclaimed world wide for his skills and knowledge in the field of cardiology, will be the keynote speaker for a Program of Continuing Education in Cardiology.
 DR. LIKOFF received his B.A. from Dartmouth College and his M.D. from Hahnemann Medical College, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. After receiving his M.D., Dr. Likoff was an intern, a pathology resident, a medical resident, and a chief resident at Mt. Sinai Hospital, Philadelphia. After leaving Mt. Sinai he was a cardiac fellow at Peter Bent Brigham Hospital in Boston. He is currently a Clinical Professor of Medicine at Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital.
 Dr. Likoff is currently a member of the Executive Committee of the American College of Cardiology, the chairman of the National Committee of Continuing Education of the American College of Cardiology, the vice-chairman of the Inter-Society Commission for Heart Disease Resources, and chairman of the Third National Conference on Coronary Care Units (American College of Cardiology and American Heart Association) June, 1971.

THE PROGRAM will include tours of cardiovascular wards and facilities, lectures by noted speakers and a luncheon. Chairman for the luncheon will be Mrs. E. (Chippie) Grier, Medical Technologist in Cardiology. Persons attending the symposium will include faculty, students, visiting physicians and members of the local press. Physicians attending the program may receive seven prescribed credit hours from the American Academy of General Practice.
 During the fiscal year from July 1970 through June 1971 the United States will buy fewer military aircraft than in any year since 1946, the first year after World War II.

Your professional hairdresser knows the answer... Is braiding your "natural" the only way to make it look better?

Do you have to braid your hair every night or everytime you wash it? Going through this process makes it easier to comb, keeps down split ends and helps give your 'fro more body. However, it sometimes takes several days of braiding to achieve these results.
 The best and quickest way to keep a nice shaped 'natural' is to go to your professional hairdresser for the Kindness System from Clairol. It's the new way of styling and making a flimsy 'fro a fuller 'fro. The Kindness Instant Hairsetter & Kindness Heat-Activated conditioner are the instant problem solvers for tangles, breakage and damaged ends. It's great for all kinds of hair styles and wigs too!
 After washing and towel drying your hair, the professional hairdresser applies the Kindness Heat-Activated Conditioner. It's formulated to give hair deep-down body and a healthy glow. Then, the Kindness Instant Hairsetter, with its warm-hearted rollers, is used to help penetrate the conditioner gently into your hair. This gives your hair more beauty and hold power for a style that lasts and lasts. Then, of course, the expert does the styling.
 Why not talk to your hairdresser about using the Kindness System. From wash to set... including shaping... it takes less than an hour. Your professional hairdresser knows that the Kindness System is far better than tiresome braiding.

 approximately 1200 diplomats businessmen and their wives.
 "Happy Birthday" was sung by Miss June Norton of Washington, D. C., a TV and radio personality, who has appeared with Harry Belafonte and Duke Ellington to name just two. She is also a graduate of Howard University, the alma mater of the American Ambassador. She also sang "The Impossible Dream" and "My Way," which seem to sum up the fact that although President Tubman is celebrating his 75th birthday, he has been President for 26 years.
 He was then presented with two gifts, one by Charles Sherman. The first was a map of Africa printed in the 1600's. A reproduction painting of the Hoffman River in 1900 displaying colonial settlements as far back as 1825, such as Fort Hill and Fort Norris, with both forts flying the American flag with only 25 stars. In May of 1825 is when Monrovia, Liberia was born by mutual consent of America and Africa. The other gift was presented by Mrs. C. L. St. Clair, wife of the chairman of the Chamber of Commerce. It was a huge desk set.
 Then came the pinnacle of the evening. The "Queen of Gospel," "The World's Greatest Gospel Singer," was introduced to the public. Miss Jackson, resplendent in a long ankle-length green gown with sequined bodice and permanent pleats and semi-ruffled bottom, took the stage.
