

80th Founders' Day Observed At ECSU

ELIZABETH CITY, N.C. — The address of Dr. Helen C. Edmonds, U.S. alternate delegate to the United Nations, was a fitting climax to Elizabeth City State University's observance of its 80th anniversary.

Speaking from the topic: "Elizabeth City State University. Thy Heritage Is Great! Whither Goest Thou Now?" Dr. Edmonds asserted "It is the acceptance of the challenge which the future holds that celebration of Founders' Day becomes a re-dedication of students, faculty, administration, alumni and friends to the educational priorities which lie ahead."

AFTER criticizing those who "allow students to be the sole criterion of educational excellence;" those who feel that the purpose of an institution is one of "financial returns;" those who place emphasis on the specialization of students and "not enough on liberalization;" those who think that "an institution, which has existed for a half century or more, has the fundamental right to continue to exist, ipso facto;" and those who choose to bury their heads "in the sands and deny the existence of rapidly swirling world events," Dr. Edmonds proceeded to discuss sound criteria that make a "university entitled to the right to exist."

She finally reminded the audience that "a university has the right to exist if it champions truth and academic freedom and does not surrender to hysteria, whether from the students, faculty, county, state or nation."

Underscoring her discussion of the youth of today, Dr. Edmonds stated, "The total youth of our land is the least racist element in our human society. They have unhinged themselves from 'Establishment values' wherein the color of skin was a determinant of the total value of the human personality."

PRIOR TO the program and her introduction by President Marion D. Thorpe, a motecade of students, university officials, alumni and friends joined in the annual pilgrimage to Oak Grove Cemetery where wreaths were placed on the graves of Hugh Cale, Dr. Peter W. Moore and Dr. John H. Bias.

Music for the occasion was provided by the University Choir, under the direction of Miss Evelyn A. Johnson. Following the program, in Moore Hall Auditorium, a reception was held in the banquet room of the University Center.

26 Pupils Must Work For Damage

WILMINGTON — Twenty-six junior high school students will be spending their Saturdays and part of the summer working on the school grounds as punishment for damages to the school last week.

Judge Gilbert Burnett Tuesday ordered the students to spend Saturdays for the rest of the school term picking up paper and cleaning up the schools.

HE ALSO ordered them to be available during the summer for work sorting books and doing odd jobs, and their parents were ordered to pay $92 each for damages to Williston Junior High School.

The charges grew out of a disturbance last week in which windows were smashed and furniture was overturned and broken at the school.

"I made my choice and I have been in prison 20 months. I would make the same choice again if I had to back it up with 10 years."
