Dr. Abernathy Lauds Supreme Court Ruling

ATLANTA, Ga. — Dr. Ralph David Abernathy, president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference applauds yesterday's action by the U. S. Supreme Court ruling against the neighborhood school concept and anti-busing laws.

The SCLC has been south-wide anti-busing laws as attempts to deny black children quality, decent educational opportunities. The concept of busing itself is nothing new to the black community, primarily because busing has been used throughout the South to provide transportation to white students to bypass the dilapidated one-room school house, relegated to the black community. However, when the question of busing is applied to the black community, we have witnessed an avalanche of indignation and outrage to adhere to a notion of the neighborhood school.

The SCLC takes the position that the best quality and progressive education possible needs to be made available to all students regardless of race, color or creed, which is not a position of support for "desegregation," "integration," or (Continued on page 7A)

BISHOP SCOTT

True Way Church of God Holds Men's Day Jubilee at DBC Sun.

By JOHN MYERS, Staff Writer

The third annual Men's Day Jubilee of True Way Church of God in Christ Jesus, Inc. was held Sunday, April 25 at Durham Business College. The churches attending were members of the incorporation from Weldon, Apex, and Roanoke Rapids.

The Men's Day Program was under the direction of Deacon Willie G. Allen, Director and Business Administrator of the body's church in Durham. Presiding Elder, James Scott, Pastor of the Apex Church held the 11:00 a. m. service.

The afternoon activities began at 3:00 p.m. with platform speakers, Bishop McClain of Baltimore, Maryland, Bishop Leddie Wilson, Pastor River Jordan Pentecostal Church, Ed Williams, Deacon, New Deal Church of Christ in God, Inc., and James Scott. Three deacons, representing the letters, MEN, gave the meaning of Men's Day in the church. They stressed the importance of deacons as pillars of the church. No matter what happens, the deacons are to stand and support the church.

Music for the Jubilee meeting was provided by the junior, senior, and intermediate choirs from Weldon, the junior, senior, and intermediate choirs from Apex, and the young peoples choir from Roanoke Rapids. A solo was presented by Miss Betty Jones.

Bishop D. S. Scott, Pastor at Weldon and Chief Apostle of True Way Church Assembly, was the guest speaker. The topic of Bishop Scott's sermon was "Man's Responsibility In His Home and Community." He emphasized the need of a male figure in the home for the guidance of children.

The collection taken for the building fund totaled $660.

The reverence of a memory is always uppermost in our minds. We understand the grief of losing a loved one and respect that grief by conducting every detail of our services with appropriate dignity.
