8A-THE CAROLINA TIMES

Hi soul brothers and soul sisters, and of course, to anyone else who care enough to want the very best. I'm sure everyone had a real groovy and swinging weekend in the Bull

City spending Sunday (Moth-

In the spot light this week is Jerry Fitch and Smitty, our part time jocks at WSRC radio.

Our man, Jerry, (small town-little-village) is all the way from Wilson, North Carolina.

partment of Interior, working on his Masters degree at North Carolina Central University.

Jerry rocks this town every Monday, Tuesday, and Satur-

He is on leave from the Deer's Day) with mother.

Groovina

With

Chuckie Harris

SATURDAY, MAY 15, 1971 those favorite tunes of yesteryear I guess everyone know that our soulful sister, our lady of soul, Queen Areatha Franklin, has been off the scene for awhile, but she has made a remarkable comeback and she is standing tall with our number one tune "Bridge Over Troubled Waters," which has day nights with a bucket full been our number one on the of soul and on Sundays he baptize you with jazz. So, why don't you check him out on F.M. and when he isn't on we have the good Doctor. Smitty. The good Doctor stars on Wednesday nights and he likes to give all his fans a variation of good soul, so he turns back the hands of time Oldies-but-Goodies of with long ago and he will rock you away from here. I know everyone at one time or another like to hear those blasts from the past, so take time to listen to the good Doctor and Jerry Fitch on F.M. at WSRC radio, and I guarantee you will enjoy Top Ten of WSRC for four straight weeks. She is definitely together and way out-ofsight. Right on sister Areatha. Also a couple of weeks ago, we had a pick of the week, "You're the Reason Why" by the Ebonys and it is standing high on our Top Ten chart, along with Ike and Tina Turner's Rolling Like A River,

> The Staple Singers Heavy loose."

Two Job Corps Graduates Set High Occupational Goals In Capital and Debbie Gwynn, both from small Southern towns, were out of work and didn't have much hope for employment. But today, after a little more than a year of training in the Job Corps, both are holding down jobs as secretaries with the Labor Department's Bureau of Apprentice-

WASHINGTON - About

two years ago, Edna Lynch

Makes Me Happy and others.

Keep tuned in to WSRC for all the latest and greatest tunes.

checked the Times Square, it's Durham's newest night spot.

Last weekend was the grand opening with Marion Black of Columbus, Ohio. Marion recorded a song entitled "Gone Fool" awhile back and it was town. So for everyone who is seeking good entertainment check the Times Square on Until next week, I want

"Walk tall and stay

Chapel Hill Street.

pretty

you to hot around Durham

Incidentially, have you ship and Training here. And both of the young Job Corps graduates -- while "very happy" with their present Government jobs -- are pointing toward higher occupational goals. Miss Gwynn, of Mt. Airy, is studying elementary education at a local college to become under the sponsorship of the a teacher and Miss Lynch, of Agency for International De-Notasulka, Ala., eventually velopment, the United Na-plans to start college. Miss Lynch became a corpswoman in Excelsior Springs, Miss. in August, 1969, pursued a business course, and chose clerk-typist as her vocation.

When she graduated in October, 1970, she was sent to Washington, D. C., for on-the-job training (OJT) in BAT's Office of Special (International) Activities. After two months of training, she was hired as a secretary. Her office administers industrial training programs for foreign participants who are brought to the United States tions, and the International Labor Organization.

"My work is very exciting," she says, "and I'm lucky to be working with such wonderful people. I say hurray to Job Corps! Without their help, I curricular activities. She was wouldn't be where I am today.

training in whatever you eventually want to learn. Enrolled at the Job Corps Center in Charleston, W. Va., Miss Gwynn also studied to be a clerk-typist. While a student, she was active in extra-

-

Ē

The Deal King has committed to Ford Motor Co. to make May the Biggest Sales month in our History. The Big Count Down starts today and will continue throughout the month . . . look for the Operation Countdown Calendarin all of our ads each day . . . it will tell you how many days you have left to enjoy the Biggest Savings of the year.

Per Month

Cash price, delivered in Chapel Hill, is $2095 Down Payment is $295-cash or trade. Monthly payment is $59 per month for 36 months on approved credit. The total deferred pay-ment is $24.19. The annual percentage rate is 11.08%.