(Continued from front page) authority. "We also consider it an effort to do away with the position of Director of Tenant Services and Community Services. This position's primary responsibility is to improve the benefits of public housing," Wheeler said.

He further stated that this seemed to be the history of the attitude of Durham's Housing Authority. "These people do not live in public housing because they wish to. Public Housing is intended to provide its tenants with the same dignity as anyone else. The firing of Tillman represents an affront to the black community. It is asking the Durham community to ignore the trend of thinking of the housing authority and its obvious attitude, not in keeping with the Commission of U.S. Department of Urban Development."

According to Wheeler, Tillman was the bright spot in the community. The people offering the protest called for a revival of the policies of the housing authority and new guidelines by HUD. The commissions represented at Wednesday's conference said they were in the initial stages of protest and further actions were not planned at that time.

Pastor

He was perhaps the most respected religious leader in Harlem. His was a mission of service. He was a well-known figure in hospitals and sick rooms where he took the elements of the Lord's Supper, but also gave unstintingly of his means to aid those in need. He is known to have gone to the last story of Harlem's highest tenement house to give succor to sick and indigent persons.

Rev. Price was born in Antigua, West Indies, July 14, 1884 and died May 6, 1971. He joined Mother Zion Church in 1920 and was licensed to preach the same year. When he was approached to take the pastorate of some other church, where he would be the top man he is said to have replied "My job is at Mother Zion and I want to do it."

His value to the community was shown when the auditorium was filled from the gallery to the back door, in glowing tribute to his work.

(Continued from front page) Fifty thousand dollars in matching funds was established by the 1969 General Assembly, providing the interested parties would raise $50,000.00 on or before June 30, 1971. This has been done, and we now have $100,000.00 on the proposed construction and equipment of the proposed chapel, which is short $150,000.00 of the total amount necessary for complete construction and equipment. Therefore, we are now extending the drive for the balance necessary for job completion.

The 1971 General Assembly is being asked for an additional $85,000.00. A selected Foundation is being asked for $50,000.00. If the amounts requested above are reduced, the $15,000.00 necessarily will be increased accordingly. The responsibility to raise this amount will fall first to the Federation of Negro Women's Clubs of the State, the Advisory Committee of the State Juvenile Commission, other organizations, and individuals to whom requests will be forwarded. We hope that additional assistance may be received from the Churches, Sunday Schools, and other religious, social and political groups. Any amount will be appreciated.

For your convenience, contributions may be sent direct to Mrs. Julia Taylor Treasurer, Dobbs School for Girls Chapel Fund Drive, Mechanics and Farmers Bank, East Hargett Street, Raleigh, N. C. 27601. Appreciation is expressed in advance for your kind consideration of this very important matter.

Soul City

McKissick Enterprises has acquired presently 2,000 of the projected 5,000 acres of land for Soul City.

Harvey E. Gantt, Director of Planning for Soul City discussed future plans. According to Gantt, the government, in 1968, passed a law of guarantee. Under this law, the federal government will guarantee loans to private enterprises of up to 90% of the cost of land development and up to 80% for the acquisition of land. This will enable private sponsors to take part in Soul City without the high risk of failure. The guarantee allows ten years for development of the town. Four other experimental towns have received the guaranty loan. Soul City will hopefully be the fifth. If the guaranty is approved, elevated construction of roads, water, and electricity will begin within four to six months.

Gantt discussed the attraction of Soul City. He noted that Raleigh or possible Durham would have no trouble developing a suburban village due to the fact that the outside town would be able to draw people with the normal propoganda of neighboring shopping centers, theaters, and city services. Soul City, however, is fifty miles from Durham or Raleigh just off highways 1 and 158 near Warrenton. It cannot announce neighboring fringe benefits. Due to this, Soul City will have to be self sufficient. Its major attraction is intended to be its industrial advantages, its high paying jobs, and low cost living. The projected 2400 jobs will hopefully be reached within 20 years. The city will provide 30% of low income housing, other cities of this type furnish a maximum of 10%.

The projected city will offer massive job training programs, therefore, producing economic mobility for its inhabitants. 13,000 housing units are planned in the first 20 year period. The housing units will vary from one-family units to town houses and garden apartments. People of all income brackets will live mixed throughout the complex.

Warren County is in a depressed area, similar to an 'under developed' nation or colony. The growth of Soul City will in many ways parallel the growth of some of the emerging nations and will become an economic asset to the entire region in which it is located.

Gantt expressed the sentiments of the Soul City advertisements. "All indications are that it will be successful. Neither black nor white America can afford to let this, the largest economic undertaking ever attempted by blacks in America, fail.

Projections by top American economist, sociologists, builders, urbanologists and city planners show that there is no question that the development and construction of Soul City is economically feasible and can be overwhelmingly successful."

Twin Nail Appointments Are Haired

WASHINGTON — Congratulations have been extended to President Richard Nixon on the appointment of James E. Johnson to assistant secretary of the Navy for Manpower and Reserve Affairs and Captain Samuel L. Gravely, Jr., to the position of the first black Admiral in the history of the United States Navy.

And in conjunction with the message of congratulations, a request has been made of the President to place a black in Mr. Johnson's vacated spot, as one of the three Civil Service Commissioners.

Robert L. White, president of the predominantly black National Alliance of Postal and Federal Employees, in making such a request with the support of his 45,000 member organizations, has further requested of the President to use the full weight of his office to place more blacks into positions of heads of agencies and bureaus, full secretaries, assistant secretaries and under secretaries.

White reminded the President that while millions of blacks are dying for democracy in Vietnam, millions of blacks employed in federal agencies fail to find democracy working for them.

With Grateful Appreciation And Sincere Thanks!

From
ASA T. SPAULDING, SR.

To my loyal friends, supporters and voters, I wish it were possible for me to see everyone of you personally and express my grateful appreciation and sincere thanks for all your efforts in my behalf, and for your words of encouragement since the election.

I have no regrets over having offered the citizens of Durham my services in the role of leadership as mayor. I did it out of a deep sense of obligation to my city. The voters had a choice. They expressed their preference. I accept their decision gracefully.

I urge all of you to help Mayor Hawkins and the City Council "move Durham forward" in a way that will be beneficial to ALL. This can best be done by "pulling together" toward a common goal.

May God bless everyone of you and all of Durham!

Sincerely,
A. T. SPAULDING
