20,000 Masons Prep for Houston Texas Conclave August 15-20

HOUSTON, Texas — Two colorful parades, tours of historic sites and the Oil City Area, an Egyptian tea, a grand ball, a bridge and whist tournament, a bowling and golf tournament, a scholarship banquet and a salute to Black heroes of the past, including a local Houston citizen, are some of the events that have been scheduled when the Ancient Egyptian Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine of North and South America and Its Jurisdiction, Inc. convenes here August 15-20.

The Shamrock Hilton is the official convention headquarters, and where all business and ceremonial sessions will be conducted.

The fraternal and charitable organization, whose membership complement is composed of Prince Hall Masons, will attract more than 20,000 persons to Houston, including members, their guests, and Daughters of Isis, the Prince Hall Shriners' (as they desire to be known and not as Black Shriners) women's auxiliary.

To accommodate the invading horde, more than 5,000 housing reservations have been made with the Houston vicinity, and extensive plans have been made to welcome them.

I. H. Clayborn of Dallas, Tex., Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Masonic Grand Lodge of Texas, as associate convention coordinator, has announced that "my Brother Prince Hall Shriners will want for nothing while our guests in the Lone Star State. With us, each Prince Hall Shriner is a visiting 'Potentate.' He will be treated as one and he will conduct

Secretary of Commerce Names John L. Jenkins Director OMBE

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Secretary of Commerce Maurice H. Stans today announced the appointment of John L. Jenkins to the position of Director of the Office of Minority Business Enterprise (OMBE).

Jenkins, 43, the highest-ranked black official in the Department of Commerce, has been serving as an Assistant Director in OMBE since May of 1970 heading up its Community Services Division. He succeeds Abraham S. Venable, who resigned to become director of Urban Affairs at General Motors.

In announcing the appointment the Secretary said, "Mr. Jenkins has demonstrated outstanding leadership qualities since joining the Department, bringing with him a valuable and extensive background in the area of corporate business management and operation. I am confident that he will make a significant contribution to the program, and am pleased that he now joins us in our minority enterprise commitment in this new executive capacity."

Prior to joining the Department of Commerce, Jenkins was president of Bill Cosby Foods, Inc., and earlier was an executive officer of several food franchising organizations. Previously he held positions of manager of Ponte Vedra Club, Ponte Vedra, Fla., and manager of Harold Ray Enterprises, Inc., in Nashville.

Jenkins is a native of
