NCCU Eagles Open Football Season Sat., Sept. 18

North Carolina Central University will open its 1971 season at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, September 18, in Durham County Stadium against Elon College of the Carolinas Conference.

N. C. Central Coach George Quiett has a host of veteran Eagles, most of them juniors, ready to test themselves against Elon's forces.

The probable starting lineup for the Eagles will include two freshmen. Washington, N. C., back William Guilford, 170 pounds, 5-11, will probably hold one of the running back slots, along with junior Jefferson Inmon.

The other freshman is defensive end Sam Jones, 6-1, 225 pounds, from Danville, Va.

With Guilford and Inmon

in the backfield will be last year's starting quarterback, Garvin Stone, and fullback Herman Anderson.

The offensive line will include tackles Gordon Armstrong and Bracey Bonham, and guard Thomas Saxon, with the other guard slot still in question. At center will be sophomore James Sneed.

The ends will be Jason Caldwell as wide receiver and many-faceted Mahlon Williams at tight end.

On the defensive line, Coach Quiett anticipates going with Sam Jones at defensive end along with Ron McNeil. Defensive tackles will be Durham's Roy Jones and Charlotte's John Barbee.

The linebackers are Alexander Jones, Van Carver, and Joseph Harrell. Cornerback

4 Players Fined After Brawling

SAN FRANCISCO Four players were fined by the National League Tuesday after the streaking Los Angeles Dodgers and the slipping San Francisco Giants tangled in a beanball brawl. Every man on both clubs was involved—as combatant or pacifier.

The Giants announced league President Charles Feeney ordered fines for pitchers Juan Marichal and Jerry Johnson. The Dodgers reported fines for outfielder Bill Buckner and shortstop Maury Wills. The fine amounts were not disclosed.

It took 20 minutes to restore peace after the fifth inning outbreak Monday night at Candlestick Park, scene of a 1965 brouhaha when Marichal swung a bat at Dodger catcher John Roseboro.

Los Angeles went on to win 5-4 and cut San Francisco's National League West lead to two games.

The teams played Tuesday night in the season's last encounter between the two flag contenders. The Dodgers gunned for their seventh straight victory and also a seventh straight over the Giants, beaten in eight of their last nine games.

Umpire Shag Crawford ejected three players after the fracas that erupted when Marichal hit Bill Buckner with a pitch and Buckner started for the mound with his bat.

As Feeney watched from the press box, every man on both rosters swarmed over the diamond. Some were trying to join the combat, some trying to stop it.

Pitcher Bill Singer had hit Willie Mays in the rib cage in the first inning and Chris Speier on the left arm in the fourth.

In the fifth Marichal tossed two pitches under Singer's chin. Umpire Crawford went to the mound and warned Marichal—an automatic $50 fine.

Marichal then hit Buckner on the elbow with a pitch.

Buckner strode toward Marichal with his bat, but Crawford and catcher Russ Gibson pursued and caught him before he reached the mound.

Shoes

live to be a hundred, you will never punish your whole being by wearing shoes that hurt your footbeds. The risk of a sour stomach, constipation, a brainstorm, an accident to life and limbs is not worth the price one pays for an ill-fitting shoe. As the bus speeds toward home, you relax, cool your feet over the vents of the air-conditioning. Yep! Mama was right "a hard head makes a soft t' other end."

Freezone is for corns that hurt. Absolutely painless. No dangerous cutting, no ugly pads or plasters. In days, Freezone eases the hurt—safety helps ease off the corn. Drop on Freezone—take off corns.

position will be held by Charles Bellinger and Dennis Matthews. Maurice Spencer will play free safety and Charles Bailey will hold down the job of strong safety.

KANSAS CITY Rookie Monty Montgomery pitched six brilliant innings in relief giving the Kansas City Royals a 2-0 victory over Oakland Tuesday night that kept the A's from clinching the American League West Division title.
