SCOUTMASTER'S LETTER TO PARENTS

By E. L. KEARNEY

Dear Parents:

Last Thursday evening I sat in on a troop meeting for our church sponsored by troop 149 at Mt. Zion Baptist Church and had a chance to observe a bunch of guys who made up the troop.

The fellow who was assuming the bad role was Anthony Mitchell, who opened the meeting with the Scout Oath "On my honor I will do my best to do my duty..." I could tell by the way some of these fellows repeated this that the Oath had not yet become a part of them. I could also see that the same words carried a somewhat different significance to me as a man than they did to these boys. For both, it is a pledge not to be taken lightly and not easy to keep.

I saw your son reach down in his pocket and pull out a thin dime and make his way to the scribe where a record was being made of all the dues paid. Most fellows paid, but some didn't. I thought of insisting that the few others pay up too, but then this thought struck me. Isn't that just like an adult? Some do and some don't. About the time I was about to drop the issue mentally, I thought of 1st Timothy 4-12 "Let no man despise the youth, but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity."

When dues were collected and after a few boy like pranks, things settled down again to knot tying. This demonstration of helpfulness is unmatched, where the boys who have advanced to higher ranks, take time out to help others. Then I thought about some of us adults again, when we get up we forget from whence we have come.

Genesis 44-34 - for how shall I go up to my father and the lad not be with me?

Since this meeting was being held in the basement I was able to reflect on another passage of the Scripture, Matthew 19-12-14 "Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them and pray and the disciples rebuked them." But Jesus said suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me for such is the Kingdom in heaven. And at this point I asked myself a question - How many boys could be saved if some deacon, some trustee, or some department head would take time to pat one boy on the shoulders and say "son you will be somebody one day? I then wondered how many times you have said thanks to the Scoutmaster for helping you make a man out of your son.

No possession could be

(adults) can indicate their desire to head boys. Please don't pass up this opportunity. "When we do the best we can, we never know what miracle in wrought in our life, or in the life of another." - Helen Keller.

WIN THAT RAISE

There's more to being a good secretary than typing 50 words per minute... you have to practically organize your boss' life! Here are some tricks to help you win that raise: 1) If he's a chronic coffee-spiller, cover messages with Scotch Magic transparent tape before leaving them on his desk. 2) Label supply boxes with Scotch package sealing tape and magic marker so he'll know what's where when you're out of the office. 3) Does he entertain a lot? List the phone numbers and addresses of the restaurants he frequents near his telephone. 4) Come in with a smile - it never fails!
