BUT FOR the past three Junes the game has drawn more than 40,000 persons in Lubock and the American Football Coaches Association voted once again last weekend to return to the Texas Tech campus next year.

The official temperature at game time was 95 degrees, the blinking sign at the bank around the corner from Jones Stadium read 101 degrees and a thermometer placed on the Astroturf just before kickoff soared to 120 degrees. YET THERE were 42,314 nersons in the stands, the second largest crowd ever to see one of the series.

The heavily favored West committed three major mistakes in the first half - a blocked punt, a fumble and an intercepted pass-and all three led to East touchdowns.

THE FIRST one was scored by Bill Taylor of Michigan, who wound up gaining 92 yards in 17 carries and winning the game's most valuable

Elvin Hayes Is Traded To Baltimore Bullets

HOUSTON ter Elvin Hayes, the leading scorer in the history of the Houston Rockets and one of the top players in the Nat-ional Basketball Association, was recently traded by the Rockets to the Baltimore Bullets for forward Jack Marin undisclosed future considerations.

President Ray Patterson said the considerations had not been determined and they could be either draft choices, existing players or cash.

THE 6-9 HAYES, who averaged 27.4 points a game in his four years with the Rockets, became expendable Houston acquired 6-11
MOORE from the Phoenix Suns last spring.

Hayes was expected to move to forward next year with Moore playing center. THE 6-6 MARIN is one of the best forwards in the NBA, Patterson said. He has an 18.7 point average for his six years in the league, including a high of 22.3 last season. Marin, 27, a graduate of Duke University, led the NBA in free throw shooting last season with an .894 percentage. HAYES, 26, who was three-time All-America at the University of Houston, led the NBA in scoring as a rookie in 1968-69 with a 28.4 aver-

The 'black bomber' who be-gan his boxing career in Manhattan Recreation Department's Highbridge Recreation Center in Washington Heights here, under the direction of Recreation Director Artie Salzman, worked his way up through the golden gloves bouts here in New York. He later transferred to another Manhattan Recreation gym on West 28th St. in this city's old Hell's Kitch-en section.

There he was under the tutorlege of another recreation director, Gil Clancy. Bobby did his homework well and has, since he turned professional in '68, fought in Philadelphia, New Jersey, Portland, Maine, De-troit and he fights regularly out of Sunnyside Gardens in Queens
