

Durham Social Notes Of Interest

Duke Lipscomb and his daughter Miss Hazel Lipscomb of the home were happy to have his daughters and Miss Lipscomb's sisters to spend vacation with them. Mrs. Harry Lewis and daughter S. Lewis of Courtsville Pa., Mrs. Lewis is the former Miss Evelyn Lipscomb. Mrs. Ronie Esey and son Greg of Brooklyn, New York, Mrs. Esey is the former Miss Gazelle Lipscomb, Mrs. Gus Bailey of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Bailey is the former Miss Majorie Lipscomb, Mrs. Edward Clemons and daughter of Pittsburg, Mrs. Clemons is the former Miss Murlde Lipscomb and Miss Wanda Lipscomb who is a rising senior at Bennett College, Greensboro. Miss Hazel Lipscomb is a teacher at Heat Start.

MISS SHEILA BULLOCK

Miss Sheila Bullock a graduate of Hillside High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bullock Sr. of 2418 Anocosta Durham was named to the Dean's List at St. Augustine College Raleigh for the Spring Semester. Miss Bullock is a rising senior and is working very hard trying to graduate in three and half years. Miss Bullock's major study is Sociology and minor in Political Science and is employed this summer as a counselor at Shaw University for the Model City program of Brooklyn New York. Attending St. Augustine's College along with Miss Bullock is her brother Oliver Bullock Jr. who is a rising sophomore. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bullock Sr. also have two other daughters who attended NCCU at Durham. Miss Phyllis Thompson, who was sent to Richmond Virginia for special training by Thalhimers and is now a Junior Executive at Thalhimers in the area of sports wear in Crabtree Valley, Raleigh; and Mrs. Josephine B. Sellers who is manager of the Sign Risk Dept. for Reliance Insurance Co., Durham. Congratulations to each of you, may your future be bright and prosperous.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bass of N. Y. City spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Fannie Rhodes & his aunts Mrs. Mary Bass & Georgia Suitt on Onslow St.

Sympathy to; The late Mrs. Ann Smith May family, the late Annie Stewart Lyons family, the late Frank Richardson family, the late Leroy Samuel family, Mrs. Leroy Samuel & children. To Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Norris & family. He health the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds. Psalm - 147:3

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Justice and children Kirk, and Derick of Hampton Virginia and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Holman and children Debora, Barry and Terry of New Jersey are visiting Mrs. Justice and Mrs. Holman, mother Mrs. Aurelia M. Neal on Milton Rd. Mrs. Mack Justice is the former Miss Ruth N. Neal, and Mrs. Andrew Holman is the former Miss Bessie Neal.

Mrs. Gay Murl Iving have returned to her home in Washington, D. C. after visiting her family Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Gentry Long Ward Rd. Miss Sharon Long accompanied her sister back for a two weeks stay.

Congratulations and best wishes to newly weds Mr. and Mrs. Michael Wayne Dae, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Allen.

Mrs. Margaret J. Parker of Bahama, was confronted with a big surprise when her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hedgepeth and their son Gregory and a friend Andra Parker of Washington, D. C. and her daughter Mrs. Margaret P. Wingfield and children Dexter and Vivica of Greensboro, spent a long weekend with her and their sister Miss Vivian Parker Dexter spent his time with his cousin Anthony Parker, and Gregory and his friend Andra Parker spent their time with his cousin Marcellus Parker. E. J. Hedgepeth spent his time with his brother and family Ford Hedgepeth. E. J. Hedgepeth niece Sandra Hedgepeth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Hedgepeth returned with her uncle & aunt home to spend two weeks.

Congratulations to Mrs. Jewel Merritt Best who received her Master's Degree in Education from Federal City College of Washington. Mrs. Best, I wish you good luck in your future endeavors. Mrs. Edna Alston Royster

Co-ed Attends Regional Meeting Of AKA Sorority

ELIZABETH CITY - Having spent nine weeks of summer study and employment, Miss Vickie Carleen Midgett has about a month's rest before visiting the far-away fiftieth state. The high-ranking Elizabeth City State University senior will visit Hawaii, August 25 - 30.

Vickie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Midgett of Williamston, is one of the top ten regional representatives of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. With a 3.8 academic average, she will represent the mid-Atlantic Region of AKA, at Hawaii.

The former "Miss E. J. Hayes High" in 1969 has been a top ranking student since enrolling at ECSU, which includes being ranked the second highest ranking freshman and the highest ranking sophomore and junior. She is also a member of Alpha Kappa Mu and Kappa Delta Pi honor societies.

Miss Midgett is a Business Education major at ECSU, and has plans to enter graduate school at Howard University or Morgan State College. Her ultimate ambition is to become a Certified Public Accountant.

Farewell Party Held For Mrs. Idora Murchinson

The residence of Mr. & Mrs. T. R. Speight of Barbee Road was the setting for a Bon Voyage party honoring their granddaughter Idora Murchinson, Friday, July 14. The party was given by her aunt Mrs. Lacey Alford of Atlanta, Ga.

Idora left Durham on Sunday, July 16, for New York where she joined other members of the Tour Group accompanied by Mrs. J. B. McLester of Durham. The Tour Group departed Kennedy International Airport on July 17, for London, England.

Countries to be visited during the month long tour are France, Spain, Italy, Monaco, Holland, Austria, Switzerland and Germany. Idora is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Jimmie Manley of Durham.

Birthday Dinner Given Mrs. Ruffin

A surprise birthday dinner was given to Mrs. Patricia Ruffin July 23, Sunday at 1:30 o'clock. Invited guests were Mr. & Mrs. William Addeley, Mr. & Mrs. Thelma Downy, Uncle & aunt of Mrs. Ruffin, Mr. & Mrs. Robert Geer, Mr. & Mrs. Charles Daniel & family of Washington, D. C. who is the brother of Mrs. Patricia Ruffin, Mr. & Mrs. Claude Springs, Harold Smith, Miss Cheryl Ruffin, sister-in-law, George H. Daniel of Washington, D. C., the brother of Mrs. Patricia Ruffin, Miss Vivian Lewis of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Catherine Ruffin, Mr. & Mrs. Jack Marie Mr. & Mrs. Maree McKeller & family.

The menu consisted of fried chicken, ham, macaroni salad, pickled beets, string beans, hot homemade rolls, cake squares, ice cream and punch.

A locked medicine cabinet is the only sure method of keeping inquisitive small children from sampling toxic preparations.

Add salt to the water when boiling eggs. This will keep egg contents from escaping into the water in the event shells crack.

When a parrot moults, save the feathers. Men like them for their hats.

Ernest Hemingway wrote, "The world is a fine place and worth fighting for."

REVIVAL SERVICES TO BEGIN

Revival services will begin on August 6-12th at 7:30 p.m. at the Oak Grove Free Will Baptist Church of 801 Colfax Street, Durham.

Music will be furnished by the church choir.

The Evangelist will be the Bishop M. E. Holmes, who is a dynamic speaker and the pastor of the Miracle Temple of Truth "Church of God in Christ" Chicago, Illinois.

Pastor, Rev. Z. D. Harris.

THE LIFE expectancy of an alcoholic is about 10 to 12 years less than that of the average population, according to the National Institute of Mental Health.

MISS PHYLLIS THOMPSON

Miss. Phyllis Ann Thompson William Gunn Exchange Vows

Ebenezer Baptist Church was the setting for the 5:15 p.m. Saturday wedding of Miss Phyllis Ann Thompson and William Lloyd Gunn. Officiating were the Rev. J. W. Smith, Jr. and the Rev. W. E. Daye.

John H. Gattis was organist, Miss Sherian Davis of Wilmington, was soloist. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus R. Thompson, Sr. of 416 Moline Street. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Gunn of 1005 Gillette Avenue.

The bride wore a gown of silk organza over taffeta with an empire bodice trimmed in Cluny lace. Her silk illusion mantilla was attached to a matching lace headpiece. She carried a Bible topped with carnations.

The mother of the bride wore a peau de soie ensemble of aqua blue with matching accessories and a white corsage. The groom's mother wore an aqua blue crepe with white accessories and a yellow corsage.

Maid of honor was Miss Sandra Pendergraft of Barhamsville, Va., cousin of the bride and matron of honor was Mrs. Gerald Henderson (Estelle Bailey Henderson) of Durham. Attendants were Miss Linda N. Gunn of Washington, D. C. Miss Monika L. Gunn, Miss Fern Gunn of Durham, sisters of the bridegroom, Miss Birdena McIntosh, Mrs. Ivester Bailey (Brenda Brewer Bailey), Miss Lauren Brown of Durham, Miss Calinda Johnston of Macon, Ga., cousin of the bride, Mrs. Arthur Davis (Gloria Alston Davis) of Riviera, Florida, Miss Hilda Hayes of Mullins, S. C., Miss Elida Perry of Boston, Mass., Mrs. Therion Cobbs (Anita Cox Cobbs) of Atlanta, Ga. and Mrs. Emilio Larrier of New York.

Best man was Marclen L. Gunn of Durham, brother of the bridegroom, J. Reginald Bynum of Durham was the groomsmen. Chief ushers were Augustus R. Thompson, Jr. of Louisville, Ky., brother of the bride and Milton P. Gunn of Durham, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Johnnie P. Battle of Washington, D. C., George E. Evans, Jr. of Baltimore, M.D., cousin of the bridegroom, Harold Pratt of Tuskegee, Al., George Gilmore, Thomas McCoy, Joseph Barnes, Leroy Pegray, and Samuel D. Morrison, Jr. of Durham.

Children in the wedding were Stephanie King of Washington, D. C. cousin of the bride and Gerald Henderson II of Durham.

The ceremonies concluded with the bride and groom's devotional presentation of a long stemmed red rose to both mothers.

A reception was held at the church.

The bride is a graduate of Johnson C. Smith Univ. where her sorority was Delta Sigma Theta. The bridegroom graduated from North Carolina Central University and is employed by North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance of Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunn will spend their honeymoon in Montego Bay, Jamaica. The wedding arrangements were conducted exclusively by John H. Gattis.

Two NCCU Graduates Honored For Outstanding Achievement

GREENSBORO - Two graduates of North Carolina Central University in Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny B. Hodge Jr. of Greensboro, have been individually honored for outstanding achievement in a nationwide selection.

Hodge, a band leader for the Greensboro public schools and for Greensboro college, was named to the 1972 volume of "Outstanding Young Men of America." Mrs. Brenda Hodge was named to appear in the 1972 edition of "Outstanding Elementary Teachers of America."

Selections for both publications are made by a board of former national presidents of the Jaycees. Hodge was nominated by the Rev. Joseph Bethea, a United Methodist minister and an instructor at Duke University. Mrs. Hodge was nominated by Calvin Morrow, principal of Greensboro's Murphey Elementary School, where she teaches.

Neither knew of the nominations until they learned they had won.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodge both received B. A. degrees in music from N. C. Central. They met at the Durham institution and married after graduation.

Hodge, who is working toward his doctorate in music, has led several bands which received superior ratings at state contests. In 1966 he was awarded a gold plaque for organizing and conducting the Jackson Junior High Honor Band. His Smith High School Stage Band recently completed a northern tour.

Mrs. Hodge holds an M. E. degree from UNC-G, and has trained at the Seawell School in Chapel Hill and at the North Carolina Leadership Institute in Greensboro. Her co-workers have nominated her four times as an "Outstanding Young Educator."

By United Press International Take short breaks while doing housework. Janet Wilson, of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Extension Service, recommends a 10-minute break per hour rather than going at chores for three hours and then taking a 30-minute break.

13th Anniversary Of Mt. Vernon Floral Club

The Mount Vernon Baptist Church Floral Club, observed its thirteenth anniversary July 23 at 4:00 p.m. Mrs. Luetta Sims presided.

Music was rendered by the Chapel Choir, Mrs. Blanche Davis serves as president and Jesse McCrite is the pianist. The program was continued by president and Jesse McCrite is the pianist. The program was continued by scripture reading by Mrs. Fannie Jones and Joseph Langley offered prayer. Deacon S. L. Fennel brought greetings and the history was given by Mrs. V. M. Faulk. Guests included Mount Zion Floral Club and the Oak Grove Floral Club.

The speaker for the occasion was Dr. Willmina Davis. She was presented and introduced by Mrs. A. W. Pearce. All were challenged by her speech which pointed up that if we as Christians would make our lives as a beautiful flower, the world would be a better place in which to live.

Others on the program were Mrs. Margaret Adams, King D. Brown, Ernest Henry and Mrs. Elnora Arrington.

Honoree was Edward Hayes - 90 years young. Words of appreciation was given by Mrs. Josephine Brown, Club president. Final remarks were offered by the minister, Dr. Percy L. High.

Nurses Club Held Monthly Meeting July 19th

The Nurses Breakfast Club's monthly meeting was held at the Holiday Inn, Chapel Hill Street, July 19th at 9 a.m. The president Mrs. L. McCoy opened the meeting with Rev. Mrs. Sims giving invocation. Reports of all committees were given and received. Social committee chairman gave out tickets for the contest and the time of the picnic given for Duke Park. Other business was discussed and projects.

Birthdays celebrated were Rev. Mrs. E. Sims, T. Smith, Madams L. McCoy, G. Pretty and N. Poole. Cards were given to each one and Happy Birthday sung by all.

Present were Madams L. McCoy, G. Pretty, N. Poole, E. Sims, R. Days, P. N. Church, L. Sims, T. Lynch, C. Scott, L. Swinson, A. Black, J. Miller, Mr. T. Smith, Misses O. Rogers, R. Brown, H. Howard, Madams K. Evans, M. Thompson, G. Richardson, M. Gattis, S. Thompson; E. George, C. Watson and A. Jones.

Absent were Mrs. Margaret Howard in hospital. Mrs. F. Revels, G. Robinson, B. Snipes and A. Ingram. Mrs. P. Nuchurch and Mrs. Ethel Sims was hostesses to a wonderful breakfast.

The Norwoods Return From Trip To Hiwahi

Mr. & Mrs. Moses Norwood of 1916 Cecil Street returned home last Monday from Honolulu, Hawaii. While in Honolulu they visited the University of Hawaii, the International Market place, a cruise to Pearl Harbor and attended two Island Native Stage Dinner Shows.

Enroute they visited relatives in Altadena, California. On the fourth of July they visited Disneyland and the firework festivities at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena.

On their return from Honolulu to Los Angeles, they visited Hollywood, Ocean City, San Clemente, San Diego and Tijuana, Mexico. Their flight from the West Coast took them to New York where they visited other relatives in Morristown, New Jersey and then on home to Durham. They enjoyed a beautiful vacation.

MISS CATHERINE D. WILLIAMS

Williams And La Bohne Said Vows In Enfield

ENFIELD - Waymen A. M.E. Church was the setting Saturday, July 29, for the wedding of Miss Catherine Drunay Williams to Carl Stephen LaBohne. Mrs. LaBohne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie H. Williams of Enfield. LaBohne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Neilson LaBohne of Philadelphia, Penn.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Rev. George W. Dudley, assisted by Father Clyde E. Beatty, was the officiating minister.

Wedding music was presented by Lawrence Cooper, Steve McQueen and Miss Alma Bethea.

The bride chose an elegant gown of custom-made silk organza and Venice lace. The Solitaire neckline and fitted bodice was accented by bishop sleeves with deep cuffed lace and tiny buttons. The full circular skirt gave the bride the total look with her formal mantilla of English silk illusion, edged with a Venice lace border. She carried a cascade of orchids with miniature mums and stephanotis.

Miss Carol Daniels was maid of honor and Mrs. Debra H. Sweet was matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were: Miss Renee Wilkins, Mrs. Wanda Williams, Miss Cynthia Jones, Miss Esther Boyer, Miss Sheila Holmes, Miss Geneva Williams, Miss Marlene Daniels, Miss Hilda Smith, and Mrs. Yvonne D. Bryant. Karla Soloman was junior bridesmaid and Vonnie Williams was flower girl.

The honor attendants wore dresses of orchid chiffon with a sonop ruffle neckline and high rise bodice with a floral ribbon belt falling into a sweep-back effect. Their head-dresses were horse hair picture hats trimmed with orchid illusions streamers. They carried nosegays of pink mums with orchid streamers. The other attendants wore similar attire and carried similar nosegays.

Eric LaBohne was best man and ushers were Peter LaBohne, Dewight Custis, Frank Harrison, Robert Simpkins, Raymond Cautorn, Andrew Huston, Edwards Francis, Harold Williams, Estee Williams, and Gerald Williams. Terry Knight was junior usher and Avery Williamson was ring bearer.

Mrs. LaBohne is a graduate of Saint Augustine's College and plans to begin graduate work at Morgan State University. LaBohne is also a graduate of Saint Augustine's. He is an accountant with Humble Oil Company in Baltimore.

Following a wedding trip to Montego Bay, Jamaica, the couple will reside in Baltimore, Maryland.

Miss Carol Daniels and Mrs. Yvonne D. Bryant entertained the bride at a miscellaneous shower on Wednesday evening July 26, at the Waymen Community Club. More than thirty guests were present.

The parents of the groom, Mr. & Mrs. Neilson LaBohne, entertained the bridal party and friends at a beautiful dinner at the Carlton House following the rehearsal Friday evening. More than fifty people were present for this love-

Continued on page 7A

Rambling With Mrs. Virginia Alston

College View Nursery School will open for new registration Monday August 28th at 7:30 a.m. Regular schedule will resume at that time.

Tau Gamma Delta Sorority, Inc. will hold its 27th Boule beginning August 7th through the 12th at the Los Angeles Hilton with Mu Chapter as hostess. The sorority is a service organization for business and professional women. Services are rendered through national and local projects and scholarships to worthy students. Following the Convention trips have been planned to Mexico, Las Vegas, and Hawaii.

A large delegation is expected from all regions.

Mrs. Mary L. Brooks and daughter, Maria Lynette, recently visited Florida's Disneyland. They traveled via chartered Trailways with other Guys and Dolls groups throughout North Carolina.

Canadian physician Sir William Osler said, "Tact is the saving virtue without which no woman can be a success."

$19

for the look you want... the comfort you need...

Rescoe Griffin Shoes

114 W. MAIN ST.