"Better Home And Garden Club Meets"

On September 23rd at 7:00 p.m. the Better Homes and Garden Club met after a summer vacation at the home of Mrs. Lewis Vereen, 506 Cecil Street. Devotions were The Lord's Prayer in unison and a song "In The Garden" led by Mrs. Mildred Smith. The business of the evening was reports of the Federation of Garden Clubs Convention which was held in Raleigh at Sir Walter Hotel August 6, 7 and 8. Mrs. Ella Brown, the president, gave highlights on the convention. Mrs. Beulah Hill also attended. Miss Sheryl Chavis, president of the Jr. Good Deeds Garden Club, also gave an inspiring report on the convention. Other members of the Jr. Club attending the Convention: Miss Althea Hill, Catherine Arnette and Lila Renee Page.

 After the business and reports the hostess, Mrs. Carrie Vereen, served a delicious repast to the following: Gardeners Ella Brown, Miss Sheryl Chavis, Beulah Hill, Louise Jenkins, Catherine Page, Mildred Smith and Mary Taylor. Everyone thanked the hostess for a most enjoyable evening.

 lots police efforts to halt through traffic on two residential streets are unclear.
 As a result, Arbuckle released 12 motorists Friday who had been charged with violating signs saying "road closed—local traffic only."
 If convicted, the motorists would have been fined $16 and been assessed two points on their driving record with the state Department of Motor Vehicles. Such points often increase insurance premiums.
 Arbuckle said he doesn't object to police restricting traffic near construction, but he said a motorist doesn't know if the restrictions apply during the day only, or only if equipment and workmen are on duty.
