THE WIND AND SPIRIT

Who is able among us to pinpoint all of the divine workings of God's Holy Spirit? Although our Father reveals quite a bit to men about the spirit, there is much we should attempt to learn.

God's revelations to men are likened unto one who uses his sewing machine to fix a garment. The needle in the machine allows the machinist to put one stitch of thread in the garment at a given period of time. Sometimes the machinist works slowly, but there are times when he speeds up his work based on his ability to do a good job. It should be remembered here that the machinist never sacrifices accuracy in his work for speed. Further, the machine places stitches of thread in the garment so fast until human eyes are not always able to see what really takes place. As a matter of importance, the working of God's spirit has always been to quick for human eyes to discern.

We firmly believe that no man past or present has been able to see the wind. One can only, at his best, see the results of the wind. With respect to color, no man has seen the wind because it is crystal clear. There are many claims floating around concerning what man knows about the wind, but no man has seen the wind any more than he has seen God. Someone has claimed that the only animal that has been able to see the wind is a hog, but this is a very poor bit of information to support a claim.

Since a hog does not have the articulation of speech, how does an individual expect to win some betters on this particular claim? Of course, it has never been any trouble for someone to reveal an idea which is false.

Even Jesus made some important points clear to His followers in comparing the wind with the Holy Spirit. The Master of things, both seen and unseen, reveals that one cannot always know from what direction the wind cometh but rather, one can know the wind by the things it moves as it blows. It should be remembered that even a blind man knows that the wind and spirit are in motion because he can feel the presence of both.

He who hath ears to hear—let him hear.

This Is The Way It Is

By E. L. KEARNEY

A newly wed husband overheard his wife telling her friends that he was a model husband. He looked up the word "model" in the dictionary and found that it meant "A small imitation of the real thing."

Speaking of the way it is in Scouting today, in our black community, I am afraid that if we do not get up and start moving now, we are going to wake up too late to catch up.

Twenty three Cub Packs, some real good, some better than others, and some in bad shape cannot serve all the black boys ages 8, 9, 10 years old adequately. Twelve Boy Scout Troops will not serve all of our Boy Scout Age Group, neither can 3 Explorer Posts serve our young men and women 15 through 17 years of age. Therefore, we have a Model Boy Scout Program here in our community, that is, a small imitation of the real thing.

We need more Packs, Troops, and Posts. We need more boys in existing units, and we need more Manpower, but we have not overlooked a need for Quality programs. Do you know that we have some Cub Packs that have never had a Pack meeting?

Would you believe that some Scoutmasters have never seen a summer camp? Do you know that some Packs, Troops and Posts go from year to year without imagine a better cutting hair without any training. Would you select a contractor to build your home who did not have the proper know-how?

Yet we have some leaders, not many, who have not seen fit to prepare themselves to really lead our boys and young men.

We need more boys in Summer camp. At camp, every day is filled with healthful, exciting adventures that he really likes. Hiking, swimming, boating, nature lore, fishing, crafts, campfires, special program events and lots of free time activity. In addition to his own leaders, there is a full time trained camp staff to see that it all happens.

Again, J. W. Carrington is taking a week off to be with your son, again he is using the facilities at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church for briefings and orientation of boys and parents. These meetings are scheduled for June 14, June 28, and July 19. All are set for 7:00 p.m. sharp.

Dates to remember Court of Honor, Sunday, June 2, 5:30 p.m. Mt. Gilead Baptist Church. Please come in large numbers. Cub Leader's Roundtable June 13, 7:30 p.m. R. N. Harris School.

Yates Baptist Association Sponsors Literacy Workshop

The Yates Baptist Association will sponsor a Literacy Teachers Workshop on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, June 10, 11, and 13, 1974 from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. and from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

According to the 1970 Census, there were 6,375 functional non-reading adults in Durham County. These are adults who have completed less than 5 years of school.

The Yates Baptist Association is sponsoring a program for helping the non-readers with the above listed workshops both day and evening at the Durham Memorial Baptist Church, located at 2703 Holloway Street.

The Yates Assn. invites anyone who may be interested in working with Adult non readers to attend one of the workshops. The purpose of the Workshop is two-fold; to teach techniques of instruction and to give the worker an understanding of the frustrations, anxieties and fears of the Adult non-reader.

Materials for the training sessions and for teaching the non-reader will be available through the Yates Baptist Association. The Association is interested in training the worker, and in locating the non-reader who has a desire to read, and bringing the two together in a meaningful "One-to-One" teacher-pupil relationship.

Any person who is interested in learning to read is invited to call the Yates Baptist Assn. at 489-3396 Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Won't you come and aid in this meaningful effort to help upgrade the non-reading adults' skills?
