Says Federal Advertising Dollar Distribution Branded as Racism

SAN FRANCISCO—Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett, president of the National Newspaper Publishers Association and editor-publisher of the San Francisco Sun-Reporter, wired President Nixon last week protesting the placement of Defense Department advertising in the white media and denying it to the Black Press.

The message reads: "Mr. President: The 7-column, 17-inch, Army Opportunities ads appearing currently in the White Metropolitan Daily Press are the most blatant examples of economic racism perpetrated by an insensitive national administration against the Black Press of America."

"How can the Executive Branch of our National Government enforce equal economic opportunity statutes when the Federal Government permits its Defense Department to openly discriminate against the sole Black-owned communications medium of 25 million Black Americans, a people more numerous than the populations of 157 other nations?" "The expenditure of Federal advertising dollars without observing an equitable advertising policy is the gravest form of institutional racism and economic criminality. We demand that the Defense Department be forced to obey the Equal Economic Opportunity statutes and its fair minorities procurement policies."

Broadcast Bill Passed by House, Now Pending Before the Senate

Television is the most powerful means of communication today and white broadcasters often give the impression that they are determined that Blacks will not share in this power.

Power, in a capitalistic society, usually is equated with ownership and the money it represents. By that yardstick, it is devastating to realize that not one of the nation's 697 commercial television stations is presently owned by Blacks or even has a substantial minority ownership interest.

Only 25 of almost 7,000 radio stations are controlled by Black owners

And the Broadcast Establishment wants to keep it that way. Broadcasters are trying to push through the U.S. Congress the "Broadcast License Renewal Act" (H. R. 12993), which in its present form would destroy forever the possibility of Blacks gaining access to the media.

The bill was recently passed by the House by an overwhelming majority vote. If (See TELEVISION Page 7A)

Treasury Dept. Bureau of the Mint Appeals For Penny Return

Final Plans Are Underway For New DC Bldg.

The Architect for the student union building is Kenneth McCoy Scott, Durham, and the Contractor is (See BUILDING Page 7A)

"I'm calling on every American, especially young people, to get the penny back in circulation, and keep it there," Mrs. Mary Brooks, Director of the Mint, said today.

"I'm calling on the banking industry to welcome the return of pennies during the month of June. I'm urging schools, churches, charities, retail establishments and others to examine ways and means to involve their members in collecting pennies for deposit."

The price of copper has retreated, closing at $1.10 per pound on May 24. There will be no aluminum penny. The 62 billion pennies produced during the past 15 years have no numismatic value and because of the huge mintage they will never attain great value.

Nevertheless, speculators and hoarders of pennies have (See PENNY Page 7A)

NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION URGES High Court To Require Hearings In Student Suspensions

WASHINGTON—The National Education Association has asked the U.S. Supreme Court to require hearings in student suspension cases. Now before the Court is a suit involving suspension of Columbus, Ohio, students following a racial disturbance. NEA declared that "students, like all other members of our society, have a right to fair treatment as required by the due process clause of the Fourteenth Amendment."

The Court's decision, the brief notes, will have significant impact on which procedural rights will be made available to students threatened with expulsion or suspension in the years ahead. In 1971 a special NEA task force produced a code of 'student rights and responsibilities detailing procedural rights for students threatened with an expulsion or suspension for longer than one day.

The brief emphasizes that what is at issue in the court case is not a school administration's right to suspend students when the circumstances are appropriate, but only its right to suspend (See HEARING Page 7A)
