MAN AND WOMAN ARE SLAIN HERE SATURDAY

WORDS OF WISDOM

Let us believe neither half the good people tell us of ourselves nor half the evil they say of

The difference between a conviction and a prejudice is that you can explain a conviction without getting angry. -Anonymous The Carolina Times THE TRUTH UNBRIDGED."

DURHAM, N. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 1974

GOOD READING IN THIS ISSUE

DURHAM SOCIAL NOTES FROM BLACK

DOWN TO BUSINESS

By John Hudgins WRITERS FORUM By George B. Russ A POTPOURRI OF RECENT EVENTS By G. Russ By The Roving Reporter THEATRICAL WORLD

PRICE: 20 CENTS

By Mrs. Syminer Days

By Dr. B. C. Burrell

Mrs. Louise T. McCrea Passes Tuesday After An Extended Illness

North Carolina Mutual Vice President and Corporate Secretary Louise Thompson McCrea died June 18, in Durham at the age of 55 after an extended illness.

Mrs. McCrea is a native of Salisbury, she graduated from Durham's North Carolina College (now University) with a degree in business. After graduation, in June of 1940, she began working as secretary to the Vice President and Secretary of Southern Fidelity Mutual Insurance Company in Durham.

Four years later, in 1944, first woman in the company's Louise began her influential Carolina Mutual as a Corporate Secretary, another one year later she was named Chief Clerk and, in January of 1952, she became the first woman to serve as an NCM department manager. Later the same year, she was appointed Administrative Assistant in the Office of the Secretary, a position she held until she was appointed Assistant to the Secretary in 1957. Three years McCrea held a pre-eminent later she was named Assistant Secretary again the history to hold the post. In thirty year career with North 1967 she was elected stenographer in the company's "first." Finally, in 1971, Mrs. Industrial Department. By McCrea was elected a Vice 1950 she had advanced to the President of North Carolina position of Acting Chief Clerk, Mutual, the second woman to

VOLUME 51 - No. 25

In her position as Vice President and Secretary of the institution in the world, Mrs. place among women in black-managed firms. She is

Man Charged With Murder

Thomas J. Walker, 31, of 1410 Faye Street was brought back to Durham Tuesday to face murder charges concerning the Saturday slaying of his wife, Dorothy J. Walker, 24, and another man, Earnest Scott, Jr., of 2206 E. Main Street.

Walker surrendered to Baltimore, Maryland police after having fled there Saturday following the Police were alerted to the shooting, which occurred at Guthrie Street. She had been shot in the back while running from Scott's house to the house next door. She was helped inside by William Ricky Hamilton. According to police reports, 10:00 a.m. Saturday, when they received an anonymous telephone call. Upon reaching the scene, officers found Mrs. Walker lying on a counch at 101 S.

2206 E. Main Street around

Mrs. Walker appeared to be (See CHARGED Page 6A)

Durham NAACP Declares All Out War On Nick Galifianakis

Alexander Barnes, | that they should be brought to president, Durham Branch, NAACP, told a special Human Relations Committee, composed of Dr. Sam Wiley, J. J. Henderson and John Lucas, empaneled to hear the grievances of an Ad Hoc Committee from Durham's East End Area that the housing practices, allegedly used by former Congressman Nick Galifianakis and defeated by Bob Morgan for the U.S. Senate, in the recent primary, smell to the high heavens and the attention of everyone.

Barnes alleged that there seemed to be collusion on the part of quite a few agencies and persons. He made this dedclaration after having been told by J.W. Becton, director, Human Relations Commission that he did not know that the affected persons had a grievance until about 5 p.m., Tuesday, when he learned that the NAACP was going to intervene.

(See NAACP Page 6A)

MRS. LOUISE MCREA listed in the English Edition (1974-75) of Who's Who of American Women. She was pursuing courses in Administrative Management and Personnel Administration leading to the designation of 'Fellow" in the Life Management Institute. In announcing Mrs. McCrea's election to the position of Vice President in 1971, then President Joseph W. Goodloe stated "Mrs. McCrea's career

Self-Reliance For Black Countries Goal Of 6th Pan African Congress

Over 200 Black Delegates From U. S. and Canada Are Expected

Mr. Ali, a junior in journalism at Howard University, is editor of the Hilltop, the student newspaper. He will be reporting on the Congress and on conditions in several African countries ove the next six weeks. Mr. Ali is a native of San Diego, Calif.

DAR ES SALAAM-The 6th Pan African Congress, the first since 1945, convened here Wednesday, the 19th, in this beautiful East African capital, and will continue until the 27th.

Excitement is running high here as diplomats and delegates from throughout the world check into the hotels for what may be one of the most important meetings of black people in this century. Over 200 black delegates from the United States and Canada are expected.

The sessions are being held at the University of Dar Es Salaam. The theme is: "Where

Do We Go From Here?" This is a topic long advance by (See DELEGATES Page 6A)

(See McCREA Page 6A) Ex-Durhamite T.D. Parham Has Seen Lot Of Changes In Navy

just awarded a Ph.D. in Sociology by the American University in Washington, D.C., Navy. Changes he is rightfully proud of because he participated directly in helping bring many of them to reality.

For almost 30 years, Captain T. D. Parham Jr., has been administering to the religious needs of Navy men and women, has seen three wars come and go, and has to the spiritual needs of men contributed significantly to the impetus that has resulted in are much greater." today's "People-oriented"

But for Chaplian Parham the fun has just begun. "I can't think of any career more interesting and diverse for a minister than that of a Navy chaplain," he said. "I'll stay in this outfit as long as I possibly can. The responsibility is great but the rewards of ministering and women at sea and ashore

Chaplain Parham however, have not been limited to those of the pulpit. In 1967, he became Special Assistant to the Chief of Naval Personnel for the Science of Human Relations. In this assignment, Chaplain Parham had a direct and persuasive voice in forming (See PARHAM Page 6A)

FORMER DURHAMITE CONDUCTS SERVICES-Navy Chaplain (Captain) T. D. Parham Jr., recently awarded a Ph.D. in Sociology from American University in Washington, D.C. conducts Sunday services at St. Paul's church, Naval Training Center, Bainbridge, Md. Other Picture Page 6A) choose to respond.

TAKES PART IN FLAG DAY CEREMONIES-Home run King Hank Aaron, of the Atlanta Braves, takes part in Flay Day ceremonies on the floor of the House of Representatives in Washington on June 13. In background is House Speaker Carl Albert. Aaron was claimed as an honorary New Yorker at an official welcoming ceremony attended by more than 800 city officials, sports figures and fans in New York this week. He talked with Mrs. Babe Ruth and Mrs. Lou Gehrig during the festivities.

Henry (Hank) Aaron Number 1 Recipient Of Fan Mail For '73

Henry Aaron, the Atlanta Braves home run king, today, Thursday, June 13, was named America's No. 1 recipient of fan mail in 1973 by the United States Postal Service.

Postmaster General E. T. Klassen presented Aaron, during a brief ceremony in Washington, D.C., with a plaque which read: "Henry Aaron America's No. 1, Home Runs 723, Fan Mail (1973) 900,000."

According to a survey conducted by the Postal Service, Aaron received a total of approximately 900,000 fan letters during 1973. The figure was supplied by the Atlanta Braves club.

In its survey, the Postal Service asked Professional: sports or anizations, the three major television networks, motion picture companies, television production companies and fan mail organizations, to submit the approximate amounts of mail their top personalitites each received. Some who were invited to participate did not Aaron proved to be the these personalities received winner, far and away. Other top letter recipients were television personalitites Dinah Shore and Johnny Carson and football stars Joe Namath of the New York Jets and O. J. Simpson of the Buffalo Bills.

The amount of mail each of ranged from a high of 60,000 letters to 27,375. Only unsolicited letter mail counts were sought in the Postal Service's survey. Following is a listing of the top letter recipients and the (See AARON Page 6A)

NUL Wash. Head Declares Black Economic Progress Often Illusory

spokesman for the National Urban League said today that apparent economic progress for blacks has often been illusory and disproportionate. Ronald H. Brown, Director of the League's Washington Bureau told a Lexington, Ky. audience that in many instances black gains were near meaningless when measured against the progress of the remainder of the population.

Speaking on "Black Progress; Myth or Reality" at the Fifth Annual Dinner of the WASHINGTON-A Urban League of Lexington-Fayette County (Ky.), Brown traced the social and economic progress of American minorities from 1944 to the present. Calling Gunnar Myrdal's book, An American Dilemma the single most important influence on America's feeble efforts to grant true equality to all its citizens, he depicted the plight of blacks 30 years ago, and then compared that era with 1954, 1964, and 1974.

The period from 1954 to (See NUL HEAD Page 6A)

Black Enterprise Salutes Local Black Firms In Current Issue

By ELVA P. DeJARMON Staff Writer

The June, 1974 issue of Black Enterprise Magazine describes the tremendous growth and development of the nation's leading black businesses, including several of Durham's outstanding black

A special article, written by Pat Patterson, relates particularly how Durham's blake bushave put in decades of consitent effort and with three successive generations of energetic leadership, matched by a few other black enterprises, have made their footprints on the sands of time

The leadership provided by these black business giants have | the window of an older home in economic and political strength and awareness that diligence to the task and training will continue to keep these black businesses among the leading business forces of the future in our country.

North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance is headquartered in our city as most local persons know. It is now operating in its spacious, new and most imposed.

This writer well remembers that brisk Arpil day in 1966 when former Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey delivered the principal address at the dedication ceremonies amidst the blooming jonquils and crowds of prideful citizens. The excitment of a man standing at paid off and is still paying off | where the Downtowner Motel stand is recalled also. It must be remembered that our country had just witnessed the assassination of its president John Kennedy and great precautions had to be taken then as now.

Vice President Humphrey's appearance in this business tobacco and educational center was shared by all population segments of Durham and from many areas of the surrounding states. The little and the great blacks and whites the sight of such a huge interracial crowd was possibly unparalled for those times.

Most blacks are aware or should be aware that these great black businesses were (See ENTERPRISE Page 6A)

B. B. King And Mayor Evers To Host Second Tribute To Medgar

On Thursday evening, June 27, B. B. Kirg will again join Fayette (Miss.) Mayor Charles Evers a co-host of the second annual "Mississippi Homecoming" tribute to slain civil rights leader Medgar Evers and headline the evening's concert, it was announced this week by Sidney A. Seidenberg, manager of the ABC/Dunhill recording artist.

Mayor Evers said that other performers scheduled to appear on the 7 p.m. show in the City Auditorium at Jackson include Tryone Davis, the Chambers Brothers, Rev. Cleophus Robinson, Little Milton, William Bell, Milton Bradley, Billy Cee and the Brown Sugars, Robert Earl Jones and James Earl Jones. Dick Gregory will m.c. the program and Joe Lewis of WOKJ Radio will be the producer.

The June 27th concert cluminates two days of events starting in Fayette at Noon on Wednesday the 26th on the grounds of the recently completed Medgar Evers Comprehensive Health Center and the Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Park with live entertainment from local bands and music ensembles. There will also be swimming contests pony rides, games and community piente. On We dnesday evening guests, performers and members of the press will be entertained at the Fountain Lounge, Highway 61 North.

A brief me orial service at Jefferson Junior High School is