

Durham's Social Notes Of Interest

MRS. SYMINER DAYE Telephone 477-3370

CLUB SPONSORS FASHION SHOW

The Russell Extension Homemakers held their annual fashion show recently at the Russell Community Center on St. Mary's Road. Models were club members and persons from the Russell community. The winners were divided into two categories: casual-tots, teenage and adults-and-dressy-tots and adults.

The casual winners were: Tots-Shelia Cates and Kim Parker; Teenage-Wanda Harris and Aquilla Parker, Adults-Margaret Umstead and Pearl Holman. The dressy winners were: Teenage-Noland Riley and Lerta Lunsford, Adult-Berma Dunnegan and Carrie Parker.

All participants received ribbons and souvenirs, and the winners received cash prizes.

Narrator was Mrs. Pauline Parker and the judges were Mrs. Bernadette Watts, Mrs. Mildred Cates and Miss Doretha Harris.

The fashion show was sponsored by the project committee of the club. Mrs. Pauline Parker is chairwoman of the committee and members are Mrs. Frances Harris and Mrs. Juanita Shaw.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the affair and the garments modeled were all handmade. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served afterwards.

Mrs. Pearl Holman is president of the club.

VISITS IN DURHAM

Mrs. Barbara A. Bell of Suitland, Md. recently spent the weekend visiting Miss Doris Dunnegan. Miss Dunnegan lives on Front St. in Durham.

SINCERE SYMPATHY

Heartfelt and sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Booker DeVaughn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Jones, Jr. and family of the late Mrs. Effie Cotton.

"In my distress I cried unto the Lord, and he heard me." Psalm 120:1.

CLASS OF '62 MEETS

The class of 1962 from the former Little River High School met on Saturday night, July 13th, in the Matador Motor of the Downtowner Motor Inn to celebrate their 12th year reunion.

The evening began with a cocktail hour. This gave members a chance to greet each other. With Bennie Bullock presiding, we paused a moment to remember our deceased classmates, Mrs. Rose Hamlet and Miss Gladys Bailey, with a silent prayer. Then each class member introduced his or her mate and friends present.

Afterwards, we all sat down to a most delicious steak dinner. As the evening moved on, some danced to the latest rock tunes while others sat around remembering our teachers and old school days. We would like to thank Lindsey Riley for the use of his stereo component set.

The evening was one we will always remember. Our thanks to Mrs. Janie Wilson, Mrs. Beryl Riley, Mrs. Lois Boone and Miss Sarah Parrish for their help in making the final preparations, and thanks to all classmates and invited guest for a fun-filled, enjoyable evening. LRHS CLASS OF 1962.

BEST WISHES

Congratulations and best wishes to newly-weds: Mr. and Mrs. Vernon McDougald, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Edward Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lee, and Mr. and Mrs. Shuler Edward Chamberlain. Mrs. Chamberlain is an employee at Lincoln Community Health Center, Mrs. Lee is the former Claudette Lipscomb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maceo Lipscomb, Jr., and Mrs. Parrish is the former Miss LeWanda Ruth Weeks, granddaughter of Mrs. Arnetta Lewis of Cain Rd.

RETURNS HOME

Miss Martha Lawson of Denfield St. has returned home after spending a few days with her Aunt Essie in Orange, N.J.

HOLD REVIVAL

Revival service was held at Red Mountain Baptist Church in Rougemont, July 15-19. Rev. Nealie Harvey is pastor. Rev. A. L. Thompson of First Calvary Church was Evangelist for the week. Other ministers present were Rev. Vader Johnson, Rev. E. W. Johnson, and Rev. Ingram.

PRAY FOR THE SICK AND SHUT-INS EVERYWHERE

Mrs. Viola Hunter, Mrs. Lona Parker, Mr. Sam Parker, Mrs. Amelia Hester, Mr. Sammie Parker, Mr. Ben Mitchell, Mrs. Bessie Jones, Mr. Percy Peaks, Mr. Nathaniel Thomas, Mr. Robert Long, Mrs. Maud Lucas, Mr. Roosevelt McEachern, Mrs. Lucenda Parrish, Mr. Harvey Tilley, Mr. Ellis D. Jones, Sr., Mr. Claiborne Tapp, Sr., Mr. Odie Pettiford, Mr. Booker DeVaughn, Mr. Joseph Wade, Mr. Bill Carrington, Mrs. Margaret Jackson, Mrs. Novella Latta, Mrs. Mary Allison, Mrs. Annie (Dept) Mack, Mrs. Arlene Hedspeth, Mrs. Rosa Johnson, Mrs. Mary Glenn, Mrs. Roumelia Mangum, Mr. Sam Ruck Burton. "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help." Psalm 121:1.

DAY CARE GRADUATION

First Presbyterian Day Care Center is having a graduation exercise July 30 at 7:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The public invited.

SCHOOL CAR WASH

The beginning school of Body and Mind of Durham, is RETIREMENT DINNER AT VILLA—Mrs. Amanda J. Freeman Garris (L) was honoree of a retirement dinner in Kings Hall Number One of the Royal Villa in Raleigh on July 13. Mr. and Mrs. John L. Stewart, Durham, were host and hostess for the dinner.

Mrs. Garris Honored At Retirement Dinner

Mrs. Amanda J. Freeman Garris was the honoree at a retirement buffet dinner Saturday evening at the Royal Kings Hall Number One of the Royal Villa in Raleigh. Mr. and Mrs. John L. Stewart Durham, were host and hostess. The dinner was preceded with a fellowship hour, during which the occasion was enlivened with pink champagne. Grace was given by the honoree's brother of Brooklyn, N.Y., John Hartfield.

Prior to working at the Butner Center for the Blind, Mrs. Garris was employed at St. Augustine's College, North Carolina Central University and The U.S. Civil Service in Washington, D.C. In addition to showers of gifts and good wishes from guests at the dinner, she received congratulations from other people in many parts of the United States.

FUTURE BALLET DANCERS—These youngsters attending a dance workshop at Saint Augustine's College, are doing a ballet routine. Left to right: Rolanda Allison, instructor, Carolyn Beatty, and Neva Lewis, pupils.

MISS DOUGLAS

Miss Black Teenage World

DANVILLE, VA.—Miss Chauncey Katrena Douglas, 16

sponsoring a car wash at Bell's American Service Station, 220 W. Lakewood Avenue Saturday July 27 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Donation $2.00 submit ticket.

RETURNS FROM CAPITOL TRIP

Mrs. Hazel McBroom on Price Street flew to Washington, D.C. on Sunday, July 7 to join her brother, Mr. Clovis McCuller and wife.

On July 8, she along with Mr. and Mrs. McCuller drove to Atlantic City, New Jersey where they stayed for 10 days.

Mrs. McBroom returned to Durham Monday, July 16.

year old of Goldsboro, was crowned Miss Black Teenage World before a capacity crowd in the Danville City Auditorium. Miss Douglas was selected by a panel of Judges that included Howard L. Lee, Mayor of Chapel Hill, Dr. Margarite Belafonte Mazique, Washington, D.C. Attorney George Rawlings, Democratic National Committeeman from Virginia, Mr. Michael Hart of Atlanta, Georgia, Dr. Nora Castro of Columbia, South America, and Miss Wilma Matthew, Manager of Public Relations, Danville Chamber of Commerce. Miss Douglas sang the popular Billie Holiday song, "Good Morning Heartache" for her talent presentation.

The new Miss Black Teenage World is an 11th grade student in the Goldsboro East High School. She is a member of the Pep Club and a soloist in the School Choral Group. She's a member of the First African Baptist Church. Her hobbies include bowling, swimming, dancing, and acting. Miss Douglas recently won the Miss Black Teenage World of North Carolina Pageant.

First Runner-Up was Miss Claudette Thompson, Miss Connecticut, Second Runner-Up went to Miss Evelyn Presley, Miss Indiana, Miss Darlene Fifer, Miss Texas, was Third Runner-Up.

ADAMS DURHAM NATIVE'S HUSBAND ELECTED JAYCEE PRESIDENT

The husband of a Durham native has been named the first president of the Eatonville, Florida Black Jaycees, the first black Jaycee organization in central Florida.

Preston Adams, Finance Director of the City of Eatonville, said he was hopeful the new organization would be more than just a club of status, but an organization working for the benefit of the black community.

He is married to the former Ruby McCauley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie McCauley, of 1412 Sedgfield St. Mrs. Adams is presently an elementary school teacher in Maitland, Fla. where the couple resides with their two daughters.

Mrs. Adams and the children are currently visiting her parents.

League Holds One-Day Seminar In Greensboro

Members of the League of Women Voters of North Carolina and their guests will conduct a one-day workshop entitled "To Pass a Law May Not Be Enough." The purpose of the meeting will be to determine strategies for future action by using juvenile justice in North Carolina as the vehicle for that action.

The meeting to begin at 9:30 a.m., July 24, will be held at the Holy Trinity Church, Greensboro. Speakers will include representative David D. Jordan, R. Mecklenburg, Ray Shurling, staff member, Legislative Fiscal Research Division of the General Assembly, Ms. Ann Agran, planner, United Fund of Wake County, and Ms. Barbara Sarudy, Greensboro, board member, League of Women Voters of North Carolina.

Ms. Barbara Smith of Durham, legislative lobbyist for the League, will act as moderator.

MRS. DONALD W. SOSO

G. E. Johnson To Speak At AKA Fla. Convention

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority will hold its 46th biennial convention July 28 through August 2, at the Fontainebleau Hotel, Miami Beach, Florida. Over 2,000 sorors representing chapters from across the nation are expected to attend the six days of business meetings and lectures according to Matellia Grays, outgoing president of the sorority.

Program highlights will include a public meeting Sunday, which will be addressed by John H. Johnson, president of Johnson Publications Incorporated. Johnson will be awarded the Anna Eleanor Roosevelt Medallion of Honor. Monday and Tuesday will be devoted to business sessions, and on Wednesday, George E. Johnson, president of Johnson Products Company will address the convention and receive a Special Achievement Award.

JOHNSON

DURHAMITES RETURN FROM ORIENTAL TRIP

Mesdames Laura Bruce, Omeda Livingstone, Beatrice Burnett and Plassie Harris recently returned from a most delightful and exciting Tour of the Orient. They visited Tokyo, Nikko, Kamakura, Lake Hokone, Kyoto, Japan and Atami, Taiwan, Itami, Osaka, Taipei, Farko George, Thailand, Bangkok, Bali, Dempasar, Singapore, Borneo Kuching, Sibu, Brunei and Hong Kong. They returned by way of Francisco and Los Angeles. They were away thirty-four days.

Miss Barbara Smith Weds Sgt. Donald Soso July 13th

Miss Barbara Jean Smith became the bride of Master Sergeant Donald Walter Soso of Lompoc, California, Saturday, July 13. The Rev. Percy L. High performed the ceremony. Mrs. Barbara Daniels was soloist and Mrs. Ruth McCollum was organist.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Von Smith of 404 Cecil Street are the parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Soso of Brooklyn, New York.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a long gown of Ivory silk-organza trimmed with Alencon lace and studded with tiny seed pearls. The gown featured a chapel length train also trimmed with garlands of alencon lace. The matching headpiece featured tiny seed pearls accented by lilly of the valley. She carried a cascade of stepanotis and baby mums centered with a white orchid.

Miss Rosalind L. Gant of Richmond, Va. was maid of honor. She wore a long yellow and green gown of polyester crepe. She carried long stem yellow mum with green ribbon. Best man for the bridegroom was Mr. John Thornton III of Richmond, Va. Ushers were Mr. James B. White, Brooklyn, New York and Mr. Mack White of Durham, Both cousins of the bride. The bride's parents were host at a reception in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The bride graduated from Winston Salem State University. She has been a teacher at Whitcomb Court Elementary School in Richmond, Va. Her husband graduated from Allen Hancock College, Santa Maria, Calif. He is presently serving in the U.S.

Air Force. He has seen duty in Vietnam and Greece. The couple will reside in Lumpoc, California.

Mrs. Clara J. Jones directed the wedding.

Hostesses for the reception were Mrs. Grace A. Cooke, Mrs. Medessa W. Justice, Mrs. Oveta McIntosh, Mrs. Mary T. Taylor, Mrs. Charlotte G. Tucker, Mrs. Frances Walker and Mrs. Lula M. Warner. The catering service was by Mrs. Helen Ballard.

The bride was honored at a Miscellaneous shower on July 3, given by Mrs. David Wiggins of Durham and Mrs. Melvin Black of Nashville, Tenn. at the home of Mrs. Wiggins on Wayne Circle. The bride was presented many lovely gifts. The home was decorated with the shower motif.

The bride's breakfast was given by the honoree's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hess Watkins of Concord Street on the morning of the wedding for all out of town guest and members of the wedding party. The after wedding dinner was given by the bride's parents at their home on Cecil Street following the wedding for all guest, members and friends of the wedding party. Mrs. Lucille Satterfield served as hostess.

A cocktail party was given by Mrs. Oveta McIntosh at her lovely home on Dupree Street following the wedding dinner. The home was beautifully decorated and catering service was by Mr. J. Saunders. The party was attended by out of town guest from New York, Virginia, and California, also member and friends of the city.

Hillside Class of '49 Planning 25th Reunion

The Hillside Alumni Class of 1949 is planning a reunion to celebrate their 25th graduation anniversary, August 30-September 1, at the Downtowner Motor Inn. The Reunion Committee is unable to locate the following persons: Mildred Dawson, Robenia Joyner, Dorothy Lamberth, Bryant Matthews, Mary Walker, William Walker, Dorothy Trice, Earl Johnson, Ada Harvey, Helen James, Donnie McAllister, Eva Robinson, Margaret Hall, Wallace Simpson. Persons knowing how to get in touch with these members of the class of 1949, are asked to contact, the Hillside Class of 1949, P.O. Box 883, Durham 27702.

Searing inflation hurting all segments in Israel.

Nixon is still planning to go to Moscow.

MISS NCCU ALUMNA CONTESTANTS will be modeling fashions at Durham College July 28 at 5:00 P.M. as a part of the Baby Contest Finals. Fashions compliments of Mozella's Boutique.

The contestants pictured left to right are: Mrs. Gwendolyn Phillips, Mrs. Mary Duncan, Miss Vedica Jones, Mrs. Loretta Lipscomb, Mrs. Elizabeth Davis, Miss Ida Page, and Miss Hester Lawson, center. Not pictured is Mrs. Alyceteen Evans.

Miss Margaret Ann Hammie Engaged to Wed in August

The engagement of Miss Margaret Ann Hammie to Mr. William L. Davis, III is announced by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Hammie of Oxford. She graduated from Durham College and is employed by Mutual Savings and Loan Association. William Davis, III is the son of Mrs. Sarah L. Davis of Chadbourn and the late William L. Davis, Jr.

He is a graduate of Howard University and is presently employed by Blue Cross-Blue Shield of North Carolina. The couple plans an August 24 wedding at Mount Zion Baptist Church.

MISS HAMMIE

GREYHOUND VACATION TOURS

Presents
A Weekend In Western North Carolina
AUGUST 17 & 18
INCLUDES

Biltmore Estates, Oconaluftee Indian Village, and "Unto These Hills" Drama
PRICE $53.75 Per Person Double Occupancy

This Tour by Greyhound World Tours

Lic. No. NC 12203

For further information CONTACT:

Mrs. A. T. Bryant
618 Bernice Street
Durham, N.C.
596-7100

Mrs. Gloria McNeill
2302 Nebo Street
Durham, N.C.
682-3691