Sermon of the Week

By GEORGE B. RUSS

MR. & MRS. JOSEPH INGRAM AND GRANDSON

With the amiable Miss Irene Hall, chairman of the Program Committee presiding, the official opening of the Union Baptist Church's Christmas Social Season opened with a big splash, at Durham's Downtowner Motel Saturday, Dec. 7.

It was a cold, rain spattered evening, but the members of the Pastor's Aid Society made the scene in grand-style. The long sweeping dinner-gown in definitely in: gorgeous fur trimmed, gem-studded, shimmering apparel to enhance the festive season.

Dr. Grady D. Davis, pastor, naturally the focal point of attention. He was tardy, however, he brought with him the necessary good-cheer to make the evening its usual gala occasion.

There was carol singing, a warm, friendly welcome from the vice-president, Mrs. Mable Ingram. The one time hostess of the Pastor's Aid Society, has served as vice-president for three years, and has been elected to serve in this capacity in 1975. She has been a member of Union Baptist Church for nearly 28 years. She was very active in church work while her children, Larry, Jesse, Eric and daughter Gail (Mrs. Gail Ingram Hall) were growing up. At one time she was president of the popular UBC Willing Workers, and served as Senior Usher for a number of years. Mrs. Ingram is the wife of Jessie Ingram. The gracious Mrs. Ingram thinks the PS's is a marvelous organization. "We have our problems, but we are Christians and our differences are thrashed out by applying positive Christian principles. Love is the guideline for this fine group of workers striving to do the things pleasing in the sight of God and beneficial to humanity."

A side-splitting introduction to the after dinner speaker was given by Mrs. Josephine E. Turner. The Rev. John L. Caldwell was dubbed the "Flying Preacher."

A heartwarming message was delivered by Rev. Caldwell, Safety, Saving for hard-times ahead and Salvation for making the world a better place was the basis of the young minister's Yuletide Message.

Special presentations were made by Mrs. Elizabeth Edwards, To P.A.'s president, Mrs. Dora Miller, Mrs. Myrtle Haskips, Charles Cameron presented the pastor's Aid Society, Christmas gift to the pastor, Dr. Grady D. Davis. A gift was presented to Rev. J.L. Caldwell by Mrs. Pauline Hart.

The party grew less formal as the evening progressed. Everyone enjoyed gracious hospitality that is typical of the PA's.

Dr. Davis's retinue included: Mrs. Dora Miller president, Mrs. Mable Ingram, vice president, Walter D. Davis, Chaplin, Rev. John L. Caldwell, and family, Mrs. Irene K. Caldwell, Sonja/Sylvia, Mrs. Wilma Milum, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Hasking.
