

South Carolina Vaults To Top In MEAC Race

South Carolina State defeated arch-rivals N.C. A&T and North Carolina Central in a pair of weekend home conference games to vault to the top of the conference standings in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference basketball standings. The Bulldogs, skippered by second-year coach Tim Autry, nipped A&T, 80-78 Friday night and came back in the second half Saturday night to trip North Carolina Central, 81-76 to push their league mark to 3-0. Overall S.C. State, picked to finish in the middle of the seven-team league standings in the pre-season poll, stands 7-2, also the best over-all mark in the MEAC.

The loss by A&T was the first in league play for the Aggies against three wins. Overall A&T is 5-5 for the season.

North Carolina Central fell to 1-3 in conference play and 4-6 against all opposition. Delaware State won a non-conference game against Lincoln, Wednesday night, 67-61 to up its mark to 4-2 overall.

Morgan State, yet to play a MEAC contest, suffered its third loss against outside competition as compared to six victories when the Bears dropped a 95-85 decision to Brockport State Saturday night.

Howard jumped off to an early 8-0 lead against North Carolina at Chapel Hill Saturday night but the superior rebounding strength for the Tarheels proved too much as the Bison fell, 109-67.

Maryland-Eastern Shore was defeated by Upsala College Friday night, 92-82. Donald Gray scored 24 points for UMES which now stands 2-10.

Four conference games will highlight a 13-game schedule this week with Morgan and Maryland E.S., each involved in a pair. Morgan plays at Maryland-Eastern Shore Tuesday and at Howard Saturday. UMES plays host to Delaware State Saturday night in Princess Anne, Maryland. Virginia Union plays at Delaware State Monday night while South Carolina State plays Benedict at home.

Howard travels to Huntington, West Virginia Tuesday to meet Marshall University. Maryland-Eastern Shore journeys to Richmond, Va., Wednesday to play Virginia Commonwealth. North Carolina Central will be at home against St. Augustine's Wednesday night and Delaware

State plays host to State Wednesday.

South Carolina State to Winston-Salem night and moves Greensboro Saturday meet A & T at the Coliseum. North Central travels to City Saturday Elizabeth City State
