THE JEFFERSONS LEAVE BUNKERVILLE FOR EAST SIDE, N.Y.

Louise, George and Lionel Jefferson have left "Bunkerville" for mid-town New York and their own series "The Jeffersons," premiering Saturday, Jan. 18 (8:30 PM.) on WTVD, Channel 11.

Inspired by viewers' reactions to the Bunker's neighbors on the top-rated "All in the Family," the new contemporary comedy series stars Isabel Sanford, Sherman Hemsley and Mike Evans as Louise, George and Lionel Jefferson, respectively. Also featured in the new comedy are Roxie Roker and Franklin Cover as the Jeffersons' new neighbors, and George's nemeses, Helen and Tom Willis, Paul Benedict as another new neighbor, Englishman Harry Bentley, Berlinda Tolbert as Lionel's fiancée, Jenny Willis, and Zara Cully as Mother Jefferson.

With George Jefferson's cleaning business booming, he insists his family leave the "Plain folks" and move up to the east side with the "fancy folks." The Jefferson family quits Queens and the Bunkers on "All in the Family" Saturday, Jan. 11 8 p.m. Ch.11, and show up as the stars of their own show the following Saturday.

George hopes relocation and his newly acquired wealth will mean the end of his problems in general and his troubles with neighbors in specific.
