Newsman Heads Publicity Dept. In Imperial Council

PETERSBURG, VA. — Bossie Benjamin Simmons, a past grand master of Prince Hall Masons in Virginia and the director of community relations at Virginia State College, has been reappointed the imperial director of publicity for the Ancient Egyptian Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine of North and South American and its jurisdiction, Incorporated, Prince Hall Shriners with headquarters at Detroit, Michigan.

Simmons is an Army veteran of World War II, the Korean conflict and the Vietnam war. He is a member of Mocha Temple 7, Prince Hall Shriners in Richmond and was first appointed to his present position in January of 1973 after stepping down as the Most Worshipful Grand Master for Prince Hall Masons in the state of Virginia.

Before retiring from the Army after 26 years of active military service, Simmons served as a news bureau chief for the Stars and Stripes newspapers in China, Germany, Japan and Korea. He also was a news bureau chief and chief administrative NCO for Army newspapers at Fort Lee, Va., Fort Knox, Ky. and at the National Rifle and Pistol Matches headquarters at Camp Perry, Ohio.

Upon retirement from military service, he came to Virginia State College for duty as an administrative assistant, later as the public information officer and now as director of community relations.

Five other PH Shriners serve as deputy imperial directors of publicity. They are Alexander Barnes, Durham; Harold E. Coates, Los Angeles, Calif.; Carl V. Hawkins, Cleveland, Ohio; Rev. Henry Whittle, Richmond, Va.; and Fred L. Williams, Detroit, Michigan.

MONTH OF SUNDAYS - COLONIAL LIFE - presented by The North Carolina Museum of History, 109 East Jones Street, Durham on the following dates: January 18 - WILLIAMSBURG: STORY OF A PATRIOT - A dramatic historical summary of the turbulent years between the imposition of the Stamp Act and the outbreak of the American Revolution. The story is that of John Fry who was torn between loyalty to Britain and his love for America. EIGHTEENTH CENTURY LIFE IN WILLIAMSBURG - The story of a day in the life of Christopher Kendall, cabinetmaker. He keeps a good home with all the conveniences of 18th century urban living. The camera follows him as he rises, dresses, eats breakfast, and works in his shop.

January 25 - AMERICAN REVOLUTION: CAUSE OF LIBERTY - Based on the actual exchange of correspondence between Henry Laurens, president of the First Continental Congress, and his idealistic son, AMERICAN REVOLUTION: IMPOSSIBLE WAR - The Trials and tragedies of all wars, the internal as well as the external conflicts, are dramatized in the re-creation of the American Revolution.

Are you interested in learning how to set up and operate aquariums, or in learning about dinosaurs? The North Carolina Museum of Life and Science is offering two courses in February which will explore these topics. People of all ages may register for the aquarium course, which will meet on Wednesday evenings; only children in grades 1-3 may register for the dinosaur course, which will meet Tuesdays and Thursdays after school. Telephone the museum at 477-0431 to register for these courses and to obtain additional information.

On Sunday, January 18 at 6:00, poets, artists, writers, musicians, photographers and craftspeople are invited to attend a pot luck dinner at 2101 Englewood Ave. The purpose of the evening is to provide an informal opportunity for people in the arts to get acquainted with each other. Everyone is asked to bring a dish or drink to share. For further information call 286-1364.
