

MISS. AUX. SPONSORS 3rd ANNUAL ORPHANAGE DAY

On Sunday, Jan. 18, the New Home and Durham Missionary Auxiliary sponsored their third successful annual Central Orphanage Day at the convention home on Guess Road.

The entire program featured the children of the orphanage with J. D. Drumwright, asst. superintendent presiding. The program consisted of an enjoyable concert by the choir of the orphanage, directed by Robert E. Howell. The speaker for the occasion was Rev. Neriah Goldston, the orphanage minister and a second year divinity student at Duke. The subject was "Time".

The climax of the program was the presentation of $1,405.09 to the orphanage by Mrs. B. L. Dunnegan, president of the New Home and Durham Missionary Auxiliary. Refreshments were served in the fellowship hall.

The committee of Central Orphanage Day wishes to thank the New Home and Durham Missionary Baptist Association, all of its auxiliaries, churches, and other organizations, and individuals who helped to make this a memorable day.
