

New Desegregation Study Challenges Coleman Report

BOSTON UNIVERSITY — A new study of school desegregation in 86 northern cities challenges the validity of the now-famous Coleman Report, which holds that forced desegregation triggers "white flight," according to Dr. Christine H. Rossell, assistant professor of political science at Boston University. Dr. Rossell, author of the study, says her findings run counter to the main conclusions of the Coleman Report and explode many "myths" about the impact of school desegregation. Among Dr. Rossell's findings are the following:

- School desegregation is not a prime cause of white flight.
- Even in school districts most affected by desegregation, white flight is minimal and temporary.

-in districts where significant white flight does occur, it is almost always before the opening of school in the first year of the plan, and rarely after that.

-The quality of education in desegregated schools usually rises rather than falls.

Dr. Rossell charges that research methods used in the Coleman Report are faulty. She claims that her study, unlike the Coleman Report, examines school districts at least four or five years before desegregation, then four or five years afterwards, and finally compares each district with itself.

Phila. Chapter of St. Aug Alumni Holds Meet

PHILADELPHIA, PA. — The Philadelphia Chapter of St. Augustine's College Alumni Association will hold its Annual Recognition Dinner on Friday, January 30, at the Faculty Club of the University of Pennsylvania. Honorees for 1976 are the Reverends John R. Logan, Jr. and Oscar E. Holder. Both are Alumni of the College which is located in Raleigh. Also being cited for its support and contributions to St. Augustine's College is St. Luke's Church Germantown. Dr. Prezell R. Robinson, President of the College, will be the principal speaker and will make presentations on behalf of St. Augustine's and its Philadelphia Alumni.

Father Logan and Father Holder are eminent Episcopal clergymen who have given support and inspiration to numerous students and alumni, as well as provided great service to the general community. Father Holder is retired; however, he serves as guest minister in various parishes throughout the area. Father Logan has been the rector at St. Simon the Cyrenian Church for many years. Several St. Augustine's alumni are members of St. Luke's Church, and many students have matriculated at the College from this parish.

Two hundred guests are expected at this annual gala affair. The Dinner Committee members include Mrs. Frances C. Miller, Mrs. Elizabeth Womack, Amos Norwook and Oscar A. Peay.

Nonverbal Lang. Barrier Separates Blacks and Whites

BOSTON UNIVERSITY — Basic differences in styles of nonverbal communication among blacks and whites is an important cause of communications breakdown, according to Boston University psychology professor Clara Mayo.

Mayo, who has studied the problem for the past four years, says that in conversation between blacks and whites one of the main difficulties is "miscueing."
